THE CHRONIC DYSPHEPTIC.

The Oregonian Wednesday morning did not disappoint any of its readers who are at all familiar with the disposition and course of political action which have guided its editorial utterances for some time. Early Wednesday morning, two well-known republicans of Salem were talking on the street relative to President McKinley's letter and what the Oregonian was likely to say about it. One of them remarked: "Oh, the Oregonian will simply say that the president had his ear to the ground and knew it would be no use to run, so he backed out." To show how well that man knew his subject, the Oregonian columns were scanned upon its arrival and the following was found: "Meanwhile it is reassuring to see that the president's ear is on the ground with all its wonted alertness." And this also: "Mr. McKinley knows he couldn't be elected again. It is doubtful whether he could have been elected in 1896, and certainly he could not have been elected in 1900 but for the stupid and fatuous course of the democratic party in its adherence to Bryanism."

These clippings illustrate the disposition manifested toward President McKinley by the Oregonian at all times, which obscures its vision and prevents it from discovering a praiseworthy trait in his character or an act of his that is entitled to generous commendation. But, so long as nobody expected anything different from the Oregonian, all will be satisfied and pass by its criticisms as another evidence of editorial dyspepsia.—Salem Statesman.

The Courier-Journal has only disgust for the secret traitors at home who are forever trying to discredit their country with her foes. It says: "Cisneros, one of the members of the Cuban Constitutional Convention, informs that body that he is in receipt of letters from New York advising the convention not to accept the Platt amendment, and assuring him that public opinion in the United States would support the convention in rejecting it. It is entirely probable that Mr. Cisneros has received such letters. Nothing has been more clearly shown in the last two or three years than that there are a number of Americans who are always most active whenever there is a chance to oppose their own country."

The parliamentary register for 1896 showed that there was then only one potwalloper in all England. One seeing the term for the first time might easily imagine that a potwalloper was a species of ichthyosaurus or some other reptile of a past age. It will be discovered upon inquiry, however, that the term "potwalloper" is literally one who boils a pot, and was applied to voters in certain boroughs of England, where before the passage of the reform bill of 1832 the qualification for suffrage was to have boiled (wallowed) his own pot in the parish for six months.

Mrs. Nancy B. Irving, of Chicago, who has published a book intended to prove that under the present social conditions business cannot be conducted honestly, offers a reward of $1,000 to the business or professional man who proves that he has done his work for a month without lying.

Sumpter has an ordinance which is designed to prevent the miners of that religious burg from roaming about after midnight. It's dollars to doughnuts that it isn't enforced.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing.
