You're Wrong

If you have an idea, sir, that because you could not get a good pair of shoes for less than $5 or $6 ten years ago that you are still obliged to pay that much for a first-class shoe. Modern improvements in the manufacture of shoes have cut the cost in two. Ten years ago five dollars would not have bought such shoes as we are now selling for

$3.00

Vici Kid, plain or cloth top, Box Calf, Russia Calf in black or brown. We have higher priced shoes to sell, but you won't wear so many of them if you carefully examine our $3.00 shoes. Come in and see about it. Spring styles are waiting for you.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The Ashwood Prospector says about sixty-five tons of ore is being shipped from the King mine to the Tacoma smelter.

Now is the time to get a bicycle. Mays & Crowe's special sale lasts one week only. You cannot buy a Pennant bicycle for $17.50 after this week.

"Town Topics," a weekly free lance sheet published in Portland, says that W. H. H. Dufur, of Dufur, is booked for the next United States marshalship.

H. L. Price, successor to C. F. Stephens, while in Portland Saturday purchased, at a large discount from cost, a bankrupt stock of ladies' shirt waists and skirts, the sale of which will be announced in a few days.

Mays & Crowe sold six bicycles Saturday. This is a pretty good sale of bicycles for one day in a town the size of The Dalles. It is hard to understand how such a wheel as the Pennant can be sold for $17.50, but they do it.

The Menaley Trio concert Thursday night at the M. E. church, for genuine entertainment, noble inspiration, splendid harmony and magnificent impersonation, is a combination hard to equal. Their entertainment is an intensely interesting sermon.

Leon Rondeau, of Kingsley, has closed a deal with W. H. Butts for six lots near the head of the old brewery grade, including the lot with the big spring. The price for the six lots is $500. Mr. Rondeau intends to build a residence on the property and move his family here that his children may have the advantages of The Dalles schools.

The circulation of the Telegram, since B. H. Grant became the agent, has increased to such an extent that Mr. Grant is obliged to employ a second hand for its delivery. One man will deliver above the bluff on horseback and the other below the bluff on foot. In this way it is calculated that subscribers on the bluff will get the paper considerably earlier than heretofore.

The Linnton horse abattoir and cannery will open for business in the latter part of May, when it is expected the otherwise worthless cayuse ponies of the Inland Empire will be good and fat and fit for canning. It is estimated that not less than three-quarters of a million of cayuse ponies range the country tributary to the Columbia river and its branches. They are fit for nothing but the slaughter-house.

Rev. C. D. Nickelsen, of Goldendale, preached two very able sermons in the M. E. church here yesterday. Though one of the youngest ministers in the conference, he is also one of the best, and is certainly a good student, as his discourse on evolution proved last night. Those who expected most of him were greatly surprised at the able manner in which he handled his subject.

C. A. Scott, a retired merchant of Baltimore, Maryland, stopped over here for a week while on his way home from the Philippine islands, which he visited for the benefit of health. While there he purchased 8000 acres of timber lands at an expense of $3,500. He left here this morning for home, where he intends to purchase a saw mill plant and return with it to the islands in the fall. Mr. Scott thinks there are splendid openings for the investment of American capital in these new possessions of ours.

A party of four, consisting of Hon. M. A. Moody and Miss Bessie Lang of this city, Mrs. C. J. Reed of Portland, and Mr. H. D. Langille, of Hood River, made the trip Saturday afternoon, the first of the season, to Cloud Cap Inn, remaining there over night and returning to the river Sunday afternoon. The party went by wagon to the snow line at the Elk Beds, and from thence to the inn on Indian shoes, returning to the Elk Beds on skoes. The party report about six feet of snow in the neighborhood of the inn.

Grant's, the American Cigar Store & News Stand, will this (Monday) evening, at 8 p. m., give to the person holding the winning number a 1901 Rambler bicycle. In order to prove to the public that our drawing is on the square, we will allow the person holding the winning coupon thirty days to call for the bicycle. If not called for then we will draw the same number over, so don't destroy your coupons if you do not win on the first drawing. Remember the date—this evening, April 15th, at 8 p. m.

"The Irish Duke."

Get your seats for the "Irish Duke" play, to be given at the Vogt opera house Thursday evening, April 18th. This is the last day the plan of the seats will be at Grant's, the American Cigar Store. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday it will be at the Postoffice Pharmacy, Clarke & Falk's. Those who have not already bought seats, should procure them at once, as the more desirable seats are being taken very rapidly, and there is every indication that there will be an unusually large audience. The elite of the city will be there. Nearly 100 reserved seats are sold already.

Aginaldo's Lost Epistle.

James J. Montagne, who writes the Note and Comment column in the Oregonian, pens this rather neat rhyme:

I am finished, Bryan, finished,
It's distinctly up to me
To come off my perch adroitly
And to light feet foremost. See?

Square me with the push in Boston,
Give my kindest to Mark Twain;
Tell him I am awful sorry
That his spiel for me was vain.

Tell the democratic party
That an issue can be found
That will beat imperialism—
Lots of good ones lying round.

Tell the crowd that roared for me
Of the hole that I am in,
Say I hated to desert them,
But I had to save my skin.

Cable Brother Agonello
He can agitate away
If he feels like keeping at it,
But I've had to stop his play.

It was pleasant revolting
When the panish gag was here,
And I sold the Tagals to them
For big money every year.

But of late I've had to travel
Night and day to keep ahead
Of our old friend, Uncle Samuel,
And it bored me—on the dead.

So I guess I'll swear allegiance,
Though I hate to throw you down;
I don't think that I was destined
For the Filipino crown.

I'll be over your way some time,
And I take this chance to state
That you'll soon hear of me voting
The expansion ticket straight.

Baseball Game.

The baseball game between the High Schools and the Counter Jumpers was a warm one, which resulted in a victory for the Counter Jumpers by one score. The game was hot and heavy all the way through, but next Sunday will be a warmer one, and the Counter Jumpers will no doubt choose someone besides a high school umpire.

The line-up was as follows:

Huott	c	Ward
O'Neal	d	Emerson
Evans	ss	Bartell
Sechler	1b	Ball
Hagan	2b	Cooper
Williams	3b	Dufur
Ballard	rf	Murray
Starr	cf	Earl
Smith	lf	Gosser

Senator Mitchell Improving

Under date of April 13th Senator John H. Mitchell telegraphed his son, Hiram E. Mitchell, of Portland, in response to many inquiries concerning Senator Mitchell's reported illness, as follows:

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Captain Hiram E. Mitchell, care H. C. Robertson, Commercial block, Portland: Please say to all friends, although still confined to bed, I am getting on splendidly; improving daily, no fever, good appetite, sleep well, no bad symptoms. Am giving attention to correspondence, dictating answers to letters every day. My trouble has been an acute attack of la grippe; threatened seriously for several days with pneumonia. It will perhaps be ten days or two weeks before I am able to be about much.

JOHN H. MITCHELL.

We Want Neither of Them.

Hon. H. W. Corbett, who was a candidate for the United States senate, declares that on the first day of next January he will start in and make a fight for the election at the next session of the legislature. He will see that clubs are organized in every county in the state, and he proposes to make a hard fight and commence early. His friend, Joseph Simon's, term will expire at that time. Mr. Simon will also make a fight, and with a few dark horses in the field the next session of the legislature promises to be more tropical than the last.—Oregon Mist.

THE CHRONICLE predicts that these Simmee twins will have a tough time organizing clubs in their interest in this county. Wasco county has no use for either of them, and will abundantly prove it has no use for them the very moment it gets a chance.

Card of Thanks.

We wish in this manner to express our appreciation and heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us in our late bereavement. It is indeed a consolation to know and feel that at this time of our great sorrow our friends, by kind words of sympathy and consolation, seek to lighten our burden of grief. The beautiful exemplification of true friendship for us and our departed loved one has endeared the good people of The Dalles to our hearts.

W. L. BRADSHAW AND FAMILY.

Ira Kistner, of Tygh Valley, was arrested Saturday night by Marshal Driver on a charge of having cruelly beaten the saddle horse that he had ridden into town. It is alleged that the animal resented being cinched up, and lay down on the street in front of L. A. Porter's livery stable, where he had been stabled, and refused to get up, and that Kistner smashed a one-by-four board over his head and perpetrated other cruelties on the animal. It is claimed for the defense that the horse is a mean brute, and that he kicked his stall in the Porter Stables into splinters. The hearing of the case was set for 4 o'clock this afternoon in the recorder's court.
