THE DAVIS DEFALCATION.

District Attorney George E. Chamberlain, of Portland, declines to take any part in an official capacity in the proceedings which Attorney-General Blackburn has instituted against Ex-Governor Pennoyer, Ex-Secretary of State George W. McBride and Ex-State Treasurer Phil Metschan, as the former state school board, for the recovery of $30,932.06 shortage in the accounts of Ex-Clerk of Board George W. Davis.

In a letter to the attorney-general Mr. Chamberlain takes the ground that not only is the claim of the state against these gentlemen barred by the statute of limitations but whatever may have been the liability of the board prior to October 23, 1880, the legislative act of that date, which expressly made it the duty of the clerk to "receive, receipt for and make immediate payment to the state treasurer of all moneys of the state for the sale of school lands," in the most positive manner takes away from the board the direct management of the funds mentioned and relieves the members of the board of such personal responsibility as is sought to be established by this action.

The truth is certain newspapers, for purely political purposes, have kept nagging at the ex-land board till they have forced the state into a law suit that can only have one result. There is no court in Oregon that will hold men responsible for funds over which the law gives them no direct control when, as in this case, no guilty participation, on the part of the board or any member of it, in the commissions of the acts charged, is alleged or even suspected.

The trusts are an enigma. They have belied nearly every prophecy that has been made concerning them. The country was to go to the how-ows under them, yet the country was never more prosperous; wages were to fall and labor become scarce, yet the general average of wages was never higher and labor was never more plentiful; prices were to be fixed arbitrarily and were to become excessive, yet the only really excessive prices are on the things produced on the farm and range. And now comes Director of Census W. R. Merriam and knocks another prophecy in the head. The manufacturing and mechanical establishments of the country were soon to be consolidated into a few huge establishments that would monopolize all the business in their lines. Mr. Merriam estimates that the number of manufacturing and mechanical establishments in the country is 650,000, against 300,000 ten years ago, an extraordinary increase in the greatest trust decade in our or the world's history of over 100 per cent. Well may Mr. Merriam say of the manufacturing statistics that show these results: "It can be safely stated that the results of this inquiry will astonish even the most optimistic of our citizens."

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't. Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't. Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is. Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are. Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not. Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one. Don't fail to recollect that imported Strasky steel-ware lasts for years. Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence. Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by Mays & Crowe.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.

M. T. NOLAN.
