The supreme court of Kentucky has reversed the decision of the lower court by which Powers, lieutenant-governor of Kentucky, was given a life sentence on the charge that he had been an accomplice in the killing of Goebel, says the Globe-Democrat. Every intelligent lawyer who had taken the time to follow the case knew that the courts of Kentucky were on trial more than Powers was. This decision redeems the reputation of Powers and sustains that of the supreme court, and puts the stamp of condemnation upon the lower court. That court has been openly charged with lending itself to the political demands of Goebelism. That charge has remained unanswered, and has been confirmed by the supreme court. In its decision the court furnishes the most eloquent commentary on Goebelism that has yet been made.

Chief Justice Arellano, who administered the oath of allegiance to Aguinaldo, says that after he had fully explained to Aguinaldo the various measures passed by the Philippine commission and showed him what provisions were made for education and progress and for municipal and provincial self government, Aguinaldo replied by saying: "I never believed the Americans would be so fair and liberal." No doubt of it. He had consulted the wrong crowd. With mentors of the Atkinson, Boutwell, Sulzer, Pettigrew, Bryan stripe, no wonder Aguinaldo was deceived. Even here if one shuts his ears to all other sounds but the yawpings of these political Ishmaelites he would imagine we were a nation of blood-thirsty savages.

It is said that had the Columbia Southern railroad been tied up by a receivership, the Nevada, California & Oregon would have hurried its road to Prineville and made Central Oregon tributary to California. This would have bottled up the Columbia Southern, as it will be many a day before Central Oregon will be able to support two roads. If there is really any likelihood of such a movement on the part of the California road, the Columbia Southern will be compelled to forestall it by rushing an extension of its own to Prineville.

James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, declares that he could start at the bottom and climb to the top again, and Andrew Carnegie says he could land in New York without a cent and erect another big fortune. Young men who are looking for opportunities should make a note of these desirable openings.

The S. F. Bulletin thinks that the anxiety of the people is directed wide of the worst dangers. It says: "While pessimistic patriots are declaiming against trusts as the most grievous ulcer on the social body, the courts are quietly granting divorces. Divorce is corrupting the national life. Marriage is no longer holy. Men and women mate for a season like birds, having one eye on the divorce court while they breathe their mutual vows at the altar. It is an evil augury for the future."

With Aguinaldo an American citizen following the flag of freedom, it leaves Bryan and some of the other rebel antics out of the fold. The president may yet have to extend the terms of amnesty to the Nebraska statesman to save him from Funston.—Walla Walla Union.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
