Kidnapers Make Offer.

OMAHA, Neb., April 30.—An agent of the kidnapers has made a proposition to Edward A. Cudahy to return $21,000 of the money paid for his son's ransom, demanding in return a withdrawal of the $25,000 reward and cessation of the search that is being prosecuted, together with an abandonment of the determination to punish the criminals.

The proposition came in a letter from Elgin, Ill., and Mr. Cudahy is convinced of its authenticity. He went to Chicago ten days ago because of it, being entombed there by his brother in response to overtures that had been made. He refused to consider the offer for a minute and declares his unchanged resolve to prosecute to the end the search for the men who stole his boy.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.
QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Caught a Dreadful Cold.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world, and sold by Clarke & Falk. Get Green's prize almanac.

A Raging, Roaring Flood.

Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung troubles by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Price 50c. 5

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Only 50c. 5

You are much more liable to disease when your liver and bowels do not act properly. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove the cause of disease. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

UNITED STATES WAS DOUBTED

Cubans Feared That Our Soldiers Would Never Be Removed From Island—Third Section of Platt Amendment Provides That the United States May Send Troops Into Cuba Whenever it is Deemed Necessary.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The Cuban delegates visited General Brooke, at Governor's Island, and were much pleased with their entertainment. When seen at the Fifth-Avenue Hotel last night, Senor Capote said:

"There is no truth in the published stories that Cubans found fault with the expenditure of the funds contributed to the junta in New York. Everything in that direction was most satisfactory.

"The report to be presented to the convention relative to the matters concerning which we conferred with President McKinley and Secretary Root has not been prepared. We are working at it, and do not expect to complete it much before our arrival in Havana."

T. Estrada Palma called on the delegates at the hotel last night and was in conference with them for two hours. Nearly all the matters which brought the delegates to the United States were gone over, and General Palma's views ascertained. There is reason to believe that the subject of a fitting candidate for the presidency was brought up, and that the possibility of General Palma's action was discussed. When asked for a statement General Portuondo said:

"A great stumbling block has been removed. This is all I care to say."

What stumbling block do you mean, senor, was asked.

"Section 3d of the Platt amendment," was the answer. "The Cubans have been afraid of your armies. They fear what some call imperialism. Now, in section 3d, I think of the latter amendment, it is provided that the United States may send troops into Cuba whenever, in the opinion of Washington, such action is necessary. This provision awakened widespread suspicion. Many said that it was only a pretense for the United States to continue a standing army in Cuba for all time. The presence of soldiers and especially those of another people, cannot but be erroneous and disconcerting to us.

"Others said that although the United States might withdraw her forces now, she could, under this provision, immediately send them back again. This was then a stumbling block. It was, perhaps, magnified in the eyes of the common people, and they demanded that if these suspicions were well founded, such a measure should not receive our sanction. But President McKinley soon assured us that these suspicions were groundless. When we said that by this provision the United States had more jurisdiction over Cuba than over any one of its states, because, in the latter case, I understand, the National government cannot send troops into a state without the permission of the state government, he said:

"Gentlemen, you need have no fear. Troops will not be sent into Cuba unless conditions are little less than anarchy."

"The president's answer so convinced us that we could not but be impressed with his sincerity."

"How do the Cubans feel in regard to the independence?" was asked.

"Ninety-nine per cent of our people," he said, "want independence. They will not even listen to annexation. They want independence—absolute independence. Now I do not mean that the Cuban people are not disposed to give the Americans what they—the Americans—will need for their defense. I tell you that if the question of independence is settled and all differences on the subject are eliminated, everything else can be arranged."

"What do you mean by independence? Does not each state of the United States have independence?"

"By independence I mean sovereignty. We want to regulate our own international affairs. But our preferences will be for America to help and support her in case of need."

"Are you sure, then, that the United States will grant Cuba its desired independence?"

"Yes, I am sure. And I believe that Washington will soon announce to the world that Cuba is a sovereign power, and that Cuba will indeed, be a nation by February 24, 1902."

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured.

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
