WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Birgfeld's full orchestra will render the music for "The Henrietta" Friday night.

Seats for "The Henrietta" at Clarke & Falk's at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Get them early.

Miss Susie Gamble has kindly consented to sing between one of the acts Friday night at "The Henrietta" production.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church for next Wednesday afternoon has been postponed until one week from that time.

Bidwell Oram, of Cross Keys, delivered at Shaniko, to Charles Butler, last Tuesday, twenty-five head of beef cattle, for which he received for steers $50 and for cows $43.

James Nichols, an old-time locomotive engineer of the O. R. & N. Company, died this morning at his home in Albina. Mr. Nichols has been in poor health for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

The little daughter of E. C. Rees, of this city, had the misfortune to break her left arm yesterday while playing with some of her companions. Dr. Hugh Logan was called in and made the little one as comfortable as possible.

Two saddles, two bridles and two pair of spurs were stolen from the saddle and harness shop of Farley & Frank yesterday morning. The folks living in the restaurant next door claim that they heard a noise back of the store about 10 o'clock Saturday night, and also heard a noise about four hours later on, at which later time it is supposed the goods were taken. The officers of the law have no clue to the thieves.

Judge Bennett returned Saturday from Walla Walla, where he succeeded in winning a case of a peculiar and complicated character, securing a judgment for his client for $15,000. The action was brought to recover this amount on a certificate of deposit issued by a Walla Walla bank that failed some eight years ago. The certificate had been secured by one of the directors of the bank who has since died, and the action was brought against the administrator of the decedent's estate. The claim of Judge Bennett's client, a Mrs. Rathmiller, was generally considered by the legal fraternity as worth nothing, but the judge succeeded in establishing it just the same.

Owing to the fact that Mr. Evans will be absent from the city Friday night, Mr. Will H. Anders, of Olympia, son of Judge T. J. Anders, of the Washington supreme court, will play the part of "Bertie VanAlstyne" in "The Henrietta." A telegram was received from him yesterday and he will be here Wednesday. Mr. Anders made a pronounced hit in the part last summer in Olympia, and later in Ellensburg, where he played with Mr. Levin.

"Senator Mitchell" was arrested at Pendleton last Wednesday for horse-stealing. The East Oregonian says that Judge Ellis, when told that Senator Mitchell would be up before him for horse stealing at the next term of circuit court, looked surprised and grieved to learn that his old friend had got into trouble, but was relieved in mind when informed that it was an Indian and not United States Senator John H. Mitchell, who had been captured by the officials. There are a number of Indians on the reservation who have names which were given to them by the whites at the time of the allotment of the Umatilla reservation lands. They had unpronounceable names and, in order to get them on the books, one was called Senator Mitchell, another Major Barnhart, and so forth. A third Indian on the reservation with a name that is misleading is Poker Jim. A person might think that he had acquired that cognomen on account of his poker-playing proclivities. As a matter of fact, he cannot play poker at all—don't know the joker from little casino.

WHO IS HENRIETTA?

Guess and Get Two Complimentary Tickets to the Play.

"This question has been asked so often that it is really getting wearisome," said Mr. Levin today. In an interview with the CHRONICLE man he said, "You may say to the good people of The Dalles that the management of this show will give two complimentary tickets to the person who first guesses which of the ladies of the cast is Henrietta. It's worth that if a cent to let some one else tell who she really is. Guesses may be mailed or left at the Chronicle office any time before Wednesday at 6 p. m.

The ladies are Miss Myrtle Buffe, Miss Georgia Sampson, Miss Grace Glenn and Miss Edythe Mans. Now, then, let 'em guess, for the only other way they can find out is by going to the Vogt next Friday night and then they will see.

United States Marshals.

"Town Topics," a Portland free lance paper with decidedly Mitchell leanings, announces for a second time that William Henry Harrison Dufur, of Dufur, is finding strong backing for the United States marshals and that the "still hunt for the place is getting stronger." Mr. Dufur, who was in town today, denies that he is a party to any still hunt or any other kind of hunt for the United States marshals, notwithstanding that the job would be most acceptable should the fortunes of politics throw it in his way.

Now, as a matter of fact, if fealty to John H. Mitchell, in cloud as well as in sunshine, is deserving of recognition there is no man in Eastern Oregon more deserving of recognition than Harrison Dufur. He was a member of the legislature in 1882 and voted for Mitchell for United States senator till the last ballot when, at the suggestion of Mr. Mitchell himself, he changed his vote to J. N. Dolph. Mr. Dufur is now one of the supervisors of the Cascade forest reserve, and in that capacity he has manifested a zeal and energy in the discharge of his ill-paid and onerous duties that forbode faithful and efficient service in the marshals should he be fortunate enough to reach it.

A better appointment than that of Harrison Dufur would be hard to make, and it would give very general satisfaction to the many friends of Senator Mitchell in this neighborhood.

"Jolly Neighbors."

Saturday evening, in response to an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Walther, about thirty jolly neighbors gathered at their cozy home for a jolly time, and they certainly had it in playing games and acting charades. At 11 o'clock the guests were each presented with a fancy cap which was numbered. The gentlemen had to find the corresponding number of their cap among the ladies, in order to have the pleasure of their company to lunch. The result was a general mix-up, and plenty of fun. A bountiful lunch was then served. At 12 o'clock we bade our kind host and hostess good night, feeling that the evening would always be a bright spot in our memory.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gunning, Mrs. Q. M. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crandall, Mr. and Mrs. Angle, Mr. and Mrs. Dunstan, Mr. and Mrs. Groat, Mrs. Van Ande, Mr. and Mrs. Wheelon, Mrs. Fleming, Dr. and Mrs. Eshelman, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnett, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. S. Epton, Rev. and Mrs. Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. L. Christman, Mr. and Mrs. N. Harris, Mrs. Groat Sr., Mrs. Dr. Ferguson.

ONE OF THE JOLLY NEIGHBORS.

We offer for a limited period the twice-a-week CHRONICLE, price $1.50, and the Weekly Oregonian, price $1.50, both papers for $2 a year. Subscriptions under this offer must be paid in advance.

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

Mr. GOURLAY:—The following dispatch was sent me from Washington, and is of interest to all veterans of the Civil and Spanish wars:

The G. A. R. bill, which became a law May 9, 1900, provides that, in applications under the act of June 27, 1890 each disability is to be rated, and pensions granted for the aggregate disabilities.

This is much more liberal than has been the practice for several years and will give pensions to many heretofore held not rateable, and increase the pensions of those rated under the former practice. Therefore, where claimants are not receiving $12 under the general law, I advise filing at once an application under the act of June 27, 1890, to get the benefit of this amendatory act of 1900. Some have never applied under the act of June 27, 1890, and others have been rejected under the same act. In either case they should now apply under said act of June 27, 1890.

Where claimants are now getting less than $12 under the act of June 27, 1890, I advise that they file application for increase under said act to get the benefit of the act of 1900; also, by the G. A. R. bill. Congress has amended the act of June 27, 1890, and widows having an income not in excess of $250, can now be pensioned under said act.

Mrs. J. C. MEINS.

Warm Springs on the War Path.

Canyon City, says the Blue Mountain Eagle, was visited by some Indians from the Warm Springs reservation last Monday who apparently had no object in view other than obtaining information about the killing of the Columbia Indian, Scarface Charley, in the Izee country two years ago, and had the nerve to ask where the party was who did the shooting. When informed that they could find the man who did the shooting any time they were so disposed, one of them appeared very indignant and flourished his Winchester around in a manner that would indicate that he was actually looking for trouble. They soon departed on their way southward.

They each carried a thirty-day pass from the agent at Warm Springs reservation dated March 13th.

This will bring to mind an incident of two years ago in the Izee country in which the son of Dave Cutting was shot and killed by the Indians. The settlers of the Izee country have no love for an Indian, and should these Warm Springs brothers drop over that way looking for trouble they will surely be accommodated.
