Gen. Ballington Booth insists that the controversy at issue between the two factions of the Salvation Army is as far from adjustment as that between the Boers and Britons.

The Oregonian is just now suffering from a violent attack of McKinleyphobia, greatly intensified by the president's recent announcement that he would not accept a third-term nomination if it were tendered him.

It is to be hoped that the president's recent pronouncement has silenced for good the third-term talk, and that the McKinley phobists will tune their harps to another key. No sensible person ever gave the matter a moment's serious consideration.

Good for McKinley, says the Albany Democrat. He has come out with an emphatic statement that he would not accept a nomination for a third term if tendered him. This is to the point and should shut the mouths of such fool politicians as Heath and Grosvenor.

You can't beat a Salem girl. One of the smart guys who came to Salem with the excursion last Sunday was talking with a belle of the Capital City and endeavored to tease her on religious questions by asking her if she believed the story of Jonah and the whale. "I don't know," she said, "but when I get to heaven I'll ask Jonah if it occurred." "But," said the funny man, "supposing he isn't there?" "Then," said the girl promptly, "you can ask him."—Statesman.

Postmasters throughout the United States have received orders from the department to discontinue the paying of money orders drawn on any other office than their own. For some time past as an experiment, certain authorized postmasters have been paying money orders drawn on any postoffice, when they were satisfied that the orders were all right. This scheme has been found unsatisfactory, resulting in much work and confusion and some loss, hence the department discontinued it May 31.

"Dann" Emmett, the author of "Dixie," "Old Black Joe," "Old Folks at Home," and "Old Dan Tucker," is reported to be dying, in his lonely home high up on a hill-top near Mount Vernon, Ohio. He is 86 years of age, and death is coming slowly to him by physical and mental decay; but his music will live through succeeding ages, and the stanzas wedded to his melodies will be household words when the billock that will soon mark his resting place has been leveled by the hand of Time.

Darwinism is the greatest thing in the world, according to Rev. Dr. Minot J. Savage, the famous Unitarian divine. In a recent sermon the reverend doctor told his congregation that more than all the religions in the world the belief that man derives his origin from "the ooze of the primeval ocean shores" and that "the animals are of our kin as much as our brothers and sisters and fathers and mothers," has "lifted the level of all life into the sunlight of the divine." The idea of lifting a man into the "sunlight of the divine" by getting him to believe that he is brother to the jelly-fish, the clam, the rat, the skunk, the hog, is only a little less sublime in its conception than the more ancient formula of lifting humanity by its boot straps. Yet this man Savage calls himself a Christian minister and he is not generally considered a candidate for a lunatic asylum.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.
