Last Meeting of the Jolly Neighbors

It would be a difficult matter for the members of the Jolly Neighbors whist club to determine which meeting in the series just closed had been the most enjoyable. Certain it is that the last, held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Lueddemann, was by no means the least in that regard. Every feature in the evening's entertainment had been perfectly arranged, and the jollity of the Jolly Neighbors was at its best. Cards were laid aside, and a guessing game substituted which defied even the most reticent to be anything but sociable. In the design of the score cards the remarkable artistic ability of the hostess was displayed, each bearing a sketch of a cavalier in various attitudes; also the initial "L." In the contest Mr. H. S. Wilson was a winner and was awarded a pretty pen sketch, also the work of the hostess.

Seated at small tables, beautifully and substantially spread, the guests ceased guessing and proved that the subject then in hand was thoroughly understood and no guessing was necessary as to its merits.

Then followed an amusement which was enjoyed to the fullest extent—pinning a heart in place on two sketches which had been hung on portieres—one strongly resembling the host and the other a popular young lady of the party. If the gentlemen, when blindfolded, decided the location of a lady's heart was "mighty onartin," the ladies were none the less puzzled regarding the gentleman. Mrs. Hostetter, however, diagnosed the case most correctly and won the prize.

The prizes for the most successful whist scores during the series of games were then awarded Mr. E. M. Williams and Mrs. J. A. Geisendorfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lueddemann were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. D. M. French, and their guests were Messrs. and Mesdames H. S. Wilson, Houghton, Fish, Geisendorfer, Williams, Seufert, Tolmie, Ed French, Hostetter, H. W. French, Messrs. Bonn, Mays, Gude and French, Misses Patterson, Laura Thompson, Rose and Myrtle Michell, Carrie St. John, Miss George, of Portland, and Miss Lord, of Chillicothe, Ohio.

W. O. Johnson Found Guilty.

The trial of W. O. Johnson for assault and battery on Perry Wing ended at 7 o'clock last night, when the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. The testimony showed that Wing had entered Dan Baker's saloon in company with his brother-in-law, Jack Matthews, and called for the drinks. The defendant, Johnson, who is bar-keeper, informed Wing that he was instructed by Mr. Baker not to give Wing any liquor unless he paid for it in advance. Wing again called for the drinks, and, under pretense that he was going to pay for them, got them. After drinking, Wing refused to pay and Johnson accused him of already owing a bar bill. Wing thereupon became abusive, gave Johnson the lie, said he could lick him, and was in the act of pulling off his coat when Johnson stepped from behind the bar and, drawing a bottle, hit Wing on the side of the head, breaking his jaw and felling him to the ground, where Johnson again struck him twice with his fist. Several witnesses testified to the peaceable character of Johnson and to the fact that Wing was quarrelsome and abusive in his cups.

The jurors were J. L. Kelly, Chas. W. Simonson, D. E. Fisher, Alex. McLeod, T. C. Keithley and W. D. Woodburn. These gentlemen evidently held that the exigencies of self-defense did not justify Johnson in striking Wing a blow that had it landed a little higher up would probably have killed Wing on the spot.

Justice Brownhill had not sentenced Johnson at the time of going to press. Frank Menefee appeared for the state and Ned H. Gates for the defense.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Get your seats: For what? "Henrietta," tomorrow night.

The ladies of the M. E. church will have a sale of pies and cakes at Cross' store Saturday.

Found—A rug, which the owner can find at this office by proving property and paying for this notice. a24-4t

There are four of them—yes, four "Henriettas." Who's who? Which is which, and which is t'other?

Lost—A small shepherd pup, stub-tailed. A reward of $5 will be paid for the return of the pup to this office.

At the shooting gallery yesterday afternoon Mrs. Burdick won the prize for the best score in a contest with fourteen other ladies.

The topic for prayer-meeting service at the Congregational church this evening will be "Selfishness in Prayer;" Matt. xi:22-28.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to E. S. Hinman and Hallie Smith, both of Sherman county. The bridegroom is a former resident of Dufur.

We have a bicycle at $14.50, exactly the same grade that our competitors are asking $2 more for, and have been getting more than that for them at their "greatly reduced prices," as they would call them. Maier & Benton. 23-1f

Over 150,000 pounds of wool was purchased the other day at the Wasco Warehouse by a Boston buyer. This is the only sale of any importance that has taken place here for months. The exact price has not been given out, but it was somewhere between 10 and 11 cents.

Gumbert's Leading Cigar and Tobacco House wishes to announce that the drawing for the beautiful sofa pillow takes place Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Invest five cents in a Sunday World, or any other periodical, and get a chance on this beautiful sofa pillow. 25a-2t

The 82nd anniversary of the founding of the Odd Fellows' order in the United States will be observed by the local lodge of Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs tonight. A nice program has been arranged, to be followed by a banquet. Members of both orders and their families, visitor or resident, are expected to be present.

Mr. H. L. Price, of this city, received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel Price, at her home in Portland. The deceased was 48 years of age. She had been afflicted with a complication of diseases for months, and her death was not unexpected. Mr. Price left on the noon train to attend the funeral.

A marriage license was issued by County Clerk A. E. Lake yesterday afternoon to A. L. Richey and Elizabeth Bates, both of Sherman county. Another license was issued this morning, but the bridegroom, by liberal promises of cigars and wedding cake, bribed the entire force in the clerk's office to conceal the names of the licentiates from the newspaper fiends till next Monday, when, it is presumed, the wedding will be over.

A large party from Dufur will attend "The Henrietta" tomorrow night, tickets having been ordered for Henry Menefee, Jeff. Heisler, E. O. Shephard and wife, T. M. Robinson and wife, Prof. Allard, and the pupils of the 9th grade of the Dufur school, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Everett, and several others. The party will drive in 10 teams. The school pupils will come in a four-in-hand, Prof. Allard, who is a splendid "whip," handling the ribbons.

The marriage of Mr. Abraham Richey, a well-known business man of Grass Valley, Sherman county, and Miss Elizabeth Bates, an estimable young lady who formerly resided in The Dalles, was celebrated at 8 o'clock last evening at St. Peter's church, this city, by Rev. A. Brongsgeest. This morning Mr. and Mrs. Richey took the boat for Portland, from whence they will visit the Sound and return to their home in Grass Valley in about ten days.

B. F. Laughlin, E. F. Sharp, J. A. McArthur and a number of others, some eight or nine persons in all, left this morning for the neighborhood of the Whitney ranch, on Three Mile, to survey and locate the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company's power and electric light line between The Dalles and White river falls. This party will locate the line as far as the Sigman ranch south of Dufur, and next Monday the Pacific Bride Company, who have the contract for building the line, are expected to put a crew of their own surveyors in the field and survey and locate the rest of the line from Sigman's to White river.

Died—Wednesday, April 24th, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. O. W. Cook, of Three Mile creek, Miss Mattie Gilliam, daughter of Mrs. S. C. Gilliam, of Three Mile, aged 20 years. The cause of death was consumption, which the deceased contracted over a year ago after an attack of scarlet fever. She was taken to Baker City last October in hope that the higher altitude might be beneficial, but the change was of no apparent benefit and she returned here a few days ago to die. The funeral will take place from the Cook residence tomorrow at 10 o'clock a. m. The services will be conducted by Rev. U. F. Hawk, and the interment will take place in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

From a gentleman who arrived here from Baker county a few days ago we learn that Joe Kirchhoff, who went from here last winter to take charge of the machinery of the Golden Eagle mine, which is owned by parties in this city, is still in the Baker City hospital and only a week ago it was still a matter of doubt with the doctors whether they could save his left hand or not, after amputating two of the fingers. Mr. Kirchhoff has had hard luck up there. He was not long at his new job when a piece of steel was driven into his left hand and, the wound being neglected, blood poisoning set in and for weeks the poor fellow hovered between life and death. As soon as the doctors will permit him to leave, Mr. Kirchhoff will come back home to The Dalles and recruit up.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Harris last night are unanimous in saying that they had a very pleasant time. The spacious parlors were filled to the doors, and no pains were spared by the genial hostess to make everyone at home. A short program was opened by a solo from Miss Gambell, who responded to a hearty encore by another selection. Miss Rose Michell followed with the recitation "Aux Italiens." Then followed an instrumental duet by Mr. Gumbert on the violin and Miss Anna Harris at the piano. At a guessing game which followed, which consisted of rebuses of well-known cities, Miss Margaret Kinersly carried off the prize. During the evening the high school pupils sold candies, and near the close an elegant reception was served. The net proceeds, which will go to the school library, amounted to a little over $20.

Narrating "Some Remarkable Cases of Double Personality," Dr. R. Osgood Mason cites, in the May Ladies' Home Journal, the case of a "young ecclesiastic in the seminary with the Archbishop of Bordeaux, France, who was in the habit of getting up at night in a condition of somnambulism, going to his study and composing and writing his sermons in the dark. When he had finished one page he read it over and carefully and properly corrected it. A broad piece of cardboard interposed between his eyes and his writing made no difference to him. He wrote, read and corrected just the same as if there had been no obstruction. Having completed his work to his satisfaction he returned to bed, and in the morning he had not the slightest idea of what he had done in the night, and had no knowledge of it until he saw the manuscript in his own handwriting."
