

Rolling Mill Consumption

Seven out of every ten men who work in rolling mills, iron foundries and glass factories die of consumption. You know how early in life these men pass away. The usual symptom is a nagging, persistent cough—sometimes short and hacking, sometimes hard and dry. The patient grows weaker and thinner day by day. Death eventually ensues. The trouble comes from intense heat and the constant inhaling of the fine particles of dust and iron that fill the air. These particles, under a microscope, show jagged, sharp edges, which tear and mutilate the delicate lining of the throat and lungs. Perennial sores are thus formed, and here it is that the germ of consumption find a place to fest and multiply. Asker's English Remedy was discovered in England, and is the only cure in the world for Rolling Mill Consumption. It heals up the sores, strengthens the mucous membranes of the breathing organs, permanently stops the cough, builds up the constitution and imparts vigor to the whole system. It must either cure or it costs you nothing. One bottle does wonders. Try it. What it has done for many others it will also do for you and your loved ones.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle throughout the United States and Canada; and in England at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. LOCKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

SALMAGUNDI.

Horse rustlers with two cars of stolen horses are dodging the officers somewhere in the eastern portion of Malheur county. The Stockmen's Protective Association maintains a sharp surveillance throughout the territory. The thieves are well-known to the officers.

The Oregonian says Lordlord Bowers, of the Hotel Portland, is already arranging or President McKinley's welfare while the distinguished guest is in the city, and has ordered several crates of Hood River strawberries, which for size, color and flavor cannot be equalled in California. Mr. Bowers is confident these luscious berries will make an impression on the party that time will not efface.

If a man must swear, let him swear and be done with it. The substitutes wherewith a timorous conscience salves itself, smack of cowardice. "Gash darn," and "I swan" and "I sew" and "Jimmy crickets" and "tarnation" and "darn it" and "dog gone it" and the whole brood of sneaks—away with them! If your communication cannot be yes, and nay, nay, if you must swear, do it as though you mean it.—New York Sun.

The Fossil Journal says: "C. E. Lytle, general freight and passenger agent of the Columbia Southern railway company, and A. M. Kelsay, of the Shaniko Townsite Company, were in town this week interviewing our business men with a view to diverting the freight and traffic of this place to Shaniko. They are considering the building of a wagon road from Shaniko to Fossil that will materially lessen the grades and distance.

Among the questions at the recent examination for teachers' certificates at The Dalles the applicants were asked to name two national conventions in 1900 and the candidates nominated. One of the candidates for pedagogy answered, "The Republican convention at Philadelphia nominated Wm. McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt; democratic convention at Salem, Oregon nominated W. J. Bryan and Mark Hanna." The fair applicant passed, however, with a general average rating of 88.—Glacier.

The Oregon Bar Association has commenced proceedings in the supreme court for the disbarment of George St. Rayner, a well-known Portland attorney, who is accused of unprofessional conduct. The proceedings grew out of the McDaniel case. After the testimony was taken St. Rayner secured the records of the official stenographer for the purpose of preparing his appeal, and it is charged against him that he purposely caused two pages of the typewritten testimony to be materially altered.

A friend, writing to the Hood River Glacier, mentions the fact that Slingerland's best (Hood River) apples are selling at wholesale in Portland at $2.50 a box, while California's best oranges are selling at wholesale in the same market at $2.50 a box. It might be added that Hood River's best apple lands are held at from $50 to $125 an acre, while California's best orange land is held at $1000 an acre and upwards. Apple-orchard land in the famous Pajarro valley of California is held at $600 and $800 an acre. They grow no better apples there than in Hood River, but their orchards are extensive, and apple buyers can go there in the season and purchase apples by the train load, or bargain for them in such quantities in advance of the harvest.

Caught a Dreadful Cold.
Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Night Was Her Terror.
"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at G. C. Blakeley's drug store.

A Testimonial from Old England.
"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." Sold by Blakeley, the druggist.
