

Under the heading, "The St. Louis Fair and Asylum for Gangs of Decayed Politicians," the Oregonian, which is never so happy as when it is finding fault with the administration, quotes a story from the Chicago Chronicle to the effect that the president and Mark Hanna insist in saddling Perry Heath, for two years secretary of the republican national committee, on the St. Louis fair, at a salary of $20,000 a year. Now if there is to be twenty thousand dollar job in connection with the fair Perry Heath is as capable of filling the position as any man that could readily be named. But the story is neutralized to some extent by another democratic paper, the Seattle Times, equally well informed, it is presumed, which announces that the president has stated this same Perry Heath for his own private secretary, vice George B. Cortelyou, who is to succeed Postmaster-general Smith who is said to have his eye on the court of St. James?

Not that the information will be of any concern to our populist agitators hereabouts, but merely to fill space in this column, let us call attention to the fact pointed out by Secretary Gage in an interview published yesterday, that government bonds of all sorts are now paying less than 2 per cent on the investment. This is due to the high price an investor has to pay to get the bonds. Counting this high first cost, fives of 1904 pay 1.03 per cent per annum; fours of 1907 pay 1.61 per cent; threes of 1908 pay 1.34 per cent, while the new twos pay 1.73 per cent. Yet we have little doubt that we could name certain publicists hereabouts who will, the next time they put pen to paper, weigh against the enormous profit made on government bonds by national banks.—The Oregonian.

The Salem Statesman is mistaken when it claims that W. T. Slater, of that city, is the only bank receiver who has settled with the creditors of a collapsed bank dollar for dollar. Mr. Slater having already paid 95 per cent of the claims of a defunct Salem bank and having money enough on hand to pay the remainder. The Dalles has just such another receiver in the person of H. S. Wilson, who has already paid 95 per cent of the claims against The Dalles National bank and has money enough in sight, if not in hand, to pay the balance.

The La Grande Chronicle recites the fact that a prominent fruit dealer of New York declared recently that the only really good apples that the retailers were able to secure come from Idaho and Oregon. The old orchards in the East are dying out and new ones are not taking their place. Good apples are becoming scarce, even a rarity. Some of the Idaho and Oregon apples brought the fancy price of $1.60 per dozen. And yet people say that opportunities for making fortunes in Oregon have all been taken.

The anti-imperialists have our profound sympathy. Their idol is shattered. Their little god has turned into a piece of very common clay. George Washington Aguinaldo has turned traitor—to the anti—and sworn allegiance to the United States. What will the anti do now, poor things?

The wholesale merchants of Portland have petitioned the board of police commissioners for the reopening of the gambling houses of the city. And still there are some people who insist that the world is getting better.

Now that Funston and McArthur have succeeded in inducing Aguinaldo to swear allegiance to the United States, wouldn't it be a good idea to bring them over here and get them to try their hand on Edward Atkinson and a few of the Boston anti-imperialists? After they get through with these it might pay to take a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly.
