FATE OF A TYPICAL TRUST.

The annual report of the United States Rubber Company, made public recently, is a good illustration of what a trust may expect when it seeks by monopoly to extort undue profits, says the Courier-Journal. The report shows that the net earnings of this $50,000,000 corporation for this fiscal year were only $62,605.57, about one-fourth of 1 per cent on the outstanding preferred stock, and nothing at all on the common. Yet the preferred stock is entitled to 8 per cent dividends, which have heretofore been paid. The company has been in existence nine years, and began with the practical control of the industry. It was not satisfied with moderate profits, but made such radical advances in prices that competition sprang up on every side. Last year it was wittily observed that the trust was "holding an umbrella over the trade," meaning that it kept its prices so high that the independent concerns sold the most of the goods at slight reductions. An attempt was made to buy them up, but this failed, and then a combination was proposed, to which the outside concerns would not listen. Competition has been increased, not lessened, by consolidation. The same results will follow with other trusts if the wiser policy of giving the consumer a share in the advantages of consolidation does not prevail.

THERE IS MORE OF THEM.

A subscriber takes THE CHRONICLE to task for publishing "Indignant's" letter in yesterday's issue, containing strictures on the administration of Wasco county justice, with special reference to the continuance of Ike Moore's case and his admission to bail in the paltry sum of $300.

THE CHRONICLE has no apology to offer for its action, and is not in the least sorry for what it did in the premises. When THE CHRONICLE cannot afford to publish the truth it had better wrap the drapery of its couch about it and lie down in an eternal sleep. "Indignant's" protest was just and timely. Justice in Wasco county, in numerous cases during the last quarter of a century, has been a ridiculous farce.

THE CHRONICLE has personal recollection of numerous cases where men were not only notoriously guilty of crimes against the law, but were actually adjudged guilty in the courts who, because they had a pull with the legal authorities, never suffered for a moment for their crimes. The record is an ugly one and would not look well in print, but it is available and if it is very badly wanted can be produced.

YELLOW KIDS AT WAR.

When the "yellow kids" get after each other, newspaper literature becomes picturesque. The Portland Telegram is only an infant "yellow kid," but like all healthy infants it is full of infantile vigor. Here are some specimens of the yellow prattle the Telegram hurls at its yellow mother, the New York Journal. The occasion is the Journal's announcement of a couple of Harlem small-pox patients said to have been cured by prayer. The Portland yellow kid infant calls its Journal mother a "liar, a cheat, a fakir, a fraud, a newspaper montebank, a journalistic swindler and a detestible deceiver of the public that supports it." It characterizes the Journal's statement as "reeking, rotten journalism; as the product of a fraud and journalistic fakir," and winds up by saying that "the story as told by Mr. Hearst's paper is a damned lie." The Journal is bad enough, the Lord knows, but it is doubtful if it often got off anything worse than this.

NOTICE TO WATER-CONSUMERS.

All persons using Dalles City water for irrigating purposes between the 1st day of May and the 1st day of September, will observe the following rules and regulations:

Persons will be permitted to use the water below the bluff on all even days, and above the bluff on all odd days from 6 o'clock a. m. until 8 a. m., and from 6 o'clock p. m. until 8 p. m.

The above rules must be strictly complied with, and any infraction of the above rules will subject the offender to a fine of $1, and the water will be shut off until paid; and for a second offence double the amount.

The following charges will be made: For one full lot 50x100, $1.50 per month. Each additional lot $1.25; half lot 75 cts.

All persons using water in closet or toilet will see to it that the water is shut off when not in use, or water will be shut off altogether if allowed to run to waste.

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.

Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.

Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.

Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.

Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.

Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.

Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.

Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.

Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by

MAYS & CROWE.

Don't Rub It In.

Just wet the affected part freely with Mysterious Pain Cure, a Scotch remedy, and the pain is gone. Sold by Clarke & Falk.

FOR about thirteen years I have devoted more time to politics than to business. The result is that my business has suffered. For a time, at least, I propose to devote more time to business and less to politics, provided the other fellows will let me.

During these years some features have come into practice among business men that were not considered proper or necessary at that time. Among them is the scheme of profit-sharing or giving to some lucky customers a valuable present. I propose to do something in this line myself.

For each fifty cents paid to me for goods furnished I will give the customer a numbered coupon. On each Saturday at 9 p. m. I will give away two presents—one, a year's subscription to any $1 periodical desired, and the other, one copy of some of the famous pictures neatly framed, the customer can also make a choice of these as there are a number to be given away before supply is exhausted. In addition, every month I will give several valuable presents. On June 5th the presents will be a fine Bible, a Webster's International Dictionary, one year's subscription to a $1 periodical and one Boys' Baseball Set. The presents to be given away on July 6th will be announced later.

I hope to confine myself in these presents to articles in my own line so that I will not interfere with sale of goods in other lines. In addition I will give a dividend each month to the person who has purchased the most goods from me. On June 5th this will be $5.00. You do not have to purchase fifty cents worth at one time to get a dividend check, as I issue certificates of sale for less amounts which can be exchanged for dividend check when they amount to fifty cents. If clerk does not give you checks or certificates when you make a purchase, ask for them.
