THE CHRONICLE went to press today three hours earlier than usual in order that the employes, in common with the business people of the city, might enjoy the pleasure of the speed matinee.

The Bagley milk wagon had an exciting experience last evening in the East End. The horse got scared at something and after running over a boy, whom is rendered for a time insensible, he started on a straight shoot up the bluff for home. The wagon, refusing to accompany him was left in a state of collapse at the foot of the bluff. The boy recovered after a time and was able to walk home.

A special study of heredity has been made by Professor Peilman of Bonn university, Germany. He traced the careers of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in all parts of the present German empire until he was able to present tabulated biographies of the hundreds descended from some original drunken vagabond. Notable among the persons described by him is Frau Ada Jurke, who was born in 1740, and was a drunkard, a thief, and a tramp for the last forty years of her life, which ended in 1800. Her descendants numbered 834, of whom 709 were traced in local records from youth to death. One hundred and six out of the 709 were born out of wedlock. There were 144 beggars, and 62 more who lived from charity. Of the women, 181 led disreputable lives. There were in this family 76 convicts, seven of whom were sentenced for murder. In a period of some seventy-five years this one family rolled up a bill of costs in almshouses, prisons and correctional institutions amounting to about $1,250,000.

A Villainous Slander.

THE DALLES, Ore., May 22, 1901.
I have been informed that a rumor is current to the effect that certain parties were found by me in my waiting room in a compromising position. I desire to state that the rumor never emanated from me. It is entirely false and without any foundation whatever, and is calculated to do great injustice and injury to me and to others who are entirely innocent, and who are the victims of a slanderous rumor which must have originated from some persons too debased to be recognized by well-meaning persons. It is false and should be suppressed and the originators should be severely punished for the damage they have done.

J. A. GEISENDOFFER.

It is with some reluctance that THE CHRONICLE publishes the above communication, and only gives it space in order to point a very apparent moral. Of the parties concerned in the alleged scandal, or of the alleged facts of the case, THE CHRONICLE knows nothing and desires to know nothing. It hates scandal and gossip as the devil hates holy water, and only refers to this matter in the most general terms when it says that of all the crimes that can be conceived of or imagined there is none more utterly damnable and villainous than a false and unfounded charge against ferial virtue, and more especially so when the charge attempts to compromise the character of an estimable young lady.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Louis Delco and V. Lewis, of Wapinitia, were in town today.
State Senator F. P. Mays arrived here last night from Portland on a short visit.
Mrs. J. E. Falt returned home last night from a three-weeks visit with friends in Portland.
Mr. M. T. Nolan and daughter, Miss Katie, were passengers on this morning's boat for Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Scherneckan, after a week's visit with the family of Mr. Geo. A. Liebe, left on this morning's boat for Astoria.
Mrs. Dndley Eshelman, who has been visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Eshelman, of this city, left today on a visit to Dr. Eshelman's mother at Centerville.
Dr. O. D. Doane, Mr. Simeon Bolton and Mrs. C. J. Crandall are delegates from The Dalles to the grand lodge of Odd Fellows now in session at Pendleton.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Twobig have returned to The Dalles from San Francisco and will make their future home here. Mr. Twobig's health has not been good since he left here three or four months ago, and he is glad to get back to God's country.
Mayor E. B. Dufur and District Attorney Frank Menefee left on the afternoon train for Portland. Mr. Dufur will return here for a time and, if he can dispose of his property in this city, will probably open a law office at Gold Hill, near his placer mine in Jackson county.

Races will be called promptly at 2 o'clock at the Matinee this afternoon. Don't miss the first one.

A Nice Story.

The N. Y. Journal tells the following: There was a very handsome young doctor with a fine, curly beard well cared for—and there is no use concealing the fact that his name was Seward Webb.
There was a little sweet-faced child named Susan Baker, who broke her leg and was taken to St. Luke's hospital, in New York.
There was a very interesting young woman, whose name was Miss Vanderbilt, who used to come to the hospital to cheer the sick with flowers and good advice.
In the morning the handsome doctor took care of Susan Baker's broken leg. In the afternoon the kind-hearted young woman came and talked to Susan and tried to cheer her up.
Susan Baker talked to Miss Vanderbilt about Dr. Seward Webb, and she talked to Dr. Seward Webb about Miss Vanderbilt. The little girl told how very kind the good doctor always was to her. One fine day she introduced the kind young doctor to the young lady. Not long afterward they were married.
The kind doctor and his wife now have a summer home in England, with three thousand acres of land around it, a park of two hundred thousand acres in the Adirondacks, a private car and a great many other useful and necessary things.
This proves clearly that it pays to be kind to a little girl with a broken leg.
We are not told, by the way, what became of Susan Baker. We hope that she also has a private car and two hundred thousand acres in the Adirondacks, for she was at least as polite as the young doctor and the young lady.
