

An Astonishing But True Story

"My home is in Sidney, Ohio. I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this, so you can tell others. I took a severe cold and neglected it. I grew worse all the time, and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep, and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the following eighteen months I gradually reached the last stages of consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was incurable. I was absolutely helpless. The whole family wore themselves out caring for me. One day mother and sister came to my bedside, and said I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their cheeks as they sobbed the news. The doctors had declared I was in the last stage, and no human being could save me. I was willing to die, but before going to the cruel grave, I wanted to go out and see my dearly beloved town of Sidney once more. They told me such a thing was impossible—that I would surely die before I got back. But I insisted, and to gratify my dying wish, a carriage was fitted up with a bed of pillows, and to this I was carried and slowly driven around Court House Square. I got home more dead than alive. Through the mercy of Providence, someone brought a trial bottle of medicine said to be a consumption cure. No one imagined for an instant it was worth trying. But as a drowning person grasps at a straw, so I tried this medicine. I was better after taking two doses. Mother got more of the medicine and I took it, improving all the time. Today I am as well as any reader of this paper, and the medicine that cured me was Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I declare before God and man that every word here printed is true."

This remarkable testimonial, on file in the office of Messrs. W. H. Hooker & Co., New York, proprietors of Dr. Acker's Celebrated English Remedy, is vouched for by them, as well as by prominent druggists of Sidney, Ohio. Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c. 50c. and $1 a bottle in U.S. and Canada. Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Senators Resign.
COLUMBIA, S. C., May 25.—As the outcome of a spirited debate between United States Senators B. F. Tillman and John L. McLaurin at Gaffney today, both of them have put their resignations in the hands of Governor McSweeney to take effect November 15th. They have resigned with the understanding that they are to go before the people of the state in a joint canvass and that the sentiment of the people is to be voiced in a democratic primary to be held in November.

Tillman was last summer elected to the United States senate for six years and McLaurin has yet two years to serve. Should Tillman be sustained, McLaurin's seat will be vacant. If McLaurin is successful, he will succeed to Tillman's long term.

GAFFNEY, S. C., May 25.—Senator McLaurin, when asked about the resignation, said:
"Tillman made a bluff and I called him. All I desire is a free, fair and open fight on the issues upon which we differ. I earnestly hope that all others will keep out of our race and run for the other senatorship, so that Tillman and I may meet as man to man and fight it out."

Played Out.

Rotten Egged a Monster.
COLFAX, Wash., May 25.—At Winona Junction, 28 miles west of here, a man styling himself "Nelson the Great" was rotten egged and severely beaten by a gang of men and boys because of insulting remarks he made about the women of Winona. Nelson is a hypnotist and arrived in Winona several days ago and gave two performances, clearing about $20. Yesterday he boasted on the streets of what he could do with the women and girls of Winona by simply snapping his finger at them. He advertised to give an exhibition last night and shortly after the doors were opened in the school building, where the exhibition was to be given, about a dozen men and boys rushed by the doorkeeper and assaulted Nelson with stone eggs. The women had been warned of what was to be done, and no ladies were present. Nelson was driven to the hotel and took the morning train out of town.

Taken to Insane Asylum.
ARLINGTON, May 26.—T. D. Sweeten returned from Salem last night, where he had taken an insane man, who set fire to the O. R. & N. depot at Blalock, and while confined in jail at this place set fire to the building and narrowly escaped with his life.
