

For You to Read

"What puzzled me in the beginning was that I kept losing flesh without any cause for it that I could see. I had a little trouble with my stomach, too, and after a while began to grow weaker and to cough. The cough, I thought, would soon go away and cure itself, but it didn't. It grew worse, and then I began to spit up a peculiar looking substance. I never thought of consumption, but one day I had a hemorrhage, and then was frightened in earnest and did just what you would do. I rushed to the doctor. He was either too busy, or something else, for he didn't do me any good. I kept going on down hill, and the outlook was bad. Things took a different turn, however, when I heard of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, for I took it, and it not only cured my coughing and spitting, but also built up my whole system. I took on permanent flesh, and today am just as healthy a man as you can find in a week's travel. You may be sure I always keep Acker's English Remedy in the house, and it is a good thing I do so, for one night my youngest child was seized with croup. That hoarse, wheezy cough was the first signal, and I lost no time in giving the poor little sufferer proper doses of this grand medicine. In almost no time the disease was under control, and my child was saved. I advise every parent to have a bottle handy all the time. It serves the same purpose in keeping croup out of the house that a good lock and key serve to keep burglars out. It is both an expectorant and a tonic. It cured me of consumption and my child of croup, and I know what I am talking about." (Signed) Hon. M. HOGAN, picture frame manufacturer, 242 Center Street, New York.

Blue Laws in New York.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The police of Yonkers, N. Y., have arrested Benjamin Adams, member of the board of education of that place on the charge of playing golf Sunday.

The Sunday blue-law crusade began several weeks ago, and has been pushed by one side and opposed by another with fierce energy. It was originally started to stop Sunday baseball playing. A petition to the police commissioners signed by Yonkers clergymen calling for a strict enforcement of the Sunday laws was recently presented. The commissioners ordered the chief of police to enforce the laws impartially, declaring that golf playing on Sunday was as much a crime as baseball. Fearing trouble, the members of the golf club posted lookouts about their grounds, but as no efforts were made by the police to interfere with them, they supposed that they would be exempt from arrest.

The signing of the petition by the ministers provoked a storm of indignation in several congregations. Many church members prominent in the affairs of the town served notices on their pastors that they would sever their connection with the church unless the ministers withdrew their signatures.

Allied Troops in Serious Affray.

TREN TSN, June 3.—There was a serious affray yesterday between international troops. Some British fusiliers who were acting as police here sought to prevent French soldiers from house-breaking, when they were attacked with bayonets and bricks. The fusiliers, in self-defense, fired in the air. This brought a number of Germans to the aid of the Frenchmen. They numbered altogether 3000 men. Five fusiliers fired again, killing a Frenchman and wounding three others. In subsequent fighting, four fusiliers, five Germans and one Japanese were wounded. The arrival of a German officer and a strong guard ended the fray.

First "Agnostic" Marriage.

CINCINNATI, June 2.—The first "agnostic" marriage in this country occurred today and formed the closing feature of the agnostic Sunday school that has been established here. The contracting parties were Frederick Federie and Mertha Seaman. Justice Roobling performed the legal part of the ceremony, after which both parties made their pledge, including one not to resist divorce proceedings. The bride also repeated the words: "Should I discover that we are uncongenial or mismatched, I hereby pledge that I will not bear children that are not born of affection."

Lightship No. 50 is Afloat.

ASTORIA, June 3.—Lightship No. 50 was successfully floated at Fort Canby, Wash., at high tide last night. She will be brought to Astoria today and proceed to Portland, where she will be thoroughly overhauled and outfitted preparatory to being returned to her station off the mouth of the river.

Portland in the Lead.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., June.—The delegates to the conference of the Travelers' Protective Association met today over the banquet board at the Chamberlain hotel. Cincinnati and Portland, Or., are fighting for the convention in 1902. The chances seem to be in favor of the latter place.
