Divorced Husband Makes Trouble.

John A. Cress, a Klickitat county sheep-herder, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff E. B. Wood and Constable J. H. Jackson on complaint of Cress' divorced wife, who lives near the west end of Second street, where she supports her two little girls by taking in sewing. Cress went to the house and proceeded, for some cause, to kick up a row, drawing a pistol on his former wife and threatening, as she alleges, to kill her if she made complaint to the officers of the law concerning his action. Cress was taken to the county jail where he was committed on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Subsequently Cress was released on his putting up $50 cash bail for his appearance before Recorder Gates next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

The trouble between Cress and his former wife, according to Cress' own statement and Mrs. Cress' admission, is that Cress wants her to marry him again. He claims that she promised that in case he would not oppose the action for divorce she would marry him again on the 15th of April. Cress did not appear against her and this is the third or fourth time he has visited her and tried to persuade her to keep her promise.

Cress has engaged Judge Bennett to defend him.

Chauncey's First Kiss.

On account of the statement of the Chicago professor that he had never kissed a girl in his life, the experience of several men has been given. The great Chauncey M. Depew gives his first experience as follows:

Why, world's couldn't buy the memory of my first kiss, there on the river at Peekskill, in the moonlight! I remember it yet with an exquisite thrill. I can feel the brush of her curls against my cheek, feel the thrill of her touch, see her blush and her roguish eyes before me now. Pity, pity the poor creature who has never enjoyed an experience like that!

When I was a boy in my teens I was a great oarsman, and I was often on the Hudson in my boat. This night my little bright-eyed sweetheart was with me. The moon was shining. Have you ever seen the big round moon shining on the Hudson at Peekskill on a June night? If you have you know what it is for a boy to be out alone with his sweetheart in that moonlight.

I remember how I pulled out into the silvery stream, her mischievous eyes upon me. A king on his throne was never happier and he never had the right to be.

Well, we talked. After a while we let the boat drift, I rather think. Maybe her eyes drew me nearer to her. Maybe her loose curls touched my cheek. Maybe we were saying tender nothings. Maybe I touched her hand.

Then it happened. It is the touch that does it—the electric thrill. A young fellow could no more help it than he could stop a storm, and the girl couldn't either.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

For Sale—A Cyclone camera; nearly good as new. Inquire at this office. m7-w

Hood River strawberry growers expect to have strawberries ready for shipment next week.

The character concert advertised to be given in the Baldwin on the 15th, has been postponed to the 20th.

Baseball! Baseball!!! Baseball!!!! Sunday, May 12th, Portland vs. The Dalles. Tickets, 25 cents.

The consensus of opinion of a number of Hood River men who were in town today is that the berry crop will be very large and that the crop of apples will be large, although possibly not quite equal to the crop of 1900.

The Dalles baseball boys are greatly pleased with the generous response the people of The Dalles have made to their request for aid in bearing the expenses of the match game billed for next Sunday. Quite a large number of tickets have already been purchased.

There has been such an epidemic of crime, or detection of crime, or both, during the last two or three days that Deputy Prosecuting Attorney F. W. Wilson, in the absence of his chief who is attending court at Prineville, is wishing that he had been born twins.

The county commissioners' court convened this morning with Judge Blakeley and Commissioners Harriman and Evans in attendance. The day was mostly occupied with road matters. Notwithstanding that the docket is rather lengthy, Judge Blakeley thinks the court will get through with it against tomorrow night.

Emile Strasser, who owns a little place on the creek below the Floyd ranch, was yesterday bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $100, for putting out poison for the destruction of domestic animals. Strasser pleaded not guilty and, refusing to see a lawyer, tried his own case with the result that he passed into a proverb. Strasser admitted having put out strychnine in salt on the road-side, but inside the fence and on his own land, insisting that he had a right to do as he pleased in that regard on his own premises. The court did not see it that way. Strasser, who is an honest fellow but of queer mental make-up, was allowed to go on his own recognizances.

Bert Lynch was arrested this morning and brought before Justice Brownhill on a charge of assault and battery committed on J. W. Sparks in the O'Barr hotel Sunday night. Lynch was fighting drunk at the time and the assault appears to have been wholly unprovoked. Sparks claiming to have been struck violently in the face, without a word of warning. Be this as it may, Lynch pleaded guilty and was fined $10, which he paid.

It is now Attorneys and Councillors at Law, Sam W. Stark, Harry Curtis and J. W. Allen. These young gentlemen having just passed successful examinations before the supreme court at Pendleton and been admitted to the bar. They are all very industrious and exemplary young men and, should they be spared, will surely make their mark in the world. It is worthy of special mention that in a class of eight, who took the examination, Mr. Stark stood at the head.

The Oregonian publishes the names of the Albany women who signed the petition for the pardon of Hugh Patterson, with an intimation that it was done to palliate the crime for which Hugh was sent to the penitentiary. The women who signed it are the last in the world who would condone such a crime. Another man who was equally innocent or guilty was found not guilty and discharged. If he was not guilty then young Patterson was not, that is the idea that prevailed in reference to it when the petition was signed.—Albany Democrat.

The male members of the official board of the Methodist church will give a waffle social in the church parlors on Monday evening of next week. They ask their friends to sharpen up their appetite. Waffles will be served from 5:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. Committees appointed to arrange for waffles, etc.: Tables, Smith French and R. B. Hood; wood and fire, C. H. Brown and Wm. Glasius; cooks, Bolton, F. Angle, L. L. Lane and W. A. Rirby; oil stoves and waffle irons, J. H. Cross, N. Wheelon and Wm. Mitchell; coffee, B. F. Laughlin; maple syrup, J. H. Cross; batter for waffles, the wives of the members of the official board.

In the matter of the action against young Deckert, whose trial for the larceny of a blanket from an Indian was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon in Justice Brownhill's court, it appearing that it was impossible at this time, by reason of his departure from the county, to reach a witness whose testimony was necessary to the prosecution, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney F. W. Wilson moved that the case be dismissed and it was so ordered. At the best, or rather worst, there was little in this case. The blanket swiped from the Indian woman, in a foolish, boyish frolic, was probably worth a dollar and a half, or maybe not that much. But while Deckert was to blame and deserved some punishment, his conviction could only have been obtained after an indefinite delay and at very considerable cost to the county. Under the circumstances Mr. Wilson was right in moving that the indictment be quashed.
