A Portland man whose house was robbed bought a dog to prevent further depredations—and the burglar came back and stole the dog. Portland business men are nothing if not thorough.

All members of Friendship Lodge No. 9, K. of P., are requested to be present at the castle hall this evening, as there will be work in the third. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend.

A deadly base ball encounter took place yesterday on the old fair grounds between The Dalles "Counter Hoppers" and the high school "Kids," the "Kids" coming out on top by a score of 11 to 10.

The Regulator started this morning for Portland, after an overhauling that makes her look handsomer than ever. Her new boiler gives her twenty-five pounds more steam, and if there is any racing competition to be done between here and Portland this summer, the Regulator will be likely to give a good account of herself.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gait, of this city, died quite suddenly yesterday of cholera infantum, aged twelve months. The funeral will take place from the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Next Monday morning, April 15th, the steamer Iralda will commence her summer run between Cascade Locks and The Dalles. The boat will leave the locks at 6 a. m. and arrive here at 10:30; leaving here at 3 p. m. on the return trip.

Next Wednesday night the people of The Dalles will be given a real musical treat at the recital to be given by Miss Ida Helen Rodkey, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Susie Gambell, the accomplished vocal teacher of Portland, who is giving lessons in The Dalles. The recital will be given in the Congregational church beginning at 8:15.

Salemites are excited over a well-established report that one Mark Skiff has formed a huge wood trust and bought up, practically, all the wood that will be marketed in Salem this summer and fall. It is estimated that it will take 25,000 cords to supply Salem, including the state institutions. Mr. Skiff is supposed to have bought up 20,000 cords.

On a judgment of foreclosure the Newman residence, on the southwest corner of Fourth and Union streets, was this afternoon sold at public auction by the sheriff, to satisfy a mortgage claim of $3,000. This was the third attempt to sell the property, the two previous ones having failed for want of bidders. The property was bid in by Attorney F. W. Wilson for Dr. Hugh Logan, the mortgagee.

The body of Thomas Riley, who was shot and killed on Trout creek, Crook county, last Saturday by a sheep herder named Jack Bruner, was brought here on this afternoon's train for interment. We learn from the Antelope Herald that Bruner gave himself up to a deputy sheriff from Antelope, who took him to Ashwood, where he was committed to the hands of the sheriff of Crook county without bail.

Thomas Diffenderfer was arrested last night on complaint of C. P. Johansen, of the Germania saloon, who charged Diffenderfer with having stolen $6 in currency from a gambling table at a time when the participants in the game were engaged in a row. Diffenderfer was arraigned in Justice Brownhill's court this afternoon and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Shaniko Leader quotes W. H. Moore, who, in conjunction with E. E. Lytle, now owns the Columbia Southern Railroad, as wanting it distinctly understood that the company has no thought of extending the road. As the country south of Shaniko is only sparsely settled and the cost of constructing an extension for any considerable distance would be quite heavy, Mr. Moore says it is non-sense to talk of the proposition.

The series of special meetings which have been conducted at the Congregational church for the past two weeks by Rev. C. F. Clapp, closed at last evening's service. The auditorium was crowded to its full capacity both in the morning and evening, by a very attentive and appreciative audience. The morning offertory, sung by Miss Gambell, was highly pleasing. The music in the evening by the male chorus and quartet was exceptionally good.

At the annual meeting of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company held at the office of the company in this city last Saturday, the following directors and officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Directors—H. Glenn, L. E. Crowe, J. T. Peters, J. P. McInerney, E. M. Williams, M. T. Nolan and Max Vogt. This board of directors elected the following officers: President, H. Glenn; vice-president, M. T. Nolan; secretary, L. E. Crowe; treasurer, J. S. Schenck.

The probabilities are that we shall have lively times on the river for a time, at least, this summer. The owners of the Bailey Gatzert, that has long plied between Portland and Astoria, announce their intention of placing her on The Dalles and Portland run commencing on the first of May. In retaliation the D. P. & A. N. Company will probably send the Reliance to the Sound to compete with the Flyer, running between Seattle and Tacoma, which is owned by the same company that owns the Gatzert.

Senator Mitchell has now been confined to his bed for one week with what his doctor declares to be an acute attack of la grippe. For the first five days his temperature ranged from 101 to 103. His temperature is now normal and he is improving in all respects as well as can be expected. His physician, however, says it will be ten days or two weeks before he will be able to leave his room or give any attention to correspondence or other business. At no time, however, has Mr. Mitchell's condition been serious, and now every symptom is favorable.

Messrs. W. Bolton & Company have sold their Shaniko store building to Pease & Mays, and will move the big stock of goods which they had at Shaniko to their warehouse at this place. Messrs. Bolton & Co. have been in business at Shaniko since last August, and while business was everything that they could expect, they have concluded that they could best handle their large business and serve their trade at Antelope. The building acquired by Pease & Mays is a splendidly equipped, modern store building. The consideration paid was in the neighborhood of $4500.—Antelope Herald.

A large audience gathered at the Christian church last evening to witness the concert given by the members of the Sunday school. The church was neatly decorated with evergreens, cut flowers and a profusion of Oregon grape. The service was of a missionary nature, and the program was well rendered by the little ones. An offering for missions was taken, and the little ones came with the missionary stockings well filled with pennies. After this service Evangelist Harding held the attention of the audience with much interest on the subject of "The New Birth." He will speak again next Sunday, morning and evening. He leaves for his home in the East the early part of next week. Mr. Harding is very favorably impressed with this coast, and may possibly return with his family in the near future.

The Antelope Herald says: "There is a movement on foot among a number of prominent sheepmen of this vicinity to have their wool hauled to The Dalles by team. This action is brought about by the present rate on wool from Shaniko to The Dalles by rail, to-wit, 55 cents per hundred. The rate on wool from Shaniko to The Dalles last year, the first year of the operation of the Columbia Southern Railway, was only 25 cents per hundred, and the present rate of 55 cents can only be explained as an attempt to keep the wool from this section of the country at Shaniko, in order to create a market there. The Columbia Southern doubtless has the right to impose this rate of 55 cents per hundred on wool, but from the stir it has created among local sheepmen it is questionable whether they will submit to it. There are a number of sheepmen in this immediate vicinity who market their wool at The Dalles and who intend to continue doing so, and they figure that the 55-cent rate to The Dalles, added to the cost of getting their wool to the railroad at Shaniko, makes the cost by rail to The Dalles more than if shipped by the old "team route," at from 50 to 65 cents per hundred."

Special Announcement.

I desire to announce that I have received my complete line of dry goods, clothing, etc. for spring and summer, and solicit a share of your patronage.
