WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Abundance of delicious crawfish all these days at the "Owl."
The fortnightly will meet with Mrs. J. M. Russell Thursday afternoon.
Senator J. N. Williamson will deliver the oration at Antelope on the Fourth.
Nearly three-quarters of a million pounds of wool changed hands at this place in the last twenty-four hours, at prices ranging from 11 to 12 cents a pound.
According to the latest advices received by Agent John Fillion, the Bailey Gatzert will resume her trips between Portland and The Dalles on the 18th instant, or possibly sooner.
At 9 o'clock this morning word came over the long distance 'phone that there was three inches of snow at Shaniko and it was still snowing there, as well as at Antelope, Bakeoven and Sherar's Bridge.
Gentry's Dog and Pony Show arrived here this morning in its own special train of cars between 9 and 10 o'clock, but failing to find a suitable place whereon to pitch the big tent, pulled out in a couple of hours for Walla Walla.
Joseph E. Carey and Mamie Pitcher were united in marriage last evening at the residence of the bridegroom's father, Mr. John Carey, of this city, Justice Brownhill officiating. The young couple will make their home on a ranch in the Victor neighborhood.
M. A. Moody reports having sold in 24 hours over 300,000 pounds of choice wools, chiefly from the Antelope district, at 12 cents a pound. This exceeds any price paid for wool in any market in Eastern Oregon this year, and confirms the well-established reputation of The Dalles as the best wool market on the Pacific coast.
Articles of incorporation were filed Tuesday in the secretary of state's office at Salem of the Little Deschutes Irrigation Company, for the purpose of constructing irrigation ditches from the Little Deschutes river, to carry water for household and domestic uses, watering stock and so forth. The headquarters will be at Roseland, Crook county; the capital stock is $200,000, in shares of $100, with D. A. Findlay, S. M. Findlay and E. D. Bellore incorporators.

Among the wool sales that we have heard of as having taken place yesterday afternoon and this forenoon is the clip of Mose Clausen, of Klickitat county, 50,000 pounds; two clips of J. H. Smith, of Sherman county, 40,000 pounds; two clips of M. Heckler, of Wapinitia, 30,000 pounds; clip of Tom Fargher, 40,000 pounds; two clips of George A. Young, 200,000 pounds; two clips of R. R. Hinton, 200,000 pounds; clip of John Little, of Antelope, 75,000; clip of Horace Fargher, 30,000; clip of Tom Fargher, 35,000 pounds.
A rather singular case was tried in Justice Brownhill's court Monday. J. Strain sued his niece by marriage, Mrs. Ina Corbreth, for $71, a sum he alleged he sent her to bring her here from North Carolina. Some time after her arrival here in 1898 she got married, and in due time a bad feeling appears to have arisen between the Strains and the Corbreths, culminating in this action. The theory of the defense was that the suit was instigated by spite, and the jury also took the same view and brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant. It was a singular verdict in more ways than one, for there was no question of Mrs. Corbreth's having received the money, and it is even said that on the first ballot the jury stood five to one for the plaintiff. Frank Menefee appeared for the plaintiff and N. J. Sinnott for the defense.
The officials in the county clerk's office had a good laugh yesterday at the expense of Judge George T. Prather, of Hood River. George, as everybody knows, was married many a long year ago, yet on the 3d day of this month he solemnly placed his written acknowledgment and seal at the foot of a document, now and for all time constituting part of the records of Wasco county, in which he denies the marriage relation and proclaims himself a single man. The acknowledgment, which anybody can see who so desires, reads as follows: "This certifies that on this 3d day of June A. D. 1901, before me, a single man, in and for said county and state, personally appeared the within named John Doe," etc. Possibly the judge meant that the other fellow was the victim of single wretchedness, and not himself, but if so he made a sad mess of it.
The result of the examination of Marshal Denton in Justice Brownhill's court yesterday, on the charge of assault and robbery of Chin Sing, a Chinaman, was his being bound over to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $300. Dan Daffron, junior, and Louis Jones, two mere lads, who were present and participated in the assault, were examined this afternoon and pleaded guilty to assault. Daffron, who seemed very penitent for his connection with the affair, was fined $10; but Jones, also a mere lad, who showed a more stubborn disposition, was sentenced to twenty-five days in the county jail. Had these boys been older it would undoubtedly have fared worse with them. Deputy District Attorney Wilson, in consideration of their tender age and that this was their first offence, allowed them to plead guilty to simple assault, in hope that their arrest and conviction, followed by a light sentence, might have a more salutary effect on them than a sentence to the penitentiary and a term spent there in associations that would tend to make them worse instead of better.

FOR DUFUR FOR MARSHAL.
A ringing indorsement of the Wasco County Candidate for United States Marshal by an Old Friend.
Ever since the name of Hon. W. H. Dufur, of Dufur, was first publicly mentioned as a candidate for United States marshal he has been the constant recipient of complimentary notices from old-time friends and acquaintances all over the state. The following is taken from Baker's Farmer and Stockman, and is all the more complimentary as being the promptings of a friendship that has its roots in an acquaintance formed many years ago. The article is headed by a very true picture of Mr. Dufur, which we regret not being able to reproduce:
It is evident that the press of Eastern Oregon, more particularly the press of that part of Eastern Oregon where Mr. W. H. Dufur lives, is earnestly desirous of securing for him the office of U. S. marshal, and we want to be included in the list of his advocates and supporters. We have known William Henry Harrison Dufur for many years, and take pleasure in espousing his appointment to the above position, knowing he is well qualified to discharge the office creditably to President McKinley's administration, to the delegation in congress from Oregon, and to the entire people of this, his adopted state. Moreover, we are cognizant of his faithful adherence to the best interests of his friends when in need of active, timely and telling support. He is a man of courage, of purest motives, sterling integrity, devoted to his friends, and withal a man of capacity—a man of value to his party and to his friends. We hope he will get the appointment.
Hon. W. H. Dufur was born in Williamstown, Vt., in 1854, and is the youngest son of the late Hon. A. J. Dufur and Lois Dufur. His parents moved with their family to Wisconsin in 1855, and in 1857 his father was elected to a seat in the Wisconsin legislature. In 1860 his family emigrated to Oregon, where young Dufur has since lived. He resided in Multnomah county from the age of 6 until he became 22, when he removed to Dufur, Wasco county, his present home.
His father was a member of the Oregon legislature, from Multnomah county, in 1862, was president of the State Agricultural Society, and assisted in its organization. In 1870 was commissioner for Oregon to the centennial exhibition.
His eldest brother, Hon. E. B. Dufur, was a member of the legislature in 1874, and in 1896 was elected joint senator for Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam counties, and is now mayor of The Dalles, Oregon. His other brother, A. J. Dufur, Jr., was first mayor of the town of Dufur, which was named in honor of the Dufur family.

Mr. Dufur was married to Miss May L. Alexander, of East Portland, on July 16, 1876, and is the happy parent of two precocious children—a son and a daughter—Andrew B. and Blanche G. He is an exemplary member of the A. O. U. W., Woodmen of the World and the United Artisans.
W. H. H. or "Harrison," as he is commonly called, has been a member of the Republican County Convention since 1882, with one exception, which was in 1890, he refusing to serve on account of being forest supervisor, and has been a member of the republican county central committee most of the time since 1882, and is at present. Was elected a member of the legislature in 1882 from Wasco county, being the youngest member of the house, and voted for Hon. John H. Mitchell every ballot that was cast. Prior to the last ballot, on the advice of Senator Mitchell himself, he stated that while he preferred to continue to vote for Mr. Mitchell, he considered it his duty to assist in the election of a republican to the U. S. senate, and that when his ballot would elect he stood ready to change it for the sake of the grand old party. When the time came he was given that honor, although there were five more on the floor clamoring for recognition, and his ballot elected Joseph N. Dolph.
In 1890 Mr. Dufur was appointed a commissioner and distributing agent of the Warm Spring and Colville Indian commission. Upon the commission finishing its work, which was in June, 1891, the papers of his county complimented him highly for the satisfactory manner in which he had assisted in conducting said work.
In August, 1878, he was appointed forest supervisor for the horticultural division of the Cascade forest reserve and the Bull Run reserve, which office he has discharged in a most creditable manner; in fact, every trust reposed in him has been faithfully and intelligently executed, which fact, added to his devoted fidelity to his friends and his courage in assisting them, is the primary reason the press of his immediate residence has so heartily espoused his cause.

Ladies' Champion Base Ball Club.
One of the most exciting and interesting games of the season will take place in this city on June 18th between the Ladies' Champion Base Ball Club of Boston, Mass., and The Dalles local club.
The Boston Bloomers is the usual title given this famous ladies' base ball club. They are justly entitled to the same, as they always appear upon the field, to battle for supremacy, dressed in the twentieth century garb—the bloomers. This organization of female ball players is the only ladies ball club in America. The team was first organized in 1893. This is their seventh annual tour. The club is under the management of Mr. W. P. Needham, and they travel in their own palace car. During the past six years this organization of female ball players have traveled extensively and visited all the large cities in America and both provinces of Canada. The club has been strengthened from year to year, each member selected for her ability to execute and fill her particular position in a manner satisfactory and becoming a member of this, the champion ladies' base ball club of the world. Don't fail to see them.
Admission, adults 50 cents; children 25 cents.
