WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

For Rent—Two rooms adapted to light housekeeping. Apply at Mrs. Eddon's, Third street. 4j-1w

M. A. and M. I. Cook today filed in the office of the county clerk, on two quarts claims situated in the east fork of Hood river.

The members of the Fortnightly club are requested to meet tomorrow afternoon, about 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Ed. Williams.

The Degree of Honor will give a social Thursday evening at the small K. of P. hall. The members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Strawberries and cream and cake for refreshments. Admission 15 cents.

The Sunday school picnic of the M. E. church takes place tomorrow, and Hood River has been decided upon as the objective point. The excursionists will leave on the 7 o'clock boat and tickets can be had in the morning near the boat landing.

Mary Ellen Lease, the noted agitator, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in New York. She gave her liabilities as $3,247.55, and her assets at $2,293.75. The petitioner says much of the indebtedness is as indorser of mortgages given by her husband.—Ex.

R. A. Laughlin, of Wapinitia, brought to town yesterday seven head of 13-months-old hogs, which, at 5 1/4 cents a pound, brought him exactly $99.75, aggregating 1900 pounds, or an average of over 271 each. He sold them to the Columbia Packing Company.

The Dalles Assembly of United Artisans will entertain the Dufur assembly tomorrow (Wednesday) night at the K. of P. hall. All visiting Artisans in good standing are cordially invited to be present. Refreshments will be served and a general good time is anticipated.

The river gauge at this place at 8 o'clock this morning indicated 36.7 feet, a fall of only one-tenth in twenty-four hours. The thermometer at that time touched 40, and while it rained a little here, there was a snow flurry on the Klickitat hills that left them white for half an hour.

A Riddle correspondent in the Roseburg Review writes that Mr. Keer, 99 years and 10 months old, of Cottage Grove, has gone to his mine on the Umpqua, near Perdue. The old gentleman, who is still quite active, thinks that he would not live more than five years longer if he did not work.

An Oregon editor dreamed that he died and, of course, went to heaven and there came upon a man in chains fastened to a post. He inquired if it was necessary to punish people that way in heaven. "That man," said St. Peter, "is a man from Oregon. We always have to keep Oregonians chained up awhile in order to keep them from going back."

As we go to press John Doe, an employe of the Skibbe hotel, is on trial in the recorder's court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The complaining witness is a Chinaman, who is also an employe in the same kitchen. The celestial claims that Doe threw a coffee cup at him which struck him on the eyebrow, leaving an ugly lump about the size of a bantam's egg. Doe claims that the Chinaman had attempted to carve him with a butcher knife.

Secretary A. A. Keller, of the newly-organized lodge of Eagles, asks THE CHRONICLE to correct a couple of mistakes that were made in the published list of the officers of The Dalles Aerie, No. 156. Brother Al Nelson was elected to the important office of worthy conductor, and to his untiring efforts the organization of the aerie is mostly due. The name of George Cummings, one of the most active members of the initiative team, was, by some oversight, omitted from the list of Portland Eagles.

Articles of incorporation were filed today in the office of the county clerk of the Eastern Oregon Oil Company. The business of the corporation is to lease, buy, sell and operate oil lands, to drill and prospect for coal and oil and natural gas and other minerals, to deal in coal and coal lands and buy and sell the same and to mine coal to construct, operate, maintain, buy and lease pipe lands; to acquire oil by any method and sell the same; to build, lease and operate refineries, to manufacture benzine, lucine, axle grease and all by products. The principal office of the corporation is at The Dalles, Oregon. The capital stock is $7900, divided into seventy shares of one hundred dollars each. The incorporators are George T. Parr, N. Whealdon and P. L. Kretzer.

NOTICE.

On account of the cold winds and rain, the Street Fair and Strawberry Carnival, which was to have been held at Hood River on the 4th, 5th and 6th, will be postponed for one week. There will, therefore, be no excursion on the Regulator June 6th.

The Middle Oregon Baptist Association, composed of the Baptist churches in the counties of Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Wheeler, Grant and Crook, will convene with the Calvary Baptist church in this city tomorrow, at 10 o'clock a. m. A number of delegates and visitors is expected to be in attendance at its sessions and remain until after next Sunday. Rev. I. S. Hawkins, a returned missionary from India, will be on hand and deliver one or more addresses. The introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. M. M. Bledsoe, of Arlington. There will also be preaching at the church each night during the week. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services.

P. L. Kretzer and son, L. H., were in town today from McKay creek, where some ten miles south of Pendleton, Umatilla county, they recently struck, at a depth of 100 feet, what they believe to be a very encouraging oil prospect. Mr. Kretzer brought with him samples of the mud taken from the hole at various depths, which are strongly impregnated with paraffine. As a result of the discovery a company was incorporated here today to develop the prospect. Mr. Kretzer says the outlook for oil on Fifteen Mile creek above Dufur is as good, if not better than on McKay creek, and that boring will be commenced in the latter neighborhood in a few weeks.

From the 15th to the 31st of May, ultimo, Sheriff Kelly collected and turned over to the county treasurer the sum of $35,104.08 in county and state taxes. Of this sum the county gets $26,035.40; Dalles City, $3,178.84; school district No. 13, The Dalles, gets $4,011.22; district No. 3, Hood River, $244.40; district No. 29, Dufur, $348.25 and Antelope district, $981.59. The tax roll of 1900 calls for $105,000. Of this sum there has been collected a total of $77,000, leaving a balance delinquent of about $28,000. Probably $10,000 of this will be collected before the tax sale, which will take place about the first week in July.

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. O. McLennan, of Antelope, spent last night at the Umatilla House on his way home from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Simeon Bolton and daughter, Miss Vesta, left on the noon train today on a visit to Mrs. Bolton's mother, Mrs. Ostrander, of Goldendale.

Mrs. H. W. Estes and two daughters, Pearl and Grace, left on this morning's boat to join Mr. Estes at the salmon hatchery on the little White Salmon.

City Council Proceedings.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last night in the council chambers with Councilman Frank Gunning in the chair.

A petition was presented by a large number of residents on the bluff east of Union street praying that cows be permitted to run at large in that district. It was moved and carried unanimously that the cow ordinance be suspended for the present until public opinion backs the council in enforcing it throughout every part of the city.

The resignation of Charles Champlin as nightwatchman was tendered and accepted. Paul K. Paulsen was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

On motion the recorder was instructed to notify, in writing, parties owing the city money on notes of hand that the interest on said notes must in future be promptly paid when due, and that delinquents be required to pay the amounts owing by them within ten days.

The recorder was instructed to procure and forward to the claim agent of the O. R. & N. Co. all bills for medicine and supplies incurred on account of Jack Allison, a smallpox patient and an employe of the company.

The city treasurer reported as follows:
May 1—To available cash in general fund $ 396.68
Receipts for the month 668.86

May 1—By warrants issued $426.40
Interest on city bonds 699.00—$1026.40

June 1—Available cash gen fund $ 358.06

An ordinance was read and passed granting the Columbia River & Puget Sound Navigation Company the right to the use of certain lands on the river front for wharfage purpose at a rental of $2 per month.

The recorder was instructed to post notices for the city election to be held on the third Monday in June. The following gentlemen were chosen to act as judges and clerks of election:

First ward—Judges, Ben Wilson, G A Liebe, J L Thompson; clerks, S S Smith, Chas Schutz.
Second ward—Judges, R B Hood, F

H Wakefield, Henry Steers; clerks, J E Barnett, Sam Stark.

Third ward—Judges, J Doherty, Jack Staniels, George Reno; clerks, Ned Baldwin, F Burchdorf.

J. C. Egbert appeared before the council and made complaint of a dangerous place on the road near the powder house, where it comes within a few feet of the railroad track at a sharp turn in the road, where it is impossible to see any considerable distance ahead and where the road is hemmed in on the side opposite the railroad track by a precipitous bluff of rock. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

An Indignant Correspondent.

THE DALLES, June 4, 1901.

TO THE EDITOR:

I noticed in last night's Chronicle your sarcastic, but most righteous remark on the recent acquittal of Ex-Postmaster Riddell in the United States circuit court at Portland. Now let me ask you, Mr. Chronicle, why a somewhat similar case, still nearer home, has escaped the criticism of your trenchant pen? Does the fact that Judge Bradshaw is a neighbor, and perhaps a friend, stop you from denouncing as it ought to be denounced his action at the recent term of circuit court in turning loose, on a paltry $300-bond, Ike Moore, a man who had lain in jail for nearly three months in default of $1000 bonds, for being caught, red-handed, in a theft of 1600 pounds of brass castings from the O. R. & N. Co., when at the same term of court a poor devil of a waiter, or something of that kind, was placed under a $500-bond for stealing $1.62 worth of cigars from a Hood River hotel?

Mark my words, Mr. Chronicle, Ike Moore will never suffer a minute's punishment for his crime. He has a pull, and no man with the proper pull need suffer for any crime he may commit in Wasco county.

No Celebration On the Fourth.

The Dalles will not celebrate on the coming Fourth after all. This much was decided last night at a meeting of the Driving Association, and when the reasons for this action are understood the general opinion will be that the association has acted wisely. Let it be distinctly understood that this conclusion was not influenced by any lack of funds for a fitting celebration. The business men of the city subscribed liberally and there was plenty of money in sight, but the soliciting committees were again and again reminded that a liberal contribution to a 4th of July celebration meant less for the district fair that will be held here in the fall, and less for another street fair that everybody seems to desire.

Now the district fair, with its $1500 of state money in premiums, must be provided for, and provided for in a manner that at least will not disgrace the town. The grounds on the Catholic mission have been obtained for this very purpose. But these grounds, to make them available for the purpose must be fenced, sheds for stabling purposes must be built and a grand stand erected. All this costs money and the business men are perfectly willing to subscribe liberally, but they naturally object to being tapped too often. In a word, the fair must be provided for and in connection with it a street carnival similar to the one we had last year.

The expense of a proper celebration on the Fourth would trench on the subscriptions to the fairs, and as we must have the fairs and can do without the celebration, the Driving Association wisely concluded that it was best to devote all our energies to that which will give the best material returns.
