

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK

Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y.
Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y.," writes Mr. Charles W. Babcock, "was so confining that my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before I took the cold which came so near killing me. I now weigh 150 pounds—ten pounds more than ever. After recovering, I applied for a life insurance policy. When the doctor began examining me, I was afraid he would discover that my lungs had once been affected, but he didn't. I passed all right, and was pronounced in a first-class condition. If that isn't proof of the most positive kind that Acker's English Remedy is a great medicine, I don't know what you call proof. I give it my warmest endorsement. My address is given above. Anyone who wishes may write me personally about my case."

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s., 2s., 3s., 4s., 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

For sale at Blakeley's Pharmacy.

NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE.

Which Will be For Their Own Benefit if Heeded.

Before buying any tombstones or any cemetery work come and see Mr. Comini. Don't let any one bluff you with their slick talk. They know nothing about the business and run down the poor mechanic. They try to make you believe that their work is durable. Before you give your order let Mr. Comini take you out to the cemetery and show you what kind of work he puts up and give you his prices for similar work. Don't be in a hurry to give your order, but first give Mr. Comini a chance to figure on your work. You will find by asking any one who has had business dealings with Mr. Comini that all of his work is of first-class quality, just as he represents it to be, and that his prices for such work are very low.

It is not necessary to send for stone from other places, there is stone here in The Dalles that will stand until the judgment day. Sandstone cumbles. jun12-dawtf

Value of the Philippines.
New York, June 10.—In an article in the coming issue of Leslie's Weekly, General Frederick D. Grant will say that the value of the Philippines to the United States cannot be overestimated. "A man with a small income can build up a competence there more readily than in this country and the field is full of opportunity for the industrious and the thrifty. The soil is capable of supporting three times the present number of inhabitants, and of doing it much better than they are now supported, when there are better facilities for transportation."

Don't.

Don't expect a "cheap" enameled utensil to last long. It doesn't.

Don't think such a one can be kept clean. It can't.

Don't believe the "cheap" enamel isn't steadily crumbling away. It is.

Don't imagine in using such you're not eating the enamel. You are.

Don't figure you are saving money buying the cheapest. You're not.

Don't forget the "cheap" has but one coating of enamel. Just one.

Don't fail to recollect that imported Stransky steel-ware lasts for years.

Don't buy that kind if health and economy are of no consequence.

Don't try to get the genuine elsewhere, for it's sold exclusively by

MAYS & CROWE.
