

J. A. EBERLE,

Leading Merchant Tailor.

Second Street, opposite Mays & Crowe.

We have an excellent line of Spring Suitings, Pantings, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

A GENUINE PROSPERITY.

Stocks have fallen from preposterous prices, they may fall still lower, but there is business back of them. While the ticker has been telling its story for the elation or depression of speculators, the Santa Fe has placed orders for 125 locomotives and sought to place orders for 40 more. The demand is the largest on record for one corporation and it finds the works overburdened. An official of the road said: "Never have the manufacturers of locomotives been so crowded."

The incident is one of many details which help to explain what was explained in a more general way when Black Friday missed connections, says the Record-Herald. Prosperity is not a boast for a fact. It is of so substantial a character that the wildest antics on the exchanges effect only those who haunt the exchanges. The railroad, regardless of them, determines on an expenditure of $2,600,000 for one line of supplies, machine shops have more than they can do; there is a reawakened vitality in the whole country which gives the lie to every wordy alarm that hints at general ruin.

The truth is that there never was such another impressive demonstration of strength and stability. Though capital is proverbially sensitive and fearful, the reserves were sent to the front with a perfect confidence. Nervousness, apprehension, were justified only in special cases whose effect was limited, and, for the nation at large, unimportant.

It is extremely improbable that any other country in the world could have passed through such a flurry with such superb self reliance, founded upon such constantly reassuring conditions. The figures of an expanding trade have not been misleading. They have been a true indicator and the future looks brighter than ever after the spring storm.

The Fossil Journal thinks it has caught THE CHRONICLE napping and it honestly appears to us that it has. Now will Brother Stewart adjourn to the nearest cigar foundry and smoke a five-center at our expense. The Journal says: "Brother Gourlay of The Dalles Chronicle didn't use to be the cold-blooded cuss he appears to be now, judging from the following item that appeared in his daily of Thursday: 'It is very gratifying to learn that The Dalles hospital is now half filled with patients and there is every prospect that it will be filled to its fullest capacity before many weeks.' The brother probably contemplates an armed tour among his delinquent subscribers."

A correspondent writing from Buffalo says: "California is making an elegant fruit display. While examining it the other day Mr. Dosch, who is superintendent of the Oregon exhibit, recognized in the California display his own collection from Oregon, which he loaned the Southern Pacific for the Paris exposition. The man in charge of the California display denied it, whereupon Mr. Dosch turned the jar around and showed him the Oregon labels on the other side. I do not know how they will settle the matter."

Should the rumor prove true that Ex-Senator Pettigrew has been appointed president of the Great Northern, there will be one less calamity—howling, socialistic crank in the country. A sure cure for Pettigrew's peculiar form of paternalistic crankery is to put him in the way to get rich. President Pettigrew would in no time become a sedate, sober, conservative citizen.

The Iowa State Register says: General Weaver is getting frisky again. It is rumored that he is looking for the nomination of state senator from Jasper county. The general once ran for the presidency of the United States, but he is now the mayor of the city of Colfax and ought to be satisfied.

It's a poor rule that won't work both ways. Many a woman has succeeded in making a fool of a man, and some few women in making a man of a fool, says the St. Louis Star.

For sale, on easy terms, a fine fruit, hay and truck farm of about 200 acres, ten miles from The Dalles. Fine improvements; about sixty acres bottom; creek through the place; an ideal home and income property. For further particulars see Gibbons & Marden, The Dalles, Oregon. m22wtf

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me. During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself. For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $4 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later. I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them. M. T. NOLAN
