MAY DECIDE TODAY

Supreme Court's Decision According to This Correspondent. It Says Constitution Follows Flag.

NEW YORK, May 27.—A special to the World from Washington says: From a high source it is learned that the United States supreme court has decided as follows:

1. The constitution follows the flag.
2. The United States can have no subject colonies.
3. Porto Rico and the Philippines are now war territory and are not yet integral parts of the republic.
4. They must be governed as war territory until congress acts.
5. Congress has the power to withdraw the flag and relinquish possession of them.
6. Congress alone can incorporate new territory into the United States.
7. The Paris treaty did not incorporate the new islands into the United States.
8. The constitution applies to all territorial possessions of the United States.
9. The president has no power outside of or beyond the constitution.
10. The president can use no "discretion" beyond the limits of the constitution.
11. The tax on Porto Rican products is legal.

The members of the supreme court will decide today by vote whether their decision shall be made public or held back until October. The decision was reached after one of the most spirited discussions ever held within the sacred circle of the supreme court bench. There is a dissenting opinion.

A HOBOES' PARADISE

How Weary Willies Are Entertained In Eastern Oregon.

PENDLETON, Or., May 25.—Eastern Oregon is the tramps' paradise. Far from the madding crowd and the city's din these children of nature loll and luxuriate in the tall grass. The lonely shepherd, tending his flocks on the wrinkled hills, is probably the only man in the world who gives the tattered hobo a gracious welcome. The shepherd, who lives the life of an Alexander Selkirk, is glad to see any kind of a human being, and so the outcasts of fate are always sure of entertainment.

Being a central point from which lines of railway diverge, Pendleton is continually beset with hoboes from every clime. They are coming and going in a ceaseless stream, in spite of the fact that farmers are looking for hired men and floc masters are offering big wages for herdsmen. Pendleton has a city marshal, who has been studying the philosophy of a hobo's life. He spends his wages in buying books that deal with the vagrant classes. The city marshal's name is John Heathman, but the hoboes know him only as "Missouri John." After reading all the books that have ever been published regarding nomadic life, the city marshal has hit upon the plan of scanty diet as a cure for mendicancy. He puts his prisoners on bread and water. They complain bitterly of the entertainment, and cry loudly for coffee.

"Would you like some coffee this morning, boys?" inquires the marshal of his boarders. "If you do, just turn the faucet to the left."

As the faucet is connected with the water hydrant, the marshal's joke puts the drinks on the prisoners, who often threaten to sue the city. Yesterday a band of seventeen hoboes begged money enough to buy a quarter of a barrel of beer. They took the beer to a shady place on the river bank, and were having a royal banquet when their enemy, "Missouri John," appeared upon the scene and gathered them in. They are now swearing and living on bread and water. "Boxcar Casey," their captain-general, threatens to employ a lawyer and bring suit against the city.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world, and sold by Clarke & Falk. Get Green's prize almanac.

Strikes A Rich Find.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at G. C. Blakeley's drug store.

Mary Ellen Lease Bankrupt.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Mary Ellen Lease filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court today. The liabilities are $3247; assets, $2293. Much of the indebtedness was incurred as endorser on mortgages given by her husband, C. L. Lease.

Clarke & Falk have on sale a full line of paint and artist's brushes.

Two Girls Sue Sheriff Kees.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 25.—Notice of suit for $8000 damages was filed on A. F. Kees, sheriff of Walla Walla county, this evening by Pearl and Alice Durkee. The case is already causing excitement here.

In August, 1900, W. B. Taylor of Walla Walla was accused of assault on Pearl and Alice Durkee, two minors living here. Taylor fled and three weeks later was caught by Sheriff Kees and Chief Kaufman in Everett. He was jailed and as the Durkee girls could not furnish bond for appearance as witnesses they met the same fate. The case went over one term, not coming up until the last moment, when Taylor got three years.

All this time the girls were in jail. Their mother applied for witness fees from September 5, 1900, until April, 1901, at $2.20 a day. The law states that witness fees must be applied for at the end of each day, and Schuyler Arnold, county clerk, denied entrance to the claim on this ground. Judge Brents sustained this. Now suit for $8000 is brought against Sheriff Kees as an individual alleging unlawful detention. The case will come up in June.

May Winter in Washington.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says:

Aguinaldo is likely to come to the United States next Fall and spend the winter in Washington. This information has reached the war department in the mail from Manila. He has informed General MacArthur of his desire to visit the United States for the purpose of studying American institutions and meeting American statesmen with a view of being more useful to his own people in the future.

No objection to granting this wish at the proper time has occurred to the authorities at Manila, who regarded the proposition with marked favor. For the present, however, and until after the civil administration of the islands is firmly established, it is not contemplated that Aguinaldo should be relieved from the restraint that is now regarded as a guarantee of his own safety.

It appears that Aguinaldo has been influenced to visit Washington by Judge Arellano, whose loyalty to the United States is unquestioned.

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infalible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at G. C. Blakeley's drug store.

TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS.

The county clerk has instructed the county clerk to place a warrant on the tax roll of 1900 commanding me to collect the taxes for said year by making sale, if necessary, of the property therein mentioned, and to return the roll inside of sixty days.

I am sworn to do my duty, and am also under bonds for its faithful performance; therefore have no alternative but to obey the mandate of the court, and will immediately proceed to make out a list of delinquents and advertise the property for sale.
