SIC TRANSIT GLORIA AGUINALDO

Aguinaldo, the "Washington of the Philippines," has so thoroughly shamed his eulogists by his meek submission to capture and his trucking interviews since, that the sympathy of rhetorical heroes has not been wasted upon him recently, says an exchange. It has begun to dawn upon the minds even of those Americans who once lauded him that he was ridiculously overrated as patriot, soldier and statesman, and the sounder judgment of today is most emphatically confirmed by the revelations from Murat Halstead's study of the Filipino archives.

Among the documents which were captured at Malalos in 1889 are letters which prove that the sham champion of independence never abandoned that policy of double dealing which he pursued in the earlier struggle against Spain. It will be remembered that while he was posing as a patriot he accepted Spanish money and left the islands.

So it seems that after the battle of Manila and before the capture of the city, he was again playing into the Spaniards' hands. He kept up a correspondence with General Augustin and wrote of his desire to save Spanish sovereignty in the Philippines from shipwreck. When he was taking part, supposedly, in the siege of the capital, he was authorizing the convoy of supplies to the beleaguered Spanish forces. On the very day that Admiral Dewey gave him 7000 guns to be used against those forces, he invited the Spanish governor-general to enter into a contract with him for their mutual advantage.

Plainly if there was a Filipino cause to excite the enthusiasm of lovers of liberty this renegade's relation to it was that of a Judas. And, lacking loyalty and honesty, he lacked everything else that is worthy of admiration. A poorer specimen of a general never ran away from his troops. The single distinction that he won in the American conflict was that of a sprinter. In the tactical skill and the leadership that inspires on the battlefield he was entirely deficient. He would have been a poor man in the ranks even because he was unquestionably a physical coward. As for his statesmanship, it is clear that his only alternative for treachery was the absolutism of a dictator. The history affords us a true measure of the value of his present professions, which should count for nothing. At the same time it is not necessary to impose any very severe punishment upon him because he is now a wholly contemptible figure.

Somebody having made the wild charge that President McKinley is an ultra protectionist, the Boston Journal remarks: "To find ultra protectionism it is necessary to go away back to the days of Thomas Jefferson, who wished that the Atlantic might be a lake of fire to keep out foreign goods." The foreign trade of the United States this year will reach $2,300,000,000, a sufficient proof that the Dingley tariff is something quite different from a policy of isolation.

Hon. Geo. E. Chamberlain continues to have a level head. He refuses to bring suit against the board which fixed G. W. Davis' bonds, as required by the attorney general, knowing that he could not recover. Perhaps it would serve them right if they had to pay, but that is not the question.—Albany Democrat.

During eleven months of the fiscal year the income of the government has exceeded the expenditures by $58,588,695. The country is in good shape for the reduction of war taxes on July 1st.

Don't.
Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.
Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.
Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.
Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.
Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.
Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.
Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.
Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.
Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by Mays & Crowe.

Dyspeptics cannot be long lived because to live requires nourishment Food is not nourishing until it is digested. A disordered stomach cannot digest food, it must have assistance. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests all kinds of food without aid from the stomach, allowing it to rest and regain its natural functions. Its elements are exactly the same as the natural digestive fluids and it simply can't help but do you good. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.

M. T. NOLAN.

YOUR KIDNEYS.

After you tire of using so-called kidney remedies without any benefit, use Lincoln Sexual Pills and be forever rid of those dull pains in your back. TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS.

The county court has instructed the county clerk to place a warrant on the tax roll of 1900 commanding me to collect the taxes for said year by making sale, if necessary, of the property therein mentioned, and to return the roll inside of sixty days.
I am sworn to do my duty, and am also under bonds for its faithful performance; therefore have no alternative but to obey the mandate of the court, and will immediately proceed to make out a list of delinquents and advertise the property for sale.
