MOUNTBANK POLITICS.

It is evidently the opinion of Mayor Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, and Mayor Jones, of Toledo, that many of the voters of the country are eager to go into a political circus or burlesque and that the cue of the demagogue is to give them all the head they want in that direction, says the Globe-Democrat.

Ohio democrats dearly love a millionaire and are delighted to hear that Tom Johnson is a candidate for governor and that John R. McLean will enter the lists for the senate.

Civilization is growing more luxuriant in Chicago every day, says the N. Y. Sun. The Inter Ocean prints the portrait of a lady who "leaves her husband because he is not cultured and wears woolen socks."

The Arlington Independent thinks that the building of the locks at the Cascades cannot be considered in any other light than a magnificent structure of extravagance to the government of our country, unless the opening of the entire river to navigation were in anticipation.

The influence of the locks at the Cascades is barely felt above the city of The Dalles. The influence of the navigation of the Columbia river its entire length can not be overestimated.
