DEMOCRATIC THIRD TERMERS.

Nothing remains now of third-term possibilities except the renomination of Grover Cleveland, says the Globe-Democrat. Mr. Cleveland has already had three nominations, but he has been president but twice, and has never said that he would not run again. He is rather more than the logical candidate of the party. He is the only democrat elected to the presidency since the calamity of James Buchanan in 1856. The failure of the party since breaking with Mr. Cleveland has been most sweeping. A huge republican majority in 1896 was followed by one still larger in 1900. The further the democratic party drifts from Mr. Cleveland the worse it is off. Standing by him it is wrong, but without him it is ridiculous. If the democratic national committee should go to Mr. Cleveland in a spirit of contrition and acknowledge that he is a democratic necessity, as proved by the political history of forty years, it would at least get out of the woods and find itself on a traveled road.

The reorganizers in Missouri are friends of Mr. Cleveland and regard him as the most eminent man in the party. If he is not entitled to that station, who is? Of course, it will be proposed to nominate some other democrat in 1904, but the grim fact of the business is that only one Grover exists. Olney wobbled over to Bryan in the last campaign; Gorman, the oleaginous, has lost his grip on his own state; Hill is too easily impelled by panic to crawl up into Wolfert's Roost and slam the trapdoor; but Grover is a husky block of granite, with two terms inscribed already and room remaining, as far as heard from, for a third. As the democratic papers of late have been much exercised about a third term, they can apply their remaining ammunition to a Cleveland boom, and they cannot deny that the democratic party without Grover is simply a set of wheels without linchpins.

Linn county, the banner popo-democratic county of the state, that was held up during the last state campaign as a pattern of everything that is excellent in local self-government, has just had to borrow $44,000 wherewith to pay its state tax, while it has a delinquent tax list of $100,000. If comparisons were not odious we might remark that Wasco county never had any use for the popo-democratic foolery, yet it was able weeks ago to pay its state tax without borrowing money on interest, while its delinquencies on the tax roll of 1900 amount to only about $20,000 out of a total tax list of $106,000.

While the pioneers were in session at Portland a telegram announced that "The proposition to consolidate the Native Daughters with the Native Sons was voted down." Served 'em right, says the Oregon Republican.

This matter, left to the private decision of the two parties in interest, will settle itself. The "consolidation" is practically assured, but it will not require a public vote and it will proceed seriatim until all the Native Sons and Native Daughters will have been duly and properly "consolidated."

THE CHRONICLE owes an apology to F. H. Wakefield for having omitted his name in Saturday's issue from the list of candidates nominated for councilmen. The omission was wholly an oversight. In transcribing the names of the candidates from the reporter's note book, Mr. Wakefield's name was inadvertently omitted. THE CHRONICLE regrets the omission although, of course, it did no harm to anybody.

A bill passed at the last session of the Washington legislature, providing ten hours a day for women clerks, went into effect Friday. Besides other lines of work, the law includes women employed in mercantile establishments, laundries, hotels or restaurants. The law makes it a misdemeanor for an employer to require more than ten hours' a day from any female employe.

The voice of Col. Henry Watterson is still crying in the democratic wilderness for a fresh pack of cards and a new deal.—Anaconda Standard.

The modern Elijah says that he is afraid of no woman, but he has not yet made the acquaintance of our cook, says the Chicago Journal.

A Vassar girl has just thrown a baseball 173 feet—all the feet lying in the same direction. No casualties.—Minneapolis Journal.

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.

"A few months ago, food which I ate for breakfast would not remain on my stomach for half an hour. I used one bottle of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and can now eat my breakfast and other meals with a relish and my food is thoroughly digested. Nothing equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for stomach troubles." H. S. Pitts, Arlington Tex., Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
