

Greatest of All

"Every one in San Antonio, Texas, says that Acker's English Remedy is the greatest thing ever put up for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and consumption. I have been using it over four years for all forms of throat and lung troubles, and have yet to come across a case where it failed. We have four little ones in our family, and neither my wife nor I have ever lost a night's sleep because of throat troubles among the children. I guess that is more than any other family can say. Acker's English Remedy is just as effective for grown-up people as for the young. It seems to go straight to the place where the trouble lies in the throat and bronchial tubes and lungs. It soothes and heals the irritated tissues, loosens up the phlegm and mucus in the breathing passages, quiets the nerves, invigorates the constitution and stops the coughing. My advice to parents is to always keep a bottle in the house. It will be a constant safeguard against croup." (Signed)

F. G. ZIMMERMAN, San Antonio, Tex.
Sold at 50c. per bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2s. 3s., 4s., 6s. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

Synopsis of "The Irish Duke."

Squire Egan, an Irish gentleman of the best type, has a young friend named Edward O'Connor, a sutor for the hand of Miss Fanny Dawson. The party opposed to Edward is a rich political schemer named Squire O'Grady, who has kept some deeds by a legal hocus focus for years from the young man. Squire Egan has a young man about his establishment called Andy. The young man was supposed to be an orphan, but in reality his father was an English lord and his mother an Irish lady of the famous Fitzgerald family. He was stolen from his home when a child and was reared in the mountains by the mother of Oonah Rooney, or Annie Rooney, but now is a butler and whipperin at Squire Egan's mansion. Squire Egan likes him for his peculiar, humorous ways, and can't bring himself to part with him even when he brings him hot water for shaving in a large tin bucket instead of a cup. Nance, his mother, is very haughty and was the wife of a lord, who is now dead. By her perseverance, bold and ingenious plans, she not only recovers her deeds and records to her own large estate, but also Edward O'Connor's deed, which renders him and his sweetheart, Fanny Dawson, happy. She also gets the documents and papers from O'Grady, which restores herself to the rank of a high and honest lady, making, at the same time, her son Andy, or rather "Arthur," his proper name, the possessor of the high title of "Duke" and an immense property of nine counties, the province of Ulster, north of Ireland, thus well enabling him to marry the beautiful farmer's daughter, Annie Rooney, Nance, Fanny Dawson, Kathleen, Roelna, Gertrude and Gloriana, are guests at Squire Egan's mansion visiting in the summer time. Mr. Murphy is the witty Irish lawyer for Squire Egan, and Mr. Furlong is the—aw—dude lawyer for Squire O'Grady.

The two scenes of "Robert Emmet" and "Marie" are given as a curtain-raiser or specialty. Specialty and play last a little over three hours.

WILD WITH ECZEMA

And Other Itching Burning Scaly Eruptions with Loss of Hair.

Speedy Cure Treatment $1.25.

Bathe the affected parts with Hot Water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent, to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set (price, $1.25) is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, and humiliating skin, scalp, and blood humors, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

This sweet and wholesome treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning, and scaly humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure when all other remedies fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That CUTICURA remedies are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.
