

J. A. EBERLE,

Leading Merchant Tailor.

Second Street, opposite Mays & Crowe.

We have an excellent line of Spring Suits, Pantings, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

There is a general strike of the employes in the machinery and allied metal trades throughout the country to compel the employers to reduce the working day to nine hours, with ten hours' pay. That is all right. The Chronicle devoutly hopes the strikers may win. It is a poor time when the laboring man does not get a just proportion of the fruit of his labor. The sympathy of the country generally will be with the strikers as long as they conduct their struggle peaceably and within the law. But if the shoe had been on the other foot, if instead of a combination of employes we had a combination of employers who were determined to reduce wages and lengthen the hours of labor, the Bryans and Pettigrews and Sulzers and other demagogues and labor agitators of the country would have vexed the constant air with their fulminations against the tyranny of capital and drawn lurid pictures of the struggling poor in the tentacles of the money octopus. And yet it remains true that it is a poor rule that doesn't work both ways; at least to the extent of recognizing that capital surely has some rights that labor ought to respect.

Two years ago Hon. George W. Peterson, of Jersey City, conceived the idea of breeding a band of black sheep. At considerable expense he gathered the nucleus of his present flock of 70 head. Recently Mr. Peterson had the wool from this flock spun and woven into cloth, which made 100 yards of rich brown-black broadcloth, in the making of which no dye was used. Mr. Peterson has demonstrated that a flock of black sheep can be bred with as much uniformity as a flock of white sheep. Mr. Peterson has presented President McKinley and Senator Platt each with a suit manufactured from the cloth made from the wool of his flock of black sheep. He will not sell the cloth at any price, but presents it to his friends as a souvenir of the new industry he is establishing.

The Oregonian, in its editorial appearing in the issue of Thursday last, entitled "Facts About Mrs. McKinley," gives about the most cold-hearted utterance toward an invalid woman as has ever appeared in print, and indicates a very cold streak of the milk of human kindness running through the veins of the writer. To refer to the leading lady of the land as an ambulance accompanying the president is about as unpardonable insult as could be uttered, and causes embarrassment for such shameless evidence of inhuman feeling.—Baker Democrat.

President McKinley has assured Governor Geer that he expects to visit Oregon before his term of office expires. In which case he will come here direct.

Being an emperor in the United States is somewhat different from being an emperor in Germany. Over there they hurl slugs of iron at the imperial carriage; here it is bombarded with roses, remarks the Kansas City Journal.

Drake C. C. Riley may have a railroad spike up his sleeve for Harney county, but he hasn't flourished any sledge hammer yet. Perhaps it has been cut up into sinkers for fish lines.—Harney County News.

The bank of France compels customers checking out money to accept at least one-fifth in gold coin. Somebody will be starting a party soon to wrestle with the problems of a deluge of gold.

If the people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

"I have been suffering from Dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Clark & Falk are never closed Sunday. Don't forget this.

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me. During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself. For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $1 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later. I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them. M. T. NOLAN
