TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS.

The county court has instructed the county clerk to place a warrant on the tax roll of 1900 commanding me to collect the taxes for said year by making sale, if necessary, of the property therein mentioned, and to return the roll inside of sixty days.

I am sworn to do my duty, and am also under bonds for its faithful performance; therefore have no alternative but to obey the mandate of the court, and will immediately proceed to make out a list of delinquents and advertise the property for sale.

WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

Miss Taylor's kindergarten closed yesterday with a picnic at the academy grounds, which was greatly enjoyed by her regiment of little tots.

Prof. C. R. Deems, of Boyd, and Miss Mabel F. O'Brien, of Dufur, were united in marriage June 1, 1901, at the home of J. W. Jenkins in Hood River, Rev. J. W. Jenkins officiating.

Mrs. C. Van Orsdail, grand guardian of Women of Woodcraft, will deliver the unveiling address at Sunset cemetery, for the Woodmen of the World, on Sunday, June 9th, at 2:30 p. m.

The Children's Day exercises of the Congregational Sunday school will be held at 11 o'clock next Sunday, the regular hour for church service, instead of at the usual Sunday school hour.

Quite a nice crowd of young people and a liberal sprinkling of elders left on this morning's boat for Hood River on the Sunday school picnic of the M. E. church. It is hoped they had a pleasant day and pleasant trip.

In the suit to be tried in Portland to test the constitutionality of the law prohibiting barber shops being open on Sunday the point will be raised that the word "barbering," used in the law, does not exist, and therefore expresses nothing.

At 8 o'clock this morning the river gauged at this place indicated 36.8 feet above zero, a rise of one-tenth feet in twenty-four hours. The Daily River Bulletin says: "The river at The Dalles will remain nearly on a stand during the next day or two."

On next Wednesday the Sunday school of the Ev. Lutheran church will go on an excursion trip to Hood River. The fare per boat is 15 cents for children and 30 cents for grown people. All children below 5 years of age free. As many of our Lutheran people as possible ought to go and take their children with them.

The Antelope Herald learns that the Cherry creek country was recently the scene of another disastrous waterspout. Mr. James Connolly, who suffered a large loss from a similar source last year, was damaged even worse this time. The Herald's informant states that Mr. Connolly's entire farm was flooded and badly washed, his crops being almost totally destroyed.

An appreciative audience greeted Rev. G. W. Muckley at the Christian church last evening. The speaker held the attention of the audience for over an hour presenting the merits of the work of the board of church extension in a very vivid manner. He will speak again tonight at 8 o'clock. The address will be more of a sermon than last evening, and the public is cordially invited.

An exchange says that if a newspaper man knew how many knocks he received behind his back he would adopt another calling. Not so. The newspaper man who succeeds expects to be maligned by every law breaker, swindler and hypocrite, every carping critic and every lover of notoriety who is ignored, and, in fact, by all persons who do not agree with him in public and private matters.

As the No. 1 passenger train was this afternoon passing a point a little west of the mess house, near Celilo, an Indian woman and child were thrown from the frightened horse they were riding and, falling on the track in front of the locomotive, were instantly killed. Coroner Butts was immediately summoned and had not returned from the scene of the accident at the time of going to press.

The directors of school district No. 12 met yesterday, and after transacting the regular business of the session decided that The Dalles schools should resume business on the second Monday, being the 9th, of September. As was determined a month ago all the teachers have been re-engaged save one, and she was let out because there were eighteen teachers for seventeen places and one had to go.

The Middle Oregon Baptist Association convened with Calvary Baptist church this morning, according to appointment. Something near forty delegates and visitors had reported at noon, and others are expected to arrive this evening. Temporary officers were elected and reports from the various churches were read during the day. Tonight at 8 o'clock the annual introductory sermon will be delivered by Rev. M. M. Bledsoe, of Arlington.

Heavy rains and high water last week played havoc with some of the ranches and roads in the south half of Wheeler county, according to the Fossil Journal. Allen & Oakes are the heaviest losers. On Bear creek Tuesday they lost fifty head of sheep and eighty tons of hay, and the alfalfa in the big field on their Bridge creek ranch was completely inundated with three feet of water, which carried away quite a stretch of fence. Hall fell as large as marbles.

An East Portland man who returned home from Shaniko Monday night, tells the Telegram that the Deschutes country, through which he was driving Saturday and Sunday, was visited by a terrific storm Sunday. A waterspout burst on the range, and the Deschutes river rose 12 feet in 20 minutes. A log was carried through a house, but fortunately no one in the structure was hurt. The country was swept by torrents of water, and there were had washouts at several places.

The people of Dufur are to have a treat Saturday night, when the company of young people from The Dalles will visit their little city and repeat the entertainment which so delighted Dalles people at the Baldwin a few weeks since. The trip is in the nature of an outing as much as anything, and as one of the leading lodges of that place has guaranteed their expenses, they are not anxious concerning finances. They will leave in the early afternoon and return by moonlight. If Dufurites and their neighbors know what is in store for them they will all plan to attend.

The Pacific Bridge Company of Portland will commence active operations on the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company's power plant at White river falls next Wednesday. A force of mechanics will arrive there Monday and pitch camp for a stay of four and a half months. By Wednesday morning the management expects to be able to put to work between twenty and thirty laborers, who will be paid the best wages current for the class of work in which they will be employed. The foremen expects before many days to need between forty and fifty men. In addition to the work on the power plant at the falls another crew of men will start to work about the same time on the pole line between The Dalles and the falls, commencing at this end of the line. On this job five or six laborers can obtain employment for a short time digging holes for the poles.

PERSONAL MENTION.

M. P. Isenberg, of Hood River, spent last night in the city.

P. Conroy and J. Nugay left town this morning to look after their business interests on Cherry creek, Crook county.

G. W. Hogue, sheriff of Linn county, was in town today on his way to Prineville for a horse-thief who is imprisoned there awaiting his arrival.

NOTICE.

On account of the cold winds and rain, the Street Fair and Strawberry Carnival, which was to have been held at Hood River on the 4th, 5th and 6th, will be postponed for one week. There will, therefore, be no excursion on the Regulator June 6th.

Another Compliment to W. H. H. Dufur.

MONTAVILLA, Ore., June 4, 1901.

TO THE EDITOR:

Having read in your valuable paper, as well as a number of other papers, articles in favor of Hon. W. H. H. Dufur for United States marshal, I desire, as one of his G. A. R. friends, space for a few words. For the past three years I have been very intimately associated with Mr. Dufur on the forest reserve, being one of the rangers under his supervision. As an official he is always a gentleman, prompt, methodical, and very efficient, commanding the respect of his superiors of the Department of the Interior as well as the subordinates under him, and in fact all that he comes in contact with on the reserve. As an associate in the mountains he is a genial companion, ready to do his full share of work of any character, and a jovial chum round the camp-fire at night. He has a great respect for all defenders of our flag and, in short, is a right good fellow. Should the appointment of United States marshal come to him, the office, in my opinion, would be administered with credit both to the state and himself, and no one not personally interested would be better pleased than

Yours truly,

W. N. MORSE.

A Proper Assessment Ruling.

THE CHRONICLE reported some time ago that Assessor C. L. Schmidt had discovered 9700 acres of lands that had been deeded by the state to several parties, but had never been placed on the assessment roll. As a matter of fact, no less than 21,400 acres of land in Wasco county has been sold by the state and never been assessed. Some of these lands were sold a score of years ago, but because final payment on them has not been made, they have never been assessed. And yet some of them are worth $50 an acre, and from that down to $2.

Of the land sold but not deeded, and therefore not heretofore taxed, 1,600 acres are in the Hood river valley, 4000 acres in the Mosier district, 2,364 acres in the Dufur district, 3,500 in the Kingsley district and 7,300 in the Antelope district. In most instances a mere trifle of the purchase price has remained unpaid for many years, apparently because the interest on the deferred payment, is very much less than the tax would be.

Mr. Schmidt, however, intends to make this deferred payment business unprofitable in the future. Following the best available legal advice, he will tax the lands in question without respect to whether final payment has been made and a deed issued for them or not. The value placed on them by the assessor will, in each case, be the
