WASCO CLAIMS HIM.

All the Same as Seven Cities Claimed the Immortal Homer.

The days of the minstrel have not passed, or at least the minstrel is here in Baker, says the Republican of that city. Possibly the doctrine of transmigration of souls is true, after all, and Homer has done his penance, changed his lyre for a fiddle, the chiefman's court for the street corner, and dropped the sonorous Greek name for the Yankee cognomen of U. P. Sam. One thing is certain, that around the camp fire of the pioneer U. P. Sam was always a welcome guest, and if the crowds gathered on the corners today are evidence of anything more than the general tendency of people to loaf, that popularity is not declining.

U. P. Sam is a peculiar genius. He won his name from a song composed on the Union Pacific during the building of that railway. He has followed a rambling life of song and fiddle from his earliest boyhood until the "minstrel is infirm and old." His songs are all his own composition, and extemporaneous, as Street Superintendent Harum and others who got conspicuous around him today may testify.

U. P. Sam is known over a great part of the Pacific coast, and whenever a crowd is assembled and from the midst somewhere issues the sound of a rasping fiddle and a squeaky voice, chanting one continuous tune, the man who is informed will murmur "U. P. Sam."

Moki Tea positively cures Sick Headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, producing a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25 cts and 50 cts. Blakeley, the druggist.

Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold on a positive guarantee. Cures heart-burn, raising of the food, distress after eating, or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief. 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley, the druggist.

If anything ails your hair, go and see Frazer; he's the headquarters for all hair remedies. Remember that he makes a specialty of these goods.

Clarke & Falk's flavoring extracts are the best. Ask your grocer for them.

When your hair appears dry and to have lost its vitality it wants something to give it life and vigor. We have what the hair needs when it gets in that condition. We have the Crown of Science Hair Grower and Cocconut Cream Tonic. They will cure dandruff and all scalp diseases. For sale at Frazer's barber shop. Price 50c and 75c a bottle.

County Treasurer.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Found—a pair of spectacles which the owner can have by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

The river gauge at this place registered this morning 27.9 feet above zero, a fall of 8.9 feet from the highest stage of this year.

From Mr. A. R. Thompson we learn that his daughter, Lois, is getting along very encouragingly and her complete recovery is confidently expected.

Tomorrow may be the only chance of a life time to see a team of women in bloomers playing baseball. The sight ought to have the drawing power of a two ringed circus.

District Attorney Frank Menefee, of The Dalles, is here this week representing the state in the noted riot case. Mr. Menefee is a popular official and has many friends through the district.—Cordon Globe.

Some of the wooden churches of Norway are 700 years old, and are still in an excellent state of preservation. Their timbers have resisted the frosty and almost Arctic winters because they have been repeatedly coated with tar.

Harry Gilpin intends to treat himself and family to a new farm house on his ranch on the other side of Eight Mile. He was in town today for a load of the lumber which he bought in part from the Oregon Lumber Company at Portland.

There are now four fish hatcheries in the state, and it is the intention of Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen to establish others on the Des Chutes, John Day, Wilson and Snake rivers, and at other points if practicable, says the Astorian.

At the weekly drawing at M. T. Nolan's store Saturday night Mrs. Ann Brown won the dollar magazine subscription, Wallace Wilson the picture and Mrs. Hugh Fraser the dollar rebate for holding the largest number of coupons for the week.

Henry Johnston, the Dufur druggist, says there never were such prospects for big crops in the Dufur neighborhood as there are this year. The barley crop is just beginning to color and there is any number of acres of it that appears to be safely good for seventy-five bushels to the acre.

Miss Melvia Dawson, who has served the public most acceptably at the delivery window of The Dalles postoffice for over a year, has tendered her resignation to take effect on the first of next month. Miss Dawson will be succeeded by Miss Beulah Patterson, eldest daughter of the postmaster.

Died, at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, June 16th, after an illness of about a week with cholera infantum, Vernon, the 2-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Dio Wilder, of this city. The funeral will take place from the residence of Second street, between Federal and Laughlin, this evening at 6 o'clock.

Fish Warden Van Dusen returned yesterday from a trip along the Des Chutes river, looking for available hatchery sites. He reports the river to be an excellent one for the desired purpose and a further inspection is being made by Expert F. C. Brown. It is quite probable that racks will be built on the river and hatchery operations commenced in the early fall.—Astorian.

The city election took place today and a hot contest is waging for mayorship between W. A. Johnston, the regular nominee and G. J. Farley, who ran independent. It is impossible, with any information at hand, to even guess who will win out. The only other contest was for councilman for the First ward, in which F. W. L. Skibbe ran against J. M. Toomey the regular nominee.

THE CHRONICLE has a number of the premium lists of the coming Oregon state fair, which it would be pleased to give away to any one who may feel an interest in the matter. And THE CHRONICLE hopes that Wasco county producers may feel a sufficient interest to make an exhibit that will teach the Webfooters that we raise something over this way besides wool and beef and mutton.

Mr. S. L. Brooks, who returned Saturday night from attending the meeting of the pioneers, says the last meeting was one of the best the pioneers ever had. Mr. Brooks thinks it strange that there was not a larger attendance from this neighborhood. As far as he knows there were only five persons from Wasco county, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Judge Robert Mays, Dr. Siddall and R. V. Drake.

The Democrat has received a fine pamphlet, artistically gotten up showing the beautiful scenery along the Columbia. It is issued by the Regulator, and is the compliments of Mr. Winnifred Campbell, now connected with the line, and located at The Dalles, says the Albany Democrat. And THE CHRONICLE takes pleasure in adding that this really beautiful work of art is the product of the Chronicle job office.

Died, Sunday morning, June 16th, at the home of his parents in this city,

Harry, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson. The cause of death was diphtheria, from which the boy had suffered for about two weeks, and which he contracted while visiting a family on Eight Mile that had had the disease some time previously. By the advice of the attending physician the remains were interred late last night.

Died, Sunday morning, June 16th, at his home near Eight Mile creek, Joseph Sherwin, aged 64 years. The immediate cause of death was heart trouble. Mr. Sherwin was taken suddenly ill Sunday morning, and Dr. E. E. Ferguson was sent for, but before the doctor's arrival he passed away. He leaves a wife, who separated from him shortly after marriage a few years ago. The interment took place at the Dufur cemetery this afternoon.

The Scio, Linn county, people are practical folks, as would appear from the following reference to them in the Albany Democrat: "At an adjourned meeting of the city council held last Friday evening the ordinance prohibiting cows from running at large was suspended during the present month, the object being to enable the cattle to eat off the grass which has grown to considerable height along the unused streets and vacant lots."

At Twelve Mile, on the Canyon City road, this morning, Samuel L. Clemens, of Prineville, was thrown violently to the ground from a horse he had just mounted and had his left arm broken in two places and dislocated at the elbow. Mr. Clemens was immediately driven to The Dalles, where he arrived this forenoon and put himself under the care of Drs. Ferguson at the hospital. Mr. Clemens was on his way to Prineville with a load of freight, and had left here only yesterday morning.

Work has commenced on the Wasco Warehouse Milling Company's power plant at White river falls, a force of men having been taken to the grounds by the Pacific Bridge Company two or three days ago. Last week John Brookhouse, of Dufur, took out to the falls 27,000 pounds of supplies of various kinds and tools. Two teams belonging to the contractors, heavily loaded with similar supplies, followed, and this forenoon O. P. Weberg, of Wapinitia, followed with still another load. As no part of the machinery of the plant was included in any of this freight, one may gather from it an idea of the magnitude of the work.

Tomorrow there will be played in this city a game of base ball between The Dalles High School and the Boston Bloomer Club. The Boston Bloomers will arrive in the city on the early morning train and during the forenoon they will put up the canvas wall and the grand stand. It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance as the local team is put to a large expense in bringing this team to The Dalles. It will be worth the small sum of fifty cents to see a woman throw the ball, and there will be a good many thrown, so there is no doubt but those who attend the game will get their money's worth. Another thing worth remembering is that you can sit down, not on the ground, but on a comfortable seat. Remember the time 2:30 p. m.

Will Close for the Base Ball Game.

We, the undersigned merchants of The Dalles, agree to close our places of business between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. on the 18th day of June, 1901, in the interest of a game of base ball to be played between The Dalles and Boston Bloomers. Provided, however, that this list shall be again submitted to us when complete, we reserving the right to withdraw our names if the list is not satisfactory:

Stock Yard Items.

A load of hogs was shipped this morning from the O. R. & N. stock yards to Troutdale. They were purchased from the Columbia Packing Company.

Five carloads of sheep will be shipped tonight by D. P. Ketchum to Troutdale, three to the Union stock yards at Portland, and one carload of cattle to Troutdale by Monroe Grimes.

Eleven carloads of Indian ponies are on the way here from the Yakima reservation to be shipped to the Linnton cannery. They are expected here tomorrow, or possibly tonight.

A. F. & A. M.

There will be a stated communication of Wasco Lodge, No. 15, A. F. & A. M., this evening, June 17, 1901, at 8. All members and visiting brethren are requested to attend. By order of the W. M. O. D. Deane, Secy.
