

J. A. EBERLE,

Leading Merchant Tailor.

Second Street, opposite Mays & Crowe.

We have an excellent line of Spring Suits, Pants, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

The fickleness of human friendship, especially when based on a false philosophy and impracticable politics, is well illustrated in the change of tone among the antis towards the little Filipino chief, whom they were wont to regard as a second George Washington as long as he was in open rebellion against the authority of the United States. The most venerable of all our Oregon antis, in a recent issue of his paper, the Portland Dispatch, says: "That little devil Aginaldo made it cost many lives and millions of money to this country before he came to the following conclusions: 'After mature deliberation, I resolutely proclaim to the world that I cannot refuse to heed the voice of a people longing for peace, nor the lamentations of thousands of families yearning to see their dear ones enjoying the liberty and the promised generosity of the great American nation.'"

The supreme court has vindicated the policies of the republican party in the decision that the constitution does not follow the flag, putting to utter rout the antis and democratic exponents of the policy of scuttle and run. The United States has the power to govern alien races for their own good in the future as it has done in the past. There is nothing in the constitution which compels the bestowal of indiscriminate suffrage, else the ballot would have been given woman long ago. The patriotic American is not afraid to leave to the officials of our own choice the government of those whom destiny has placed under the American flag. The decision of the supreme court will settle many troublesome questions and take the wind completely out of the democratic sails.—Astorian.

Under the famous Dingley bill 300,000 pounds of wool was recently sold in Eastern Oregon for 9 cents a pound.—Albany Democrat. Possibly this is true, although we have not heard of such a sale at such a price and doubt if it took place. We do know, however, that nearly a million pounds of wool recently changed hands at various points in this county at prices ranging from 10 1/2 to 11 1/2 cents. And we know further that under the notorious free trade Wilson bill, of wretched memory, millions of pounds of Eastern Oregon wool were sold for 6 cents a pound, and a considerable quantity for less.

We shall hear no more of the constitution following the flag of its own force. The fact is it never did so follow the flag and the decision of the supreme court harmonizes to that extent with all our past history. But now the question is taken out of American politics for all time.

According to the Pendleton Tribune, Chief Joseph still sighs for the flesh pots of Wallowa, and any fine morning the citizens of that land of fertility may find that this dreamer of dreams and cherisher of memories has marched his little band into their very midst. Perhaps this would be the shortest solution to the difficulty, for the people of Wallowa county have all the arms necessary to an arbitration, much more brief than the long winded confabs at Washington.

If rumor can be relied upon, the day of Astoria's deliverance is near at hand, says the Astoria News. From an authoritative source comes the report that the interests which now control the O. R. & N. Company have acceded to the request of A. B. Hammond that Astoria be given a terminal rate on lumber to the markets of the East.

The gist of the recent findings of the United States supreme court is that this country has a legal right to govern any new territory it may acquire in such a manner as the circumstances of the case may demand. If this is not good law it is at least good sense.

State Senator George C. Brownell, who has been regarded as a possible opponent to Congressman Tongue at the next election, has announced that he will support the present incumbent.

Now look out for a decision from Colonel Bryan that will knock the recent findings of the United States supreme court higher than Gilderoy's kite.

Appointed Bank Receiver.

SALEM, May 28.—Claud Gatch today took possession of Gilbert Bros.' bank as receiver, under an appointment from Judge Boise, of the circuit court for Marion county. Mr. Gatch will check up the assets as inventoried by Receiver Thielsen, and will then proceed to collect outstanding credits. He will keep his office for several hours during the day at Gilbert Bros. bank building, and will be at his desk in the Ladd & Bush bank the remainder of the time.

Found in the Danube.

BERLIN, May 28.—The Lokal Anzeiger reports on the authority of the Buda Pest correspondent that there has just been taken from the River Danube, near that city, a dead body heavily loaded with chains, which the Hungarian police firmly believe to be that of Ramagnoli, the anarchist reported to have been sent from America to murder the German emperor. The police of every country in Europe and America have been notified of the discovery.

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.
Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.
Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.
Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.
Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.
Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.
Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.
Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.
Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by MAYS & CROWE.

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.
During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.
For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 6th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $4 periodical and one Boy's Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later.
I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 6th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make M. T. NOLAN a purchase, ask for them.
