Acker's Saved Her Life

"About two miles from Vassar, Mich., where I keep a drug store, lives Mrs. T. M. Bratt. She was very sick and hopeless with consumption. I watched her case with interest after she began taking Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, because I had heard so much about its wonderful cures. Well, sir, perhaps you will doubt it, but with my own eyes I saw this woman get well and strong on that remedy. In a very short time the cough stopped, her lungs were healed up, the soreness went away, and she began taking on flesh. She herself said: 'Mr. Bullard, I owe my life to Acker's English Remedy. It is a certain cure.' In Mrs. Bratt's neighborhood her recovery has occasioned much comment, as you can easily understand. Her case was one where everybody thought it was only a question of a little while until she would die. I feel it a duty as a druggist to write this letter, so that there need be no more deaths from consumption."
(Signed) E. A. BULLARD, Vassar, Mich.

WHITE COLLAR LINE.

A Wrathful Scot.

LONDON, May 27.—"We trust in Scottish pride to rise its wrath against this invasion of the almighty dollar," says the review of this week, commenting upon Andrew Carnegie's munificence to Scotland's universities.

"Many of the oldest and best families in Scotland," continues the periodical, "send their sons to Scottish universities where they pay the fees, like the sons of their humblest neighbors, neither more nor less. It is to be believed that this will continue if the fees are paid for them by Mr. Carnegie? Imagine the Duke of Hamilton, Cameron of Lochiel or McDonald of the Isles, allowing his heir to get education at the cost of an American ironmonger! We shall next hear of some Chicago porkpacker proposing to buy up Oxford and Cambridge and dictating terms of admission and the subjects to be taught; or of Boss Croker forming a lobby to control the London University, with the object of inculcating Tammany principles in the mind of the rising generation of cockneys."

The St. James' Gazette, in an editorial headed "The Anglo-Saxon Millennium" commenting on a pessimist's proposal that "Yankee Doodle" be made the National anthem; that the American language be made compulsory in the schools, and the coronation of J. Pierpont Morgan be arranged for June or July, next, says:

"But there is a bright side of the Americanization of this insignificant country. It ought to make war impossible. How can the patriotic American suffer from Anglophobia when he loves England so much that he wants to be her owner? How could he sink merchant ships in what his own money is invested? War would ruin his industrial enterprises, state, press and locomotive companies, philanthropic schemes, aristocracy, race-riding,—in fact, everything except our agriculture, which has ceased to exist."

To Firemen's Tournament at Heppner.

For the firemen's tournament at Heppner June 11th, 12th and 13th, the O. R. & N. Co. will make a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip on the certificate plan; provided, however, fifty or more paying passengers of not less than 50 cents each have been in attendance. Under these conditions delegates, or members of delegates' family, that have paid full fare to Heppner, will be returned at one-third fare on presentation of certificate to our agent at Heppner on or before June 11th. Certificates must be signed by F. W. Roberts, secretary, and will be issued only on any of the three days prior to opening day of the meeting, including the latter. If total attendance does not equal the requirements, holders of certificates will be sold return tickets at regular one-way rates.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

If you want to retain your hair you have to keep your scalp clean. Soap will make your hair harsh, dry and crispy. Now we have two of the very best preparations for cleansing the scalp—Egg and Pine Tar Shampoo. It will leave your hair soft and glossy. Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle, at Frazer's barber shop, The Dalles.
