The beautiful cigar-ribbon sofa pillow given by Gumbert's Leading Cigar and Tobacco House, was awarded to Mr. F. Faulkner, he being the party holding the lucky number.

Miss Myrtle Buffe, who so delighted the audience at the play, "Henrietta," recently given, will give a recitation at the Character concert next Tuesday evening at the Baldwin.

Dr. Caldwell assures us that he will live faithfully to his offer found elsewhere in this issue. It would be well for those not having found relief in other treatments to call on him.

The cause of the delay to the steamer Iralda yesterday was an accident to the feed pipe. After nearly five hours delay Engineer Joe Carnahan had the injury repaired and the pipe made good as new.

Mr. William P. Grimes, of Seaside, Clatsop county, was united in marriage this morning to Miss May Miller, of this city. The wedding ceremony was performed at 6:30 o'clock at the Calvary Baptist church, Rev. W. B. Clifton officiating, and the happy couple left immediately on the boat for their future home by the sounding sea.

Eight wagon loads of hogs—64 in all—belonging to Van Woodruff, of Wapinitia, arrived at the stockyards this morning, the first of a lot of 95 recently purchased by the Columbia Packing Company.

Nathan Harris this week bought of Gibbons & Marden, the residence property of Mrs. T. W. Sparks, of Portland, on Third street. Consideration $1200, which is a good deal less than the property is worth.

Colonel George T. Prather tells the Telegram that Hood river valley will this year have the biggest crop of strawberries in its history. The colonel estimates the crop at 71,000 crates, as against 69,000 crates last year.

The following "personal" appears in the last number of the Ashwood Prospector: "W. S. Rice and Miss Sadie Short passed through the business part of Ashwood Monday evening. While here Mr. Rice treated the young lady to a can of baking powders."

Frank Morrison, the circulation hustler for the Boise News, was in town today on the way with his family to Boise City. Mr. Morrison says Fred Flood, late with the Times-Mountaineer, is on the staff of the News, is as steady as an eight-day clock and is going to be married in the near future to a very estimable young lady.

The Gentlemen's Driving Association make special request that visitors to the race track at the matinee tomorrow afternoon be on the grounds, if at all possible, promptly at 2 p. m. It is the intention and desire of the management to call the first race promptly at 2 o'clock, and to have no unpleasant delays between the trials of speed.

A span of horses hitched to a freight wagon made things lively for a short time in the East End this noon. They came west from the direction of the warehouses and making a square turn at Laughlin street, wound in and out among a number of teams that were feeding on the vacant lot near by, and were finally captured by a gentleman who had started after them on horseback. No damage was done to them or anything else.

D. Ellis Caldwell, doctor of medical psychology, has secured rooms 10-11, Chapman block, and makes this unparalleled offer: "I will give free treatments to all sufferers, until further notice. A few of the many diseases I treat and cure—lung, asthma, kidney and liver, rheumatism, stomach and blood disorders and all female trouble. Exception: A charge will be made for the treatment of stammering and for private calls." Office hours—9 to 12; 1 to 4. m15-16

The first home-grown strawberries offered in this market were brought to town Monday by N. A. Erricksen, of Mill creek. The first shipment was made from here by Mr. Erricksen on the 10th—last Friday. It consisted of one crate and it was consigned to Portland. The wretched, wishy-washy, California substitute for our own berries will now take a back seat. Strawberries are retailing at 25 cents a box, but the price will soon be low enough for even an editor to get a mouthful once in a while.

The Antelope Republican does an unintentional injustice to Gus Delore in charging him with having sold a horse out of a band of thirty odd head belonging to A. S. Mac Allister of this city, which Delore was bringing here for sale. Delore did sell a horse, two in fact, but it was by Mr. Mac Allister's consent, who gave Delore authority to sell in case he could get the price placed on any of them. Delore arrived here today, after leaving the remainder of the band in the Sharp pasture on Three Mile. There is nothing wrong with Delore and Mr. Mac Allister is THE CHRONICLE'S authority for saying so.

The first matinee of The Dalles Driving Association in point of attendance will undoubtedly be a success, as the advance sale of tickets has fully equalled the expectations of the management. Holders of tickets are requested to attach them to their clothing in such a way that they may be readily seen, thus avoiding any embarrassing questions from the chief marshal or his assistants. The services of Mr. W. W. Williams, for many years marshal at the state fair, have been secured as marshal on this occasion. Lovers of music are assured of a treat, as rehearsals by the best musicians in the city are being held and, we are informed, with better results than ever before. Let us all turn out and make this first matinee a rousing success.

The Crook county murder case was given to the jury last night at 12 o'clock, and at 4:30 this morning the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree. On the first ballot it is said the jury stood eight for murder in the first degree, two for manslaughter and two for acquittal. It would be a strange verdict anywhere else but in Prineville; but in that town they never hang a man unless he has been tried in Judge Lynch's court. Murder in the second degree! Think of it! When the murdered man was shot in the back of the head by Bruner while he was running away from Bruner's vengeance, the bullet coming out through his forehead; and shot too by the murdered man's rifle, which he had dropped in his flight. If there ever was a case that called for a verdict of murder in the first degree it was this. It is such verdicts that justify lynching, if anything can. If the murderous brute was sure of being kept in the penitentiary during the rest of his natural life, the verdict might pass; but it is certain as anything can be that in a few years the governor of the state will be besieged with petitions for Bruner's pardon, and if he has the proper pull—and the man who could hire three high-priced lawyers to defend him has a pull of a most important variety—he will be turned loose and given a chance to do some more shooting.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Phillip Michell was in town today from Stevenson.

Mrs. J. F. Miller, wife of Captain Miller, of Salem, and Mrs. M. B. Grey arrived here today on a visit to their brother, Mr. J. H. Jackson, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leiblein and child, of Dunfur, and Miss Christine Nickelsen, of this city, will leave in the morning on a visit to relatives in Sacramento. Miss Nickelsen expects to be gone two months.

Miss Dorothy Fredden left on this morning's boat for Portland, from whence she will go by way of the Northern Pacific to New York City, where she expects to remain for an extended period visiting relatives.

The New School Law.

State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman writes as follows to Superintendent C. L. Gilbert:

"The new school law will go into effect May 24, 1901. You will notice that section 41 reads in part as follows: 'And the fiscal school year shall begin on the third Monday of June and end on the last day of June.' A mistake occurred in the enrolling committee and the law should have read as follows: 'And the fiscal school year will begin on the third Monday in June and end on the day preceding.' I think it will work no injury to administer the law upon the supposition that the school year begins on the third Monday in June and ends on the day preceding. The current school year will begin on the first Monday of March, 1901, and end on the third Monday in June, 1902. You will notice, therefore, that the current school year will be more than twelve months long. All reports, records, etc., should be kept upon the basis of the school year extending from the first Monday of March, 1901, to the third Monday in June, 1902. The annual school meeting will be held on the third Monday in June, 1902. All school officers whose terms, under the old law, would expire on the first Monday in March, 1902, will hold over until the third Monday of June, 1902.

"We have special blanks to be filled by applicants for state life diplomas, under sections 179 and 180, Oregon School Laws. Hence, when applicants wish to make application for a life diploma under said sections, they should make application to this office for the proper blank. I will consider it a favor if you will so inform all applicants."
