Wasco Warehouse a recent purchase of wool that when baled filled four cars. Mr. Brigham's departure for Wyoming was in response to telegraphic advices from Boston that the wool market had opened at Rawlins, Wyoming, and that a considerable amount had changed hands at 10½ cents. This price is significant as indicating present rates and as a prophecy of probable future ones. At any rate it is between five and six cents less than the opening price of April 1900.

Mrs. Bunch says she has a home that is well furnished and she asks the custody of her children, claiming that she is able to take care of them, as she has been doing for more than a year past.

The Dufur Dispatch says that J. B. Haveley, of Boyd, has just finished planting 72 acres of potatoes but says he does not intend to "glut" the "spud" market, for if the price next fall does not suit him he will feed them to his horses and hogs.

County Treasurer J. F. Hampshire today mailed to State Treasurer Charles

The Sunday Oregonian says: "The Widow Bedott," which has been running all the week at the Metropolitan theater, will be given for the last time tonight. The play is a bright and lively comedy, interspersed with numerous specialties, and has pleased good hordes all the week."

The attention of Judge Bradshaw was occupied this morning in hearing arguments by the respective attorneys in the case of Paul Kruger vs. Dalles City, upon a motion interposed on the part of the city to strike out portions of plaintiff's complaint. The court took the matter under advisement.

Through the courtesy of Representative M. A. Mr. F. Howard Isenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Isenberg, of Hood River, was united in marriage yesterday at Cascade Locks to Miss Zella F. Steele, a resident of that place. After the wedding the young couple took the train for Hood River, where they partook of an elegant wedding supper at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Isenberg will make their home at Belmont, a few miles southwest of Hood River.

J. W. Howard, the well-known Crook county cattleman, delivered at the company's stockyards this afternoon 108 head of beef cattle, which he sold to Roe Grimes for the Union Meat Company. The cattle are a part of some 250 head which Mr. Howard brought the other day from Crook county to the D. P. Ketchum ranch on Five Mile, where they await disposal. They were brought here on foot, Mr. Howard believing that it is money in his pocket to bring them that way rather than to drive them to Shaniko and ship from there by rail.

A division of the property between the three heirs of the estate of the late Mrs. Mary Vanderpool, of Dufur, was made last week. The estate was valued at $6000, consisting of a farm near Dufur, town property in Dufur, and money and notes. In the settlement W. T. Vanderpool becomes owner of the residence property and W. L. Vanderpool the rest of the Dufur property consisting of two unimproved blocks. Mrs. Rebecca Wilson received her third in coin. The farm was sold to T. H. Johnston for the sum of $2,200 prior to the settlement.

The new base ball rules this year will shorten the game about half an hour, making an average game an hour and a half long. The rules which do this are the ones which make the following strikes: A foul hit ball not caught on the fly, unless two strikes have already been called, a bunt hit ball which settles on foul ground, a ball struck at hitting any part of the batsman, and a foul tip caught by the catcher. These rules keep things moving very fast. Another important rule is an out for the striker who makes an infield fly while first and second bases are occupied, unless two hands are out. Albany Democrat.

Mr. Otis Patterson, manager of the D. C. & A. C. football club for the past season, is glad to state that the recent successful production of "The Henrietta" netted to the football boys the sum of $25.70, leaving them behind only $38.48. Considering that the total indebtedness was something over $146 at the close of the season, the organization feel that they have much to be thankful for, and that they are under great obligations to the young people who have assisted Mr. Levin in both productions. They also appreciate the interest manifested by the community and their generous patronage. The newspapers of The Dalles have kindly donated all advertising, which, in a daily newspaper like THE CHRONICLE, would have amounted to considerable. The boys feel truly grateful to all.

Saturday evening was passed most pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Houghton by a few of the friends of Miss Lord, who will return in a few days to her Ohio home. "Hearts" occupied the attention of the guests during the greater part of the evening; but, as usual, not their undivided attention, for their was much merriment and good-natured banter. At the close of the game, after Miss Lay and Miss Harriet Marden had been awarded prizes, a lunch fit for the gods was served and greatly enjoyed. The coziness of the already attractive parlors had been enhanced by the addition of cut flowers, adding to the pleasant surroundings, which, together with the genial hospitality which prevailed, made the evening a happy one.

About fifty-five local Odd Fellows attended the M. E. church in a body last night and were edified by an interesting sermon by the pastor, Rev. U. F. Hawk, and some splendid music by the choir. It may be interesting to Odd Fellows elsewhere to learn that The Dalles lodge is in a most prosperous condition. Next Wednesday night, after an initiation of two new members, it will have a membership of 102, as compared with a membership of 49 two years and a half ago. Not only has the membership more than doubled, but after paying all current expenses during that time, the lodge has wiped out an old debt of $800, made improvements on the cemetery that cost $800, and purchased and paid for $200 worth of new paraphernalia.
