Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Question Answered.
Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion and biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's prize almanac. Clarke & Falk's.

MRS. WILLIAM MCKINLEY TALKS

Speaks Lovingly of Her Husband For His Kindness and Patience.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 3.—After the trip of the presidential party had been concluded yesterday afternoon, and while Mrs. McKinley was waiting in the nook on the steamer City of St. Louis which had been set aside for her until the chief executive of the nation had finished his adieu to the hosts of the occasion, she consented to be interviewed. It was the first and only interview ever secured from her. After she had expressed her delight at the new scenes which had been unfolded to her, she began to talk about the president, whose name was mentioned.

"Do you know Maj. McKinley?" she asked. "Ah, no one can know him, because to appreciate him one must know him as I do, and I am not speaking now of Maj. McKinley as the president. I am speaking of him as my husband. If any one could know what it is to have a wife sick, complaining always and invalid for twenty-five years, seldom a day well, and yet never a word of unkindness has ever passed his lips; he is just the same tender, thoughtful, kind gentleman I knew when first he came and sought my hand. I know him because I am his wife, and it is my proudest pleasure to say this, not because he is the president, but because he is my husband. I wish that I could have seen him yesterday. I love to see him among the people whom he seeks to serve so faithfully. But I read his speeches this morning. I read all his speeches. I only wish that I could help him as I should. But he is so kind, so good, so patient. He gives me all the time he can. He never forgets me, no matter how busy he is. But I will be glad when he is out of public life. I thought he had done enough for the country, and now I know that he has done enough, and when this term expires he will come home and we will settle down quietly and he will belong to me."
