The resolution passed at the last council meeting, instructing the recorder to notify the D. P. & A. N. Company that in future they will be required to pay one dollar a month as rent for the lands they occupy on the bank of the river for wharfage and warehouse purposes has, we are told, created considerable comment of a decidedly adverse nature, not of course because of the monetary consideration involved, but on account of the principle at stake and the apparent animus of the resolution.

If the resolution was merely intended to protect the interests of the city, it was wholly unnecessary. The company occupy the lands by permission of the city, and the common law principle that undisputed possession for ten years conveys a title does not apply. On the other hand, if the resolution was intended as an attack upon the property rights of the company it must and will fail because it will not have the endorsement of the people of The Dalles.

If there is one Dalles enterprise that The Dalles people are, and of right ought to be, proud of it is their line of boats. It has put money in the pockets of the people tributary to this city equal in amount to ten times the entire cost of the plant. If it has made money we are glad of it. It had a right to make money. We have given it a lease of certain property for wharfage and warehouse purposes, and what of it? We have given an absolute grant to the O. R. & N. Company of property one hundred times more valuable and nobody finds fault or wants the property back, even if it were possible to get it back. And yet the boat line has done more, and is doing more, for the benefit of this city and the country tributary to it in one week than the railroad company does in a whole year. The boat company's interests are all mainly here. Our prosperity is the company's property; our interests the company's interest; while it is open and notorious that the railway company never misses an opportunity to discriminate against The Dalles by every means conveniently within its power.

The place to take the true measure of a man is not in the market place or amen corners nor in the field or forum, but at his own fireside. There he lays away his mask and you may learn whether he is an ape or an angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I do not care a copper what the world says for him, whether it crowns him with glory or polts him with bad eggs. I care not what his religion may be. If his babies dread his coming home and his better half swallows her heart every time she has to ask him for a $5 bill, he is a fraud of the first water, even though he prays every night and morning until he shakes the eternal hills. But if the children run to the front gate to meet him and love's own sunshine illuminates the face of his wife when she hears his footsteps, you may take it for granted that he is pure gold, his home is heaven and the throne of God. I can forgive much in a fellow mortal who would rather make men swear than women weep; would rather have the hate of the world than the contempt of his wife; who had rather call anger to the face of a king than fear to the face of a child.—Brann.

The Oregonian publishes the names of over a hundred women of Albany and a score in Roseburg who signed the petition for the pardon of Hugh Patterson, who is serving a term in the penitentiary for a most hellish assault upon a fourteen-year-old girl in a box car at Cottage Grove. This is one instance where it will not be pleasant to see one's name in print. It is impossible to conceive what could have been in the heads of these ten score of women when they signed this petition. The thought cannot be entertained for a moment that they condone Patterson's damnable crime, and yet these presumably virtuous matrons and misses would have this gross and lecherous beast again turned loose upon society to ruin and debauch the first young girl that comes in his way. The Oregonian has done a good service to public and private morals in publishing these names. It will have the tendency to restrain other virtuous and reputable women from making fools of themselves.

Organization of a shipbuilding trust upon the failure of the subsidy bill is an outrage on public decency. Could anything be more lacerating to Mr. Hanna's feelings? Capital of 5,000,000 is subscribed in the face of the assertion that the poor shipbuilders can't exist unless government aids them. This is adding insult to injury.—Oregonian. This is a sample of the Oregonian's fairness in any matter where the doctrine of protection is concerned. It is a sufficient answer to say that nobody has ever thought, much less asserted, that the "poor shipbuilders can't exist unless government aids them." The shipbuilders are abundantly protected and are, therefore, in a most prosperous condition. The Oregonian's sophistry, in this regard, is worthy of the Boy Orator of the Platte.

"I have been suffering from Dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

If the people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Mr. W. J. Baxter of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for fifteen years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

If anything ails your hair, go and see Frazer; he's the headquarters for all hair remedies. Remember that he makes a specialty of these goods. tf

White Man Turned Yellow. Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. 6
