

Bled Quarts at a Time

"I am a knife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knife Co.'s factory at Walden, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from the mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in the fall I got so bad, and the church people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination. They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on. One professor had a little ivory hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared: 'One of your lungs is about gone and the other is affected. There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went back home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists, Walker & Eaton. I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here." (Signed) A. H. SIMPSON.

American Horse Won the Derby.

LONDON, June 5.—The Derby, England's greatest turf event, was run today, and won by Wm. C. Whitney's Volodyovski, ridden by Lester Reiff, an American jockey. The winner was the favorite at 5 to 2.

The Derby aroused far greater enthusiasm than usual, owing to its open character. Nearly every owner represented thought his horse had a chance, and the same sanguine view was reflected by the public. The betting, consequently, was more widespread than usual. The field numbered about 25.

W. C. Whitney's Volodyovski (L. Reiff) remained a strong favorite at 5 to 2. All those directly interested in the horse were extremely sanguine, though they somewhat dread the size of the field. William the Third, Florifrom, Sovereign and Handicapper were all staunchly supported.

Besides L. Reiff, the Americans who rode were Maher, on Tantalus; Turner, on Prince Charles II; Henry, on Olympian, and Martin, on Handicapper.

There was great enthusiasm at the finish, as the winner was a popular one. Many prominent Americans witnessed the race and won heavily as a result of the victory. Jockey Reiff was given the ovation of his life. The gross value of the state was $29,000, most of which goes to the winner.

A Bum Crazy Murderer.

BEAVERTON, Mich., June 5.—Will Arnold, aged 30, noted for hard drinking, while temporarily deranged this morning chased his idolized 6-year-old daughter to her bed room and shot her dead. Then he rushed out, fatally shot his wife, and then turned the revolver on his 70-year-old mother, wounding her in the hand. His sister remonstrating, she too fell before the murderer's gun. Sam Dopp, a neighboring saloonkeeper, rushed to the aid and filled Arnold with buckshot. Citizens over-powered the crazed man and hustled him to the Gladwyn jail, 11 miles away to prevent lynching.

Woman Among Trappists.

GETTSEMAN, Ky., June 5.—For the second time within its history a woman passed within the walls of the Trappist monastery here today. Several years ago the wife of Proctor Knott, then governor of Kentucky, was a guest. Today the wife of Governor Beckham visited the monastery. The rules of the order prohibit the admission of women, the only exception being the wives and friends of the chief executive of the community in which the monastery is located. The monks were allowed to recognize the presence of Mrs. Beckham only by a slight bow, as the rules forbid a member of the order to speak, except to the abbey and then on matters of official business.

SALEM, Ore., June 5.—State Treasurer Moore today issued a call for all warrants outstanding on the general fund and for warrants against the scalp bounty fund up to and including May 1, 1900. This leaves one-half the scalp warrants still out, or about $60,000.
