The convention of the Middle-Oregon Baptists will be held in The Dalles June 5th.

The river at this point this morning stood at 28 8 feet above zero, a rise of eight-tenths of a foot in the previous twenty-four hours.

Two carloads of lumber arrived here today from the west for the new flouring mill. This afternoon the contractors, Messrs. Hansen & Thomsen, put a force of carpenters to work on the scaffolding and other preparatory work.

The young ladies in charge of the character concert to be given at the Baldwin on the 20th, have planned something out of the ordinary for that evening, and you will enjoy a good laugh as well as hear something worth listening to.

George Wilson has been sentenced in the circuit court at Astoria to six years, in the penitentiary for robbing a couple of summer residences at Seaside. Wilson seems to have made a business of this kind of robbery to the great annoyance of the property owners.

The celebrated Black Cat hose for children, and ladies' peerless black hose, retailed regularly at 25 cents per pair, will be sold by Pease & Mays on Saturday at 19 cents per pair. This is a splendid opportunity to secure your summer's supply of hose.

Ex-Postmaster H. H. Riddell, late of this city will be tried a second time, May 31st, in the United States circuit court at Portland for the alleged detention of letters belonging to patrons of The Dalles post office. The case was tried at the last term of the same court but the jury failed to agree.

Pease & Mays put on sale this morning a very beautiful line of golf shirts in handsome striped percales which they have marked at 65 cents each. See samples in one of the show windows of the clothing department. The patterns are entirely new but the same quality of percales used to sell at from 85 cents to $1.25

The Shaniko Leader says: "It has been decided by the Shaniko Warehouse Co., to build another addition to the warehouse, and work will commence as soon as the lumber arrives. This makes the second addition built this summer, and when completed will make the storage capacity 100x700 feet. This is the largest forwarding, storage and commission warehouse in the state of Oregon."

"I tell you sir," said Mr. E. J. Collins, who has just returned from a trip through Southern California, to a friend, "I tell you they may talk of California as they will, but after all is said it remains true that Oregon is the better state. In the matter of fruit alone I know what I am talking about when I say that five acres of Oregon fruits are worth twenty acres of California oranges."

Teachers and others who desire a pleasant outing should not forget the teachers' excursion to Hood River next Saturday. A round-trip rate of 50 cents has been made by boat from The Dalles, and an additional round-trip rate of 75 cents has been made for a delightful ride of 18 miles through the most beautiful part of the Hood River valley. If you want to take the trip you should confer immediately with Superintendent C. L. Gilbert.

The owners of the White Collar line of river steamers have finally concluded to put the Bailey Gatzert on the run between here and Portland. This movement has been in contemplation for some months and the announcement is hardly a surprise, although there was an impression in some quarters that the project had been abandoned. The Bailey Gatzert is expected to arrive here on her first trip Saturday or Sunday and it is the intention that the boat shall make the round trip daily, Sundays, of course, excepted. John Filloon has been appointed agent at The Dalles and from him it is learned that no cut in freight or passenger rates is contemplated unless the established line of boats shall take the initiative. A merry rate war, however, is one of the possibilities and the D. P. & A. N. Co. may conclude to send the Reliance to the Sound to compete with a boat of the White Collar line that plies between Seattle and Tacoma.

John A. Cress, the Klickitat sheepherder, is in more trouble. He was again committed to the county jail last night on second charge of carrying a concealed weapon. This time he was not let out on bail. When arrested Tuesday night, after threatening to kill his divorced wife in case she should complain of his conduct to the authorities, his pistol was taken from him. Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Kelly learned that Cress had purchased another pistol and a box of cartridges. He at once had Cress arrested when the pistol and cartridges were found on him. Cress was taken before Justice Brownhill and committed to the county jail. His trial was set for Friday morning but on the advice of his attorney, Judge Bennett, Cress appeared in Justice Brownhill's court this afternoon and pleaded guilty to the first charge; whereupon he was fined $20 and costs which he paid and, on condition that he leave town forthwith, the second charge was held in suspension. Cress agreed to take the first train for Arlington.

C. P. Balch and John Johnston returned last night from McMinnville where they purchased the famous jack, Black Knight, which is claimed to be the largest jack in the state of Oregon. Black Knight is over 15 hands in height and measures round the girth six feet. He will arrive in The Dalles on the 16th and will be taken to Dufur, where he will make the stand of the season at Balch's barn.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. J. Brigham, of Dufur, was in town today.

James Cummings, a wealthy Klickitat county sheepman, is registered at the Umatilla House.

A. C. Geiger, the Heppner merchant, stopped over here last night on his way home from Portland.

William Smith, a wealthy Gilliam county sheepman, formerly a partner of A. S. MacAllister of this city, spent last night in town, the guest of the Umatilla House.

The United States Marshalship.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

DEAR SIR:—In your valued weekly of May 4th I notice that Hon. W. H. H. Dufur is spoken of for our next United States marshal, and the hope is expressed that he may succeed in landing the prize. The writer hopes so, too. I have known W. H. H. Dufur for 16 years, and in all that time I can truthfully say that Mr. Dufur has earned and retained the respect of the people in the community in which he lives. Mr. Dufur has made an honest and very efficient officer in the position which he now occupies. It is well known that he is capable, clever and fully competent to fill any office to which he may aspire, and the writer hopes that Mr. Dufur's friends will see that his interests are looked after. After His Dog.

"Mr. Francis Curle told me howe one Dr. Bullen, the queene's kinsman, had a dog which he doted one (sic) soe much that the queene understanding of it requested he would graunt hir one deyre, and he should have whatsoever he would aske. She demanded his dogge; he gave it, and 'Nowe Madam,' quoth he, 'you promised to give me my deyre,' 'I will,' quoth she. 'Then I pray you give me my gog againe.'—Manningham's Diary 1602.
