Hood River Blacksmiths Regulated.
A Hood River blacksmith sends THE CHRONICLE the following notice, which he says was tacked lately on his shop door and did him "a whole lot of good." THE CHRONICLE publishes the notice at the request of the blacksmith, who will kindly reciprocate by sending us a check for $10. THE CHRONICLE naturally wants a small percentage on the "whole lot of good that has been done to the blacksmith:

NOTICE.
Your attention is called to the following ordinance regulating blacksmiths in the city of Hood River, Or.:
Any blacksmith shop on State street found open after 4 p. m. or open before 10 o'clock a. m., will be fined for the first offence $10.
Any blacksmith heard singing while at work shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.
No singing or whistling permitted inside the city limits.
Application blanks permitting singing before 11 o'clock a. m. can be had by calling at the bank of Hood River and depositing a small fee. For permission to make any other noise apply at the bank.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Charles Decker and Alice Koehler.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson charmingly entertained the ladies of the Aid Society yesterday afternoon.

Duncan McRae, of Antelope, yesterday sold his two crops of wool stored at the Moody warehouse for 11 1/2 cents a pound.

Every Methodist in Oregon will be asked to give $1 to the support of Willamette university at Salem. There are 12,000 members of the church in the state.

A number of the young gentlemen of the city have decided to give a dance at the Baldwin tomorrow night. Everybody invited. Music by Professor Birgfeld.

On Saturday Pease & Mays will give you your choice of three great specialties—ladies fine tailored suits, organdie dresses and silk waists, all at 33 1/2 off. Don't overlook the sale.

The Shaniko Leader says T. A. Connelly, of Shearar's Bridge, sold his clip of wool in Shaniko last Tuesday for 11 1/4 cents a pound. This is said to be the top price of the season.

The Observer says: Hitting the pipe is a new diversion in Moro, and if reports be true our Celestial washer man is making more money by selling dope than from laundering shirts.

Past experience with and the pleasure derived from the former entertainments given by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, are sufficient guarantees as to what may be expected on the evening of the 13th.

The Leader says: During the past week ten clips of wool stored in the Shaniko warehouse were sold at prices ranging from 11 cents to 11 1/2 cents. Several other clips not yet in have been contracted for at the same prices.

Rev. Ray Palmer, who for the past five years has been pastor of the Second Baptist church, Portland, and is well and favorably known among the Baptists of this section, has tendered his resignation as pastor to accept a call from the First Baptist church of Chillicothe, Mo.

Mrs. E. Carey, having purchased the millinery stock of Mrs. Harper at the Bazaar, begs to announce that she desires to close out the old stock during the coming week, at greatly reduced prices, when she will open with a fresh stock of the newest things in millinery and ladies' furnishing goods. jun6-1w

The customers of M. T. Nolan were last night made the recipients of the following presents: Magazine subscription of $1 to Charles Michaelbach; a framed picture to Mrs. O. S. Wand; an International dictionary to Mrs. W. J. Fisher; a family Bible to Dr. Sturdevant; a four-dollar subscription to Mr. Markillie and a boy's baseball set to V. Koontz.

Gustavus Ernquest, a Mosier rancher, was brought to The Dalles hospital yesterday suffering from a severe cut and bruise in his left hand, which he sustained by falling from a building on which he was working. Ernquest was nearly dead when he arrived here from loss of blood. He is now resting easy after having suffered the amputation of the middle finger of the injured hand.

W. H. Davis, of Wapinitia, brought to town today four hogs belonging to Mrs. Shoup, a renter on his place, that weighed 950 pounds. They lacked nine days of being eight months old. They were purchased by the Columbia Packing Company at 5 1/2 cents a pound, bringing $49.87, or $12.47 each. If anybody can beat this for 9-months-old hogs, THE CHRONICLE would like to hear from him.

Yesterday W. Wallace Wilson completed the purchase of a half interest and complete control of the New York Restaurant, formerly known as the Clarendon. Mr. Wilson has the reputation of being the best restaurant man in the city, and we have no doubt that in this old and always popular resort Mr. Wilson will meet with the success his merits as a restaurateur entitle him to. Mr. Wilson took charge of his new place yesterday.

The Walla Walla Union reports the recent arrest in that town of Linden Garretson, the 12-year-old son of W. E. Garretson, late of this city, now of Pendleton. Linden, in company with a lad four years younger than himself, ran away from home about a week before the arrest. The two lads were armed with a huge butcher knife and a dollar in money. The boys traveled around the country in true hobo style till they were arrested through information furnished the police by their anxious parents.

After visiting the scene of the fatal accident to the Indian woman and child who were killed yesterday afternoon near the moss house, this side of Celilo, by being thrown from a frightened horse in front of the locomotive of passenger train No. 1, Coroner Butte concluded no inquest was necessary as the fatality was purely accidental and the friends of the dead woman and child begged that the remains should not be brought to The Dalles for an inquest, but be left with the Indian relatives to be interred in their own way and at their own expense.

While the officials of The Dalles post-office were yesterday overhauling the letter boxes in order to make sure that none but rented boxes were receiving mail, they came upon the following communication, which was found written in pencil on an ordinary box rent notice. The card was lying in the bottom of the box in such a manner as easily accounted for its being heretofore overlooked. The writer evidently imagined that the box rents constitute part of the postmaster's salary. Here is the communication verbatim et literatim: "Mr. Postmaster Crusing I do not want to be insulted by any government toll I will pay when I get redy I think you get enuf calery."

At the Baptist Association yesterday evening Justice Timothy Brownhill, of this city, was elected permanent moderator, and Rev. J. B. Spight, of Grass Valley, clerk. Several additional delegates and visitors reported, including Rev. Geo. R. Varney, of Portland; Rev. I. S. Hankins, a returned missionary from India; Rev. W. H. Wooten, of Heppner; Rev. J. W. Mount and wife, of Jackson, Tenn.; Rev. W. H. Latourrette, of McMinnville, Oregon. A large congregation heard with interest the introductory sermon by Rev. Bledsoe. This morning, after the routine business, the discussion of the regular reports began, which will occupy all the afternoon. Rev. Varney will preach tonight at 8 o'clock.

Early this morning a "corner" collision occurred between two freight trains at Mosier, which resulted in more or less serious injuries to three young fellows who were beating their way, and three eight freight cars off the track, smashing several of them into splinters. The injured men were brought here and taken to The Dalles hospital, where their injuries were attended to by Drs. Logan and Ferguson at the expense of the county. The worst injured of the three is R. Dumonter, aged 19, who claims Seattle as his home. He is seriously injured in the chest and has a broken thigh. Frank Gibson, aged 17, also hailing from Seattle, is injured about the hip and back. Jack Meigher, aged 15, and hailing from Canada, has a dislocated hip. None are seriously injured unless it be Dumonter.

NOTICE.

On account of the cold winds and rain, the Street Fair and Strawberry Carnival, which was to have been held at Hood River on the 4th, 5th and 6th, will be postponed for one week. There will, therefore, be no excursion on the Regulator June 6th.

W. C. ALLAWAY,
General Agent.

Symposium on Dalles Hoodlums.

THE CHRONICLE is reliably informed that a number of young ruffians of this city are accustomed to gather nightly around the tent of the camp meeting now in progress on the F. P. Mays lot, north of the First Baptist church building, and perpetrate about all the deviltry and meanness they can conceive of. Some of their acts are too utterly low and vile to be hinted at here, while, as a sample of their minor offences, it may be mentioned that no longer ago than last night one of the young hoodlums stuck his head through a flap in the tent and yelled out in response to something the preacher had just said, "That's a damned lie!"

The preacher in charge of the tent informs THE CHRONICLE that one rather cold night a hoodlum on the outside lifted up the wall of the tent and let the cold air in. One of the ladies of the congregation complained to a gentleman sitting near, who let down the wall. That night as the gentleman left the tent some five or six drunken young hoodlums jumped on him and proceeded to do their best, which, on account of their drunken condition, was very little, to thrash him. The preachers, yet inside the tent, responded to the gentleman's call and drove the boys away. "And these annoyances," said the preacher, "have been going on night after night since we commenced our meetings, now nearly three weeks ago. We complained to the marshal and to the nightwatchman, but without any practical result. The watchman came around one night when the boys were not particularly bad, and that was the last we saw of him. The marshal never came at all, but answered our complaint by saying that he could do nothing with the boys as long as they kept on the sidewalk."

THE CHRONICLE voices the complaint of these good people, as it has a right to do. If they were infidels or Mormons or Pagans it would do the same in the interest of free speech. The outrages committed by these young candidates for the penitentiary and the gallows are a crying disgrace to the city.

The Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society for March, 1901, has been received. This is the first number of Vol. 2. Its contents are as follows: Political History of Oregon from 1853 to 1865, by Hon. George H. Williams. Flotsam and Jetsam of the Pacific—the Owyhee, the Sultana and the May Dacre, by Mrs. Frances Fuller Victor. The vessels referred to entered the Columbia river between the years 1829 and 1834. An Historical Survey of Public Education in Eugene, Oregon, by Joseph Schafer. The Aurora Community, by H. S. Lyman. All these articles are of vital interest to everyone who cares to know anything about the beginning of things in our state. The object of this publication is to create an interest in the study of Oregon history and thereby assist in developing an Oregon spirit in order to
