PRETTY GIRLS EVERYWHERE.

The N. Y. Sun has always displayed great ability in handling delicate subjects in a delicate manner, and it has not lost any of its reputation in disposing of the question of which of the states has the prettiest girls. Witness the following:

Flushed with her multiplicity of triumphs, Kansas now asks for a new glory. According to the Wichita Eagle the girls now graduating from the Kansas high schools are "the handsomest in the world." And not the graduating girls alone. Beauty is more common among the sunflowers than crankery was once thought to be. "Eight out of ten native girls can now be called beauties. Ninety-nine out of every hundred are handsome." And "the future Kansas girl will be fit to wear the robes of the Greeks in the flush of their physical perfection." Hurrah for the Kansas girls of the future! It is the happy privilege of every state to believe that its daughters are the handsomest women in the world; and for our part we believe that every state is right.

As a help towards raising the necessary funds for a rousing celebration on the Fourth, THE CHRONICLE suggests that the goddess of liberty—for of course we are going to have a liberty car and a goddess of liberty—be selected by vote. We all remember how effective, as a money-raising scheme, was the vote for the queen of the carnival at the street fair. The vote lasted only a few days, yet it raised somewhere between $350 and $400. The vote for the goddess of liberty might extend over two or three weeks and would be absolutely certain to raise a snug sum of money, largely from parties who would not be asked to put their names on the regular subscription list. We commend this suggestion to the members of the Driving Association.

The editor of the Shaniko Leader demands that a calaboose be built in that young city for the temporary confinement of drunks and disorderlies who are too mean to keep the peace and too poor to pay a fine. Why not do as that other rising young town of Bourne, Baker county, does? Like Shaniko, Bourne has no city jail; but it has some stout pine trees, and when any of the citizens get filled up with fighting booze the marshal chains him by the foot to a pine tree till he sobers off. If Shaniko has no pine trees within the city limits, a good stout stake will serve the purpose.

In return for America's surplus products some European countries are sending us their surpluses of criminals and paupers, says the Los Angeles Herald, and the New York Herald replies: Under the head of criminals our contemporary reckons anarchists. We have no fear of this gentry at the present moment. A certain malcontent years ago said: "There's no use in trying to stir up the people of America, for they are too infernally prosperous." That's where we are today, and we are likely to stay there.

Senator Harris, of Kansas, said in a recent interview: "The republicans are wonderfully lucky. Good crops and prosperity have given them many thousand of votes in Kansas and there is a bright outlook for splendid crops again this year. The party gets the benefit of such dispensations of providence, for republican politicians claim it is their own handiwork."

The United Presbyterians have made themselves ridiculous by declaring for the exclusion of all members of secret order societies from membership in the church. So long as the fraternal orders are doing a work that the church has failed to do, or, from whatever cause, done inadequately, these orders will exist in spite of all the church decrees ever ordained.

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.

Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.

Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.

Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.

Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.

Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.

Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.

Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.

Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.

During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.

For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $1 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 5th will be announced later.

I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them.
