

J. A. EBERLE,

Leading Merchant Tailor.

Second Street, opposite Mays & Crowe.

We have an excellent line of Spring Suits, Pantings, etc., which we are prepared to make up in the latest styles, and guarantee a perfect fit.

At just this time there is but very little doing in the political arena of Oregon, says the Salem Sentinel. Geer is a candidate for renomination for governor, and it is conceded everywhere that he can't "saw the wood." He cannot have the Marion county delegation, and with that against him he will stand no show in the state convention. It looks now very much as if his name would not get before the convention again. A strange fact in connection with Oregon politics is this: No republican governor has ever been re-elected; none has ever been re-nominated. Nor has any democratic state treasurer ever been re-elected.

For the first time in the history of the government, the postoffice department of the United States is now self-supporting. This imperialistic administration isn't making a bad business record. It is noticeable that the opponents of the administration are not finding fault with the business management, but when they seek to criticize they speak rather in parables and about strange gods.—

The Cuban convention has accepted the Platt amendment. Thus one by one are the positions of our present administration being sustained at home and across the waters. We are drifting toward the zenith of the glory of republicanism.—Eugene Register.

The McMinnville Telephone-Register says: The Oregonian prints the pictures of four candidates for governor. Three of them are avowed Mitchell men. The other—well, he's a farmer up in the Waldo hills and present governor.

The Sentinel says it reserves the right and will consider it a special privilege to oppose Geer for renomination—and for re-election if nominated. It will also do all within its power to defeat the re-election of Simon.

Having declared that Senator McLaurin eats pie with his knife, Senator Tillman seems to be at a loss to understand why the populists do not rise en masse and run his colleague out of the state.—Denver Republican.

The Chronicle office is in receipt of a number of the premium lists of the next Oregon state fair, which will be given to all who may call for them, as long as they last.

The Commoner, as a nosebag, is not entirely satisfactory. Once in a while Editor Bryan feels impelled to take it off and make a speech.—Chicago Tribune.

Helladotherium is not a swear word; neither does it pertain to any part of the telephone system. It's an animal of Africa.—Duluth News-Tribune.

The temptations of gambling will never ruin a policeman. He can never find out where the game is going on.—Eugene Register.

Don't.
Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.
Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.
Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.
Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.
Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.
Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.
Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.
Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.
Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by Pease & Mays.

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.

During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.

For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $4 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later.

I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.
