WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

The firms of Pease & Mays and Mays & Crowe challenge A. M. Williams and W. A. Johnston for a baseball game.

House-cleaning time is here. Supply your lace curtain wants of A. M. Williams & Co., and save a fourth on the price.

The dramatic and humorous recital by Miss Ida Rodkey, assisted by Miss Susie Gambell, takes place at the Congregational church tonight.

Dr. Emily McBride Yeargain, elder sister of Ex-Senator G. W. McBride, died in San Francisco last Sunday of pneumonia, aged 60 years.

Representative A. S. Roberts, of this county, is mentioned as one of the legislative delegation who will meet President McKinley at the state line on his contemplated visit to Oregon.

There's no time like the present for buying lace curtains. A. M. Williams & Co. offer a reduction of one-fourth on any and all lace curtains this week, including choice of their new spring arrivals.

The National Watchman, published by the Democratic National Publishing Co., is said to be $25,000 to the bad. Benjamin F. Hicks, treasurer of the concern, has begun proceedings looking to the appointment of a receiver.

In the mention of "Sweet Dreamland Faces" we neglected to give credit where credit is due. Miss Grace Glenn as "Rose" was a very sweet sweetheart, while Earl Sanders as "Robert" did a very pretty little piece of acting.

Lost—Today, either between the bridge and Ninth and Union or on Union to Second, or Second to the brewery, a lady's navy blue coat, with red imitation silk lining. Finder will please leave same at this office and be suitably rewarded. a10 2t

Take a piece of paper and write upon it the number representing your age in years, multiply by two, add 3800, divide by two, then subtract the number representing your age, and you will have something before your eyes that you will never see again.

Mr. J. M. Russell, of The Dalles

Scouring Mills, says the people of this town seem to have so much money that they don't want any more. The interest on the mill bonds has been lying in the bank for nearly two weeks, subject to the order of its individual owners, and nobody has called for any of it.

In Justice Brownhill's court yesterday afternoon Thomas Diffendorfer pleaded guilty to a charge of simple larceny and was fined $25, in default of payment of which he will serve twelve and a half days in the county jail.

The Fossil Journal has the following personal: "Loui Compi, the squarest tombstone man in the country, is here putting up monuments. He is offering special inducements this month, and says now is the time to die."

The Easter number of the New York Sunday Journal will arrive at Grant's, The American Cigar Store & News Stand, tomorrow. It has 600 columns of reading matter, and the circulation is greater than the combined circulation of the World, Tribune, Press and Times. Order early. We deliver free. Both 'phones.

There are twenty-nine applicants for teachers' certificates at the examination which commenced this morning, five of whom are males and twenty-four of the gentler sex. The examiners are C. D. Thompson, principal of the Hood River public schools, Professor J. T. Neff of this city and Superintendent C. L. Gilbert. The examinations will close at 4 p. m. Friday.

The coroner's jury in the case of Thomas Reiley, who was killed on Trout Creek, Crook county, last Thursday, returned a verdict to the effect that Reiley had been "maliciously" murdered by D. Bruner. Only two witnesses were examined, Dr. J. H. Hudson of Antelope, and a man named Oregan, who was a partner of the murdered man.

Notwithstanding that the vote at the recent election in Goldendale was largely against licensing saloons, Harry Dunn, a saloon keeper of that town, declares his intention to keep his saloon open till his license expires next November. He is acting upon the advice of his attorney, and if the new council insists on revoking his license he will appeal to the courts.

The Statesman tells of a Salem little boy seeing the picture of Aguinaldo in the papers next morning after his capture, and being told that he had been taken by the soldiers, said, "Mamma, what will Bryan do now?" Upon being asked what he meant, he replied, "Why, let's Aguinaldo Bryan's boy?" The little fellow is but seven years old but he had heard enough during the campaign last year to form a conclusion not very far wrong, figuratively speaking.

The Salem wood trust did not amount to much after all, for the state board of asylum commissioners were able yesterday to place contracts for 436 cords of big fir wood at prices ranging from $2.74 to $3 per cord, while some first-class second growth was offered at $2.50 per cord and was referred to the superintendent for investigation. A wood trust of that kind would be more than welcome in The Dalles, where $3.75 per cord is asked for any old kind of fir wood.

The dropping of the definite article from the name of this city causes many a letter to go to Dallas, Texas, or Dallas, Oregon, according as the state is indicated or not. This morning no less than nineteen letters arrived at The Dalles postoffice, with the "The" wanting, which belonged here by right but had gone to Dallas, Polk county, by mistake. Postmaster Patterson says that an average of four to six letters so addressed, make the round from Dallas to The Dalles every day.

Rev. O. D. Taylor has arrived here from Portland with the intention of spending a week or so with his family. Mr. Taylor says he has as many as 130 letters from eastern parties, nearly all farmers, inquiring about The Dalles and the surrounding country with a view of locating here. Some inquire for grain farms, some for small fruit farms and some for cattle and sheep ranges. All have the means to pay for what they desire to purchase. If parties having such lands to sell will communicate with Mr. Taylor at this place, giving description of lands and prices, Mr. Taylor will see that his eastern correspondents shall have the information. all-1d2w

Said Henry Hudson, of Boyd, to THE CHRONICLE today: "The farmers out my way are of one mind that the new flouring mill project is the best thing for them that ever was started in The Dalles. It will insure them an abundant demand at top prices for all the No. 1 wheat they can raise, and will, therefore, be a stimulus to good farming. What the Diamond Mills has done for the Klickitat farmers the new mill will do for the Wasco farmers, only it will do as much more as its capacity is greater. Then, too, it is no small matter that we shall be able to buy, at reasonable rates, all the mill offal we may need, for the price of this article, because of the limited supply, has ordinarily been so high that we could not afford to touch it. Say to the readers of THE CHRONICLE that the Wasco county wheat-raisers are immensely pleased to know that the 500-barrel flouring mill is an assured fact."

Gumbert's popular cigar and tobacco house wish to announce that they are now ready to supply the public with New York Sunday Worlds, at five cents a number, the demand having been so large that we were forced to triple our usual supply. Being now prepared to satisfy the usual rush, we hope disappointment in receiving the New York Sunday World will be a thing of the past, as our supply will now be so large that the public in general need not hesitate to send in their orders. We wish to extend many thanks to the public at large for their kind patronage in
