We have an excellent line of Spring Suits, Pantings, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

The Salem Journal intimates that the only subject the Oregonian knows anything about is religion, whereas of all subjects it knows the least about it.—Albany Democrat.

In a short time it will be William McKinley, L. L. D., the Harvard University corporation having lately expressed itself unanimously in favor of dubbing the president Doctor of Laws.

Some one has pertinently remarked that so far as the United States is concerned, the situation is just this: Cuba shall have the right to do as she pleases as long as she pleases to do right.

A few fool Oregon papers already are trying to get Corbett started for the next senatorial contest, says the Albany Democrat. This is an outrage on the people. Let us have a new deal.

The persistent disparagement of the Columbia river and the port of Portland, by the Astoria papers, is as disgusting and ridiculous as it is incomprehensible. Will Astorians never learn that they cannot build themselves up by pulling other people down? Portland's interests as a seaport are Oregon's interests, and it is an ill bird that fouls its own nest.

The latest boycott is that of the nickel-in-the-slot operators of Astoria, who have mutually agreed not to contribute in any way to any of the churches whose ministers are engaged in a crusade against the machines. If the Astoria ministers are what we take them to be this ridiculous boycott will have a tendency to make them fight the gambling devices all the harder.

Our calamity brethren will find little consolation in the report sent out by the Portland planing mill proprietors to the effect that help is very scarce notwithstanding that wages range from $2.25 to $3 per day. Yet the time is not far distant when a report of that kind, which is now so common that it hardly excites comment, would not have been true of any district or employment in the United States.

Charles G. Hodges, justice of the peace at Sands, N. C., informs the attorney of James Green, the Skamania county murderer, that Green is a cousin of William Jennings Bryan. If that does not save Green's neck nothing else will. The letter says that Green's friends back in North Carolina purpose to do everything possible towards obtaining a new trial for him. But Green will stretch hemp in the long run, just the same.

The first child born in the new mining camp of Ashwood made its appearance on the 21st ult. It is of the female persuasion and the little lady evidently came to port without ballast, for she weighed only four pounds. But the miners are just as proud of her as if she had weighed a ton, and on her arrival they promptly put up a purse of $50 to be put out at interest and presented to her when she comes of age. The little one belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas and they have christened her Oregon. May she live till that $50 investment makes her as rich as Hetty Green.

Citizens of Wallowa county, to the number of 502, have petitioned Secretary of State Hitchcock to issue orders to Indians to cease trespassing within the county where, it is alleged, they illegally destroy game and fish, their ponies eat up the grass, and their drunken orgies are offensive to the settlers. A similar petition, signed by the same parties, has been presented to Governor Geer, urging him to use his best endeavors to secure action on the part of the United States government.

It is gratifying to learn from the Salem Statesman that the receiver of the banking house of Gilbert Bros., that closed its doors a short time ago, is agreeably surprised with the condition in which he finds the affairs of the bank as an inventory of its assets progresses. "So promising is the outlook," says the Statesman, "that there is much encouragement not only for the creditors of the bank, but for the proprietors as well. No kind of a statement can yet be issued, but when one is made it promises to be a very satisfactory one."

All persons using water in closet or toilet will see to it that the water is shut off when not in use, or water will be shut off altogether if allowed to run to waste. J. B. CROSSEN, Supt. Dalles City Water Works. ml-3wd

The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.
