We have an excellent line of Spring Suits, Pantings, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

Charles E. Hicks has sold the Arlington Independent to J. M. Johns, of the Record, and the publication of the Independent will be discontinued.

We didn't want to see McKinley anyway.—Oregonian. We believe you. No man ever does like to meet another whom he has foully and unjustly abused.

We Christians have adopted strong measures to stop cock-fighting among the semi-heathens in our new insular possessions. Let us have the grace of consistency and stop pigeon-shooting at home.

The editor of the Salem Journal is writing some articles on strawberry culture, and the funniest thing about them to the Albany Democrat is that the Journal man actually seems to know a little something of what he is talking about.

A Salem citizen who has just returned from California, where he looked up the prune situation, says the prune crop in the Sacramento valley is almost a failure and the report from prune districts in that state is not favorable for anything like a full crop.

The amount of money in circulation in the United States on May 1st was $2,195,304,235, as compared with $2,060,525,463 on May 1, 1900, showing an increase of $134,778,772. The increase since April 1, 1901, amounted to $8,060,655. The circulation per capita on May 1st was $28.31, as compared with $26.58 on May 1st last year.

A German fellow citizen of thrifty proclivities suggests that the members of the city council could advance themselves to the ranks of the immortals by investing in a big merry-go-round and devoting the profits, which he conservatively estimates at $25 a day, to the improvement of the streets of the city. The council will probably invest in a merry-go-round about the time it concludes to build a sewer on Court street.

A rather curious suit has been brought in the circuit court of Multnomah county. A woman sues the Ancient Order of United Workmen for the insurance carried by her dead ex-husband. When the man joined he made his wife the beneficiary, and after they were divorced he neglected, purposely or otherwise, to name another beneficiary. In the meantime his divorced wife married again. The lodge claims that when the woman ceased to be his wife she no longer had an insurable interest in his life.

Henry Dosch has been spinning some tall yarns to the Buffaloes, if we are to judge by an article in the Buffalo Times, headed "Clams a Foot Long in the Oregon Exhibit." Speaking of razor clams, Mr. Dosch tells the innocent reporter that "two razor clams make a meal, although a hearty eater can get away with three; and many prefer one razor clam to three or four mutton chops." It is very evident that Henry's gall is in a healthy condition if his estimate of an Oregonian's capacity for razor clams is a little out of whack.

The Oregonian's dislike of President McKinley and its disposition to say mean, injurious things about him, must be deep and well settled, indeed, when it will stoop so low as to scold his wife for being "a chronic invalid" and for wishing to travel, and himself for not leaving her at home. The whole article is coarse and vulgar, and should never have appeared in the principal newspaper of a city which was hoping to receive and honor the president and his party.—Salem Statesman.

En Route to Buffalo.

EN ROUTE TO BUFFALO, VIA CHICAGO-PORTLAND SPECIAL

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—Some of your readers may want to know what a Dalles boy saw on a trip to Buffalo.

The first thing I watched for was Celilo falls, and was disappointed, as the high water had smoothed them over and changed the falls into rapids. The valley of the Columbia was called by somebody the "garden spot of earth," but most of the garden must be out of sight of the road up to Umatilla. Here we leave the river and pass some pretty country near Pendleton. The Umatilla Indians have some of the best of it. From their many wigwams and few good houses they must be slow to learn the ways of the white people around them.

After wigwams and mountain scenery and the land of Nod, I find we have crossed the Snake river and are passing through the sage brush plains of Idaho, where the sheep range in winter and the sage rats and rabbits manage to stay the year round. From the cars Idaho looks less like "the garden spot" than Oregon.

We cross the Snake river again at American Falls and see the same water that runs past The Dalles, 600 miles away. It is a large stream here and must head many miles to the north, near the Yellowstone Park.

At Pocatello, which is said to be 4000 feet high and is a great railroad town we change cars for Ogden and Salt Lake, and some other time I may have something to write about the Mormon city and what I see further on the trip.

NOTICE.

The partnership heretofore existing between Charles Keys and Albert Nelson, of Dalles City, Oregon, under the style and firm of Keys & Nelson, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by Albert Nelson, who will pay all debts due and owing by the late firm, and collect all debts due and owing to said firm.

Dated The Dalles, Oregon, May 7, 1901.
CHARLES KEYS,
ALBERT NELSON.

If the people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

"I have been suffering from Dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Clark & Falk are never closed Sunday. Don't forget this.

Wanted—Ten homesteaders at once. The last chance to get good timber claims near the Columbia river. Address H. W. L., care of the Chronicle office. m15-21

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.

During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.

For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $4 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later.

I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.
