

Spitting Blood

"I used to cough a great deal and spit blood, and my neighbors in Dayton, Ohio, where I live, said among themselves that I had consumption, although they did not tell me so to my face, for fear of making me despondent. I kept on coughing and trying different sorts of medicines, but nothing seemed to reach my trouble until I got hold of a bottle of Acker's English Remedy. I prayed for health all the time, and my prayers were answered as soon as I began taking this celebrated English expectorant and tonic. Since my recovery I have told hundreds of sufferers from coughs, colds and weak lungs that Acker's English Remedy would cure them. Some of them won't try it, and it does seem to me terrible when anyone deliberately refuses to be cured. There ought to be a law compelling consumptives to take it. Even if they don't care for their own lives, the public's welfare should be considered. Don't you think so, too? I hope such a law will soon be enforced."
(Signed) Mrs. RICHMOND.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Frank Malone, of Antelope, is registered at the European House.

Senator T. H. Johnston and family will leave Monday for the senator's old home in Centerville, New Brunswick. They will visit Chicago and the Pan-American exposition, and will probably be gone three months. The senator has not been at the place of his birth since he left there twenty-five years ago.

BORN.

This morning, June 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, of this city, a son.

Mrs. Botha's Work.

New York, June 12.—Peace in South Africa, says the London correspondent of the Tribune, is still a cuckoo song, although the cuckoos come from many quarters. The most effective peacemaker is probably the wife of the commander-in-chief, who has concealed her work in London and baffled the most enterprising newsgatherers. While there is no authentic information, it is generally believed that she delivered to Lord Milner or to Mr. Chamberlain some message from General Botha and other Boer leaders and that Mr. Kruger has also been consulted.

South African rumors respecting an exchange of cable communications between the Boer leaders and Mr. Kruger are less credible. The surrender of a small commando at Pietersburg is encouraging the optimists to hope that the end is close at hand. The judgment of the more experienced South Africans is that the war will drag along for several months and that the only result of premature peace negotiations will be the renewal of Boer agitation in England.

Will Explode a Big Charge.

New York, June 12.—Three and one-half tons of dynamite are to be exploded under the Narrows between Fort Hamilton and Fort Wadsworth. The dynamite was used in torpedoes during the Spanish war as a defense to the harbor. After the war Major H. H. Adams, of the Engineer Corps, instead of exploding the torpedoes, extracted the charges and stored the dynamite. Major W. L. Marshall has advertised it for sale, but there have been no bids for it. Major Marshall has therefore decided to sink the dynamite in casks of 500 pounds each into the waters of the Narrows. Electric connections are to be made with the forts and the dynamite will be exploded by the touch of a key. When Major Marshall sets off his charge 7200 pounds of dynamite Staten Island fishermen expect to get a wonderful catch.

Boy Is Missing.

OREGON CITY, June 12.—A 17-year-old boy residing in Borings precinct, named Douglas, has a desire to go to sea. As he has not been seen since Sunday evening, the boy's father, C. N. Douglas, who was here this morning, is afraid he has shipped on some outgoing vessel. About a year ago the boy ran away from home and was caught by the Portland police on board of an English sailing vessel, an hour or two previous to her intended departure. The father says that the boy is industrious, but is bent on taking a trip on a sailing vessel.
