

Distinguished Testimony

No secret society in the world stands higher in noble aims and charitable accomplishments than the Knights of Pythias. That order is doing great good, and one of its finest institutions is the Ohio Pythian Home, at Springfield, Ohio, which is ably presided over by Superintendent Le Fevre and his wife, Mrs. Callie I. Le Fevre, the matron. The latter has recently written a letter, which will command widespread attention because of the prominence of the writer. It is as follows:—

CALLIE I. LE FEVRE, Matron Ohio Pythian Home.

"Messrs. W. H. Hooker & Co., New York. Last year I used Acker's English Remedy at the suggestion of a friend, for a serious, long-standing throat difficulty and extremely hard cough. Had used many well-spoken-of preparations without relief. I can honestly say that Acker's English Remedy removed the difficulty and stopped the cough. I did not purchase or use more than three bottles, and at least one-half of the last is still on hand. I also consulted physicians with no permanent results." (Signed) CALLIE I. LE FEVRE.

The friend to whom Mrs. Le Fevre refers as having suggested Acker's English Remedy is Mrs. W. B. Chilton, wife of the president of the Troy Transfer Co., of Troy, Ohio, where this remedy has accomplished many other cures in Throat and Lung Troubles. In conversation with an acquaintance Mrs. Le Fevre also said: "If you will call on Mr. W. H. Schauss, a prominent china and art merchant of Springfield, Ohio, you will find that he, too, has had any amount of experience with Acker's English Remedy in his family, and thinks they cannot keep house without it."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, 1s., 2s., 3s., 4s., and 4s. 6d. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

Middle Oregon Baptist Association.

The Middle Oregon Baptist Association met at The Dalles June 5th with Calvary Baptist church. Delegates were in attendance from twelve churches, and also a number of visitors. This was perhaps the best meeting the association has ever held, as it was a deeply spiritual one and advance movements were made along lines of the different denominational enterprises.

Hon. Timothy Brownhill, of The Dalles, was elected moderator and presided with dignity and ability. Rev. J. B. Spigit, of Grass Valley, was elected clerk.

The subject of missions and education were the main issues brought before the association, upon which there was great interest manifested. Rev. I. D. Brown was elected for the term of one year as associational missionary. Marshall Hill, of The Dalles, J. M. Powell, of Moro, M. M. Bedson, of Arlington, and W. C. Lacey, of Heppner, were elected as trustees of the Middle Oregon Baptist Academy for three years, and J. W. Mount, of Jackson, Tennessee, to fill out the unexpired term of J. W. Stockton, trustee. Ways and means were arranged whereby it is proposed to secure sufficient funds from the field to make the success of the work in that direction an assured fact, the different delegates and visitors pledging themselves to assist in the work in no uncertain manner. The report and results of the work accomplished in the academy during the last school year, under the able and efficient management of Prof. J. B. Spigit, were better than could ordinarily have been expected, and the prospects for the future are very bright indeed. It is with regret, however, that the friends of the academy will learn that Prof. Spigit has been, on account of ill health, compelled to resign his position as professor of the school. The board of trustees have determined to secure No. 1 teachers for the coming year so as to keep the work up to its present standard.

Prominent visitors were Rev. Geo. R. Varney, of Portland, who is state secretary of missions; Rev. W. H. Latourrette, financial agent for McMinnville college; Rev. L. W. Gowen, colporteur for A. B. P. Society of Philadelphia; Miss Carrie O. Millepaugh, of Portland, representing young people's and women's work; Rev. I. S. Hawkins and wife returned missionaries from India; Rev. J. W. Mount and wife, recently from Tennessee, and others.

One of the most interesting features of the meetings were the addresses delivered by Rev. I. S. Hawkins. Many other helpful talks were made by the ministers and delegates present.

The next place of meeting is Heppner, Oregon.

Resolutions were passed tendering a vote of thanks to the Calvary Baptist church and citizens for the generous hospitality enjoyed by the delegates while here; to the local press for courtesies extended, and also to the transportation companies.

The Sunday evening service was taken up by the young people from 7 o'clock until 8, after which a large audience listened to Elder Mount in an able sermon from the text "For me to live is Christ."

Then the association adjourned until Wednesday before the second Sunday in June, 1902. The meeting closed with singing, and the hand of Christian fellowship was extended to Elder Hawkins, from India, J. W. Mount, from Tennessee, Elder Gowen, Boise, Idaho.

Amid many hearty good wishes the delegates and visitors took their departure for their various homes.

A Treat For the Children.

It is not often that an amusement enterprise visits our city and gives the people anything but the performance for their money. But Prof. Gentry has established a precedent as an exception and thereby made happy the hearts of thousands of little folks throughout the land, by extending to all school children an invitation to ride on his pretty little ponies after each performance during their exhibitions here. Polite attendants will look after the little folks who may wish to ride their choice of ponies.

Don't miss the grand noon-day parade—a treat within itself, over a half a mile in length and the prettiest moving picture ever witnessed. The show is billed to appear Wednesday, June 12th. One day only.

Seven Years to Bed.
"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Only 50c. 5

It was in a Pullman sleeper, and just across from the bachelor's berth was a handsome little woman and her 3 year-old boy. Early in the morning the two were laughing and playing together, and the good-natured bachelor smiled to himself as he arose to dress. Suddenly a little foot peeped out from the curtains of the opposite berth, and with a twinkle in his eye, the bachelor grabbed the pump toe and began: "This little pig went to market, this little pig went to market, sir," said the indignant voice of a woman. The silence which followed could be heard above the roar of the train.—Chicago News.
