THE COST OF THE BOER WAR.

The loan of $300,000,000, which Sir Michael Hicks-Beach is negotiating is one index of the cost of the Boer war, says the New York Tri-Great as is the amount required, Falk's. more than five times as much has been promptly offered. There can be no question of the ability of the government garden seeds for disposal to British nation to meet the financial anybody who may call for them, withcost of the war. And after paying out respect to his politics, religion, race, the bills, by incressing the funded debt, John Bull will resume the eties of attermelon, lettuce, spinach, process of paying off the debt at a onion and cucumber. rapid rate, as he was doing before this war.

Budget, and one for which the nation can never be recouped. A recent cost of the war in human flesh and barber shop, The Dalles. blood down to a month ago. From disease. No fewer than 775 are still missing or in captivity among the Boers. And 2,189, having been sent home as invalids, have so far failed to recover their health as to remain permanently unfit for duty, if not quite disabled. If we reckon that most of the "missing and prisoners" will eventually be reported safe and sound, we have a total of 17,force of the British Empire.

That is a loss of the heaviest kind, and one for which there can never be compensation. The gold mines of the Rand may be, and probably Boer misrule. But never from mine Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy. or veldt can arise the thousands of strong young lives that have been
