Is the race to become extinct while our women hunt for work higher than that which God gave them? It is infinitely lower work. What woman's club or woman's column can match the home which the wife and mother makes beautiful and sacred for her husband and sons? What are a thousand canvases to a live child, with its fair dimpled body and living soul?—June Ladies' Home Journal.

Indian Charley, a Warm Spring siwash who loves the white man's fire-water not wisely but too well, was found drunk last night and making a disorderly attack upon a Chinaman, near First and Washington streets. Nightwatchman Champin threw him into the calaboose and Judge Gates fined him $2 this morning, which the Indian served out in jail.

Word comes from Antelope and Shaliko that they had quite a vigorous electric storm out that way at twilight last evening. The wind blew violently—for Oregon—and was mingled with rain and snow; but no harm was done, so far as known, with the mild exception that all the fuses in the telephone offices were burned out and communication through this means was for a time suspended. Over Tygh Ridge and Wapinitia Flat there fell about the same time a heavy shower of rain.

T. E. Jones, superior judge of Trinity county, California, spent yesterday in the city the guest of Charley Schutz. Judge Jones and Mr. Schutz are California pioneers, who lived neighbors in Trinity county from 1853 to 1871, when Mr. Schutz moved to Oregon. In recalling yesterday the friends and acquaintances of their early days in California, the judge and Mr. Schutz were forced to the sorrowful conclusion that nine-tenths of them had joined the silent majority. Judge Jones returned to Portland on this morning's boat.

In one of the suits for divorce now before the circuit court the plaintiff husband is one of a pair of twins who are so alike that this writer, who has known them both, almost intimately, for over twenty years, cannot tell, and never could tell, tother from which. Both were in the city yesterday, and while it may be amusing, it isn't strange that the lawyer who is conducting the case should twice have attempted a consultation over some point in the case with the wrong twin, and once in the presence of the latter's wife, whom the lawyer probably took for "the woman in the case."

The two-bit fare between Portland and Astoria is ended. By an agreement between the representatives of the several competing lines, after June 1st the rate by rail will be $2 for a single trip or $3 the round trip, and on all steamers $1.75 for a single trip and $2.50 for a round trip. To Seaside, Gearhart Park, Long Beach and Nahcotta the fare will be $4 round trip, either by rail or steamer until September 15th, when it will probably be increased. An arrangement has been entered into whereby the tickets to these points will be interchangeable, and can be used either on cars or steamer.

Sunday evening the inhabitants of the little town of Twickenham, on the John Day, were thrown into great confusion by an accident to the ferry. As the ferry was crossing the river with a load of cattle, Captain John at the "Helms" and the first mate and the rest of the crew at their posts, when the boat was observed to be sinking and the cattle (about 75 in number) crowded against the railing of the boat, breaking it and crowding a number into the river. The boat settled in the water until it reached the river bottom and could sink no farther. For which the captain and crew were thankful. They deserve great praise for the cool manner in which they manned the life boat and conducted themselves ashore. Only one life was lost—a steer.—Wheeler County News.

Sang His Own Death Song.

A copy of these beautiful verses, signed with Dr. Maltbie D. Babcock's initials, was received on Saturday the 18th instant, by Rev. Dr. A. F. Beard, of Norwalk, Conn., one of the secretaries of the American Missionary Association, in a letter from Babcock. On the same Saturday Dr. Babcock killed himself at Naples, Italy, in an attack of acute melancholia:

Why be afraid of death, as though your life were breath?
Death but anoints your eyes with clay. Oh, glad surprise!
Why should you be forlorn? Death only husks the corn.
Why should you fear to meet the thrasher of the wheat?
Is sleep a thing to dread? Yet sleeping, you are dead.
Till you awake and rise, here, or beyond the seas.
Why should it be a wretch to leave your wooden bench?
Why not with happy shout run home when school is out?
The dearest left behind! Oh, foolish one and blind.
A day and you will meet. A night and you will greet.
This is the death of death, to breath away a breath.
And know the end of strife and taste the deathless life.
And enjoy without a fear, and smile without a tear.
And work nor care to rest, and find the last the best.
(Signed.) M. D. B.

Special Council Meeting.

At a special meeting of the city council, held last night in the recorder's office, John Filloon, local agent of the White Collar Line of steamers, appeared before the council with the request that his company be granted the use of the foot of Washington street, north of First street, and be permitted to build an incline from First street to deep water. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee, with instructions to report at the regular monthly meeting next Monday, June 3d.

The request of Agent Filloon that his company be permitted to stretch a sign across one of the streets of the city was refused, and the matter of street signs having come up in this way, the marshal was instructed to have all business signs now stretched across the streets taken down forthwith and also to have all obstructions removed from the sidewalks.

No further business coming before the council, the meeting adjourned.

Decoration Day.

Members of J. W. NeSmith Post No. 32, W. R. C. No. 17, and all soldiers and sailors of the civil war, soldiers of the Spanish and Philippine wars, and Co. D, O. N. G., are invited to assemble at G. A. R. hall on Thursday, May 30th, promptly at 1 o'clock, when we will form and proceed to G. A. R. cemetery, where appropriate exercises will be held for the occasion. Col. Jackson will be present, and will deliver an address at the Congregational church in the evening. All citizens and school children are invited to participate with us in the exercises of the day. By request of R. L. AKIN, Post Com.

A duck farm, properly managed, ought to pay and pay well. There is not a month in the year when a reasonably fat duck will not bring 50 to 60 cents retail in this market. Now there ought to be good returns to a duck farmer at these prices according to the following report of L. E. Lindsay, of Pine Flat, Klickitat county, as related by Mr. Lindsay to THE CHRONICLE: "I bought two ducks this spring, for which I paid one dollar. I already had a drake, so that my total investment was, say, $1.50. The two ducks went to house-keeping and, in a short time laid seventy-nine eggs. Two and a quarter dozen of these we ate, and the remaining fifty-two were set under hens. All were fertile, but one egg got broken when half hatched and one young duck was killed by a sparrow hawk. I have now fifty young ducks that in a very short time and at practically no cost will be worth half a dollar a piece, or $25 on an original investment of a dollar and a half. I know no reason why I could not do as well, proportionately, with an original stock of one hundred ducks instead of three.

Finding of the Judiciary Committee.

After a careful study of the act of the legislature which gave Dalles City the control of the city water front, the judiciary committee of the city council has arrived at the conclusion that the council is only the custodian and trustee of the property and cannot alienate it or even lease it except for public use and benefit.

The committee believes that the lease made to the D. P. & A. N. Co. is void in so far as it was intended to give that company absolute control and monopoly of the lands leased to them, and that under the terms of the grant of the legislature any opposition line of boats may lawfully demand wharfage privileges at the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s dock by paying such reasonable charges as may be agreed upon or be fixed by the courts.

At the next meeting of the council an ordinance will be passed embodying this proposition, but it will effect no change in the practical use of the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s property. The intention is to

In the Circuit Court.

A true bill has been entered in the case of the State vs. Ike W. Moore, for larceny of a quantity of brass castings, the property of the O. R. & N. Co. Moore was arraigned this afternoon, when a motion to set aside the information and a demurrer to the information were both over-ruled and a plea of not guilty was entered by defendant. The motion to set aside the information is a rather mysterious document. One of the counts upon which it is based is that the "information is not written in the English language." The attorneys for Mr. Moore are Bennett & Sinnott.

D. Martel and J. W. Ryan were brought here today from Hood River, by Constable Olinger, and were placed in the county jail on the charge of larceny in a dwelling. The complaining witness is C. L. Gilbert, proprietor of the Mt. Hood hotel. The defendants are charged with having stolen 72 cigars from one of the rooms of the hotel, the cigars being valued at 4½ cents each, or an aggregate value of $3.24. The defendants will plead before Judge Bradshaw at 9 o'clock tomorrow.
