ALL-SHADOWING FACT OF THE HOUR.

After finding the following in the pages of such a radical democratic sheet as the New York World, we shall not despair that some day even our own Times-Mountaineer may have the candor to own that "prosperity is the all shadowing fact of the hour":

"Mr. McKinley's Southern progress gives clear and strong proofs of the popularity of his administration. Prosperity is the all-shadowing fact of the hour, and in the popular mind Mr. McKinley stands for prosperity. Rightly or wrongly, reasonably or unreasonably, to him is given the largest share of the credit. Nor can it be disputed that he does deserve much credit. He has not caused sun and rain in satisfactory proportions; he has not created either the resources or the resource-developing energy and skill of the American people. But he has been a factor in the conditions of stability and sound currency, without which resources and energy and skill might have been in vain. There is just ground for the view that his helpfulness has been due to accidental good fortune in a most accommodating "ear-to-the-ground opportunism," rather than to steadfast conviction and principle. Still, so long as results are satisfactory, motive cannot be profitably discussed.

"The war in the Philippines is ended. The Cuban question is apparently in the way to at least a tranquil settlement. A just and honorable Chinese policy is the most conspicuous fact in our domestic affairs. All issues of policy and principle are for the moment reduced to the academic, the abstract basis, where discussion of them cannot agitate the busy masses."

THE ARMY CANTEN.

Abolishment of the army canteen has caused students of the rum habit to closely watch the behavior of soldiers living a garrison life. From the army post near Chicago and that near St. Paul are reports that there has been a fearful increase in the amount of drunkenness among the soldiers, and that desertions are now taking place to quite a large extent. In other posts the decrease in drunkenness has not been marked, if army officers have been correctly informed. This state of affairs leads the men who favor the army canteen to bitterly condemn the sentiment that compelled congress to abolish the soldiers' clubhouse. Too many of the enlisted men, they say, look upon the leave time that they receive much as the sailor looks upon the time he has on shore—that is, as the time to plunge into dissipation of all kinds. The friends of the canteen argue that under proper army regulations the practice of selling beer at post canteens had been a means of aiding temperance in the army, rather than adding to the rum habit. Since the excesses of enlisted men in Chicago and St. Paul have become common talk, the country may look for a campaign at the next session of congress to restore the canteen to its former place. It will be difficult to combat the evidence the friends of the canteen can produce, and it will not be a hard task to influence a majority of congressmen to vote that way.—Spokesman-Review.

Even away back in Missouri they have learned of the late boorish attack of Oregon's greatest paper on the president, and the Globe-Democrat can only account for it on the supposition that the editor is a crusty old bachelor. Says that paper: "An Oregon paper is foolish enough to blame President McKinley for venturing on so long a journey with a wife whose health is uncertain. That paper is probably edited by an old bachelor who never could get a woman of spirit to accept him. The president consults the wishes of his wife when he goes on a pleasure jaunt."

In these days the exports of the United States are almost double the imports. For the fiscal year, which ends with next month, the exports will foot up $1,500,000,000 and the imports $850,000,000. The balance of trade, $650,000,000, is one of the greatest instances of expansion the world has seen.

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't. Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't. Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is. Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are. Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not. Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one. Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years. Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence. Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by MAYS & CROWE.

She Didn't Wear a Mask.

If the people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.

During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.

For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $4 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later.

I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them. M. T. NOLAN

CONTEST NOTICE.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by O. August Eskin, contestant, against homestead entry No. 6121, made April 14, 1897, for W. N. W. Sec 33 and E. 1/2 NE 34, Sec 32, T. 2 N., R. 12 E., by Riley J. Girt, contestant, in which it is alleged that said Riley J. Girt has from the 14th day of April, 1897, up to the present date never been on the place, never established his residence thereon, and that he has abandoned the tract. And that the alleged abandonment is not due to defendant's employment in the military or naval service of the United States said parties are hereby notified to appear and answer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on June 22, 1901, before the register and receiver at the United States land office in The Dalles, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed May 4, 1901, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. JAY P. LUCAS, Register.
