Rev. Mr. Christie was intimately associated for many years with Evangelist N. H. Harriman, who left the First Eaptist church seven years ago with the members which followed his leadership, and established the Ecclesia Mission. For years this mission did more to disrupt the churches of the city than all the other influences combined, members from all denominations flocking to it to hear the preaching of Harriman and Christie. Dissensions showed head from time to time at the mission, resulting in a scattering of the membership. The questions discussed upon which the saints were not quite clear were whether women should attend as delegates and act in a legislative capacity, or whether an ex-officio vote.

Today Joseph Smith, the prophet, seer and revelator, announced that the prayers of the church had been answered. and that in the early morning light the Lord had revealed himself. The revelation is an important one, and was not given the church, but goes first to the various bodies of the church, and if it is passed by them then the church takes action. There is no record where a revelation was had that passed the various quorums of the church, and was then not received by the body. It is expected that the revelation will reach the present week.
