DOINGS OF PRESI-DENT M'KINLEY

President-Troops Reviewed at a Good Night's Rest.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23 .- After a good night's rest Mrs. McKinley awoke refreshed this morning and smilingly told the president that the program scheduied for today need not be curtailed on her account. Accordingly, President McKinley went to the home of Irving M. Scott, where he had breakfast. Immediately afterwards be attended a reception given by the heads of the federal departments of this city. He then went to the Presidio where he reviewed the troops, including the regiments which have recently returned from the Philippines

Just after lunch he met a number of Mrs. Barnes. The charge is murder, newspaper men and heartily thanked them for the sympathetic manner in he fully appreciated.

> In their opinion most of the other spars were quite heavy enough, and the whole trouble arose from the breaking of a shroud and the bobstay fastenings. Sir Thomas Lipton takes the accident philosophically, but the comments of the men show that this culminating misfortune, coming on top of the minor accidents which have happened at nearout of the crew. Past mishaps, which were glossed over at the time of the ocone of the crew has a good word to say for the boat. It is now admitted that all are bitterly disappointed with her form as against that of the other boat, and the general hope is expressed that Fortune favored us in this transaction. Underwear such as we offer here, is not often seen sold at these figures. Ready cash and a sure out-put enabled us to accommodate the maker-and relieve the embarrasment of the dealer to whom this consignment was made-and who proved unable to come to terms.

The name of the maker is withheld by special request—though the same is quite familiar to many of our Dalles ladies, and his goods stand high in their favor.

The sale is now on-and will continue the balance of this month. We would not guarantee the following assortment for that length of time, however-so come soon.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible ; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient.
