DON'T OVERLOOK THESE BARGAINS.

Fifty Paragraphs.

Variety may be the spice of life, but most men seem to prefer cloves.

There was a little boy who was badly puzzled over the theory of evolution. He went to his mother and asked: "Mamma, am I descended from a monkey?" "I don't know," she answered; "I never met any of your father's people."

In the marriage service of a new sect a part of the husband's pledge reads as follows: "When I find my wife is irritated I will endeavor by tender and loving methods and kind words to soothe her." The wife, however, is still left free to use the potato masher.

A Jersey farmer visiting New York stood looking at a sign in a book store window "Dickens' Works All This Week for Two Dollars." "Waal," he remarked, "my 'pinion is that that Dickens feller is either a mighty poor workman or else he's contounded hard up for a job."—Railway Employers' Journal.

If a boy wants to be spider-legged and weak-kneed; if he wants to be short-winded and hollow chested; if he wants to be thin-jawed and dead on his feet; if he wants to grow into a scrub that no business man wants to employ, let him be a cigarette fiend. Otherwise let him keep the nicotine out of his windpipe.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Buschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world, and sold by Clarke & Falk. Get Green's prize almanac.

"Cottage Gem."

A good piano for sale, only $60; in perfect condition; made by T. A. Stone & Co., of New York, and is a rare bargain. Also a Weber for $250. Everyone knows what the Weber piano is. We have an organ, only $15, made by Loring & Blake, and a W. W. Kimball organ, used but a short time, at $50. We carry the three high-grade pianos—Kimball, Weber and Chickering.

MENEFFER & PARKINS,
The Dalles, Ore.

Why pay $1.75 per gallon for inferior paints when you can buy James E. Patton's sun proof paints for $1.50 per gallon, guaranteed for 5 years. Clark & Falk, agents.

Don't Rub It In.

Just wet the affected part freely with Mysterious Pain Cure, a Scotch remedy, and the pain is gone. Sold by Clarke & Falk.

The bilious, tired, nervous man cannot successfully compete with his healthy rival. DeWitt's Little Early Risers the famous pills for constipation will remove the cause of your troubles. Clarke & Falk's P. O. Pharmacy.

Clarke & Falk have received a carload of the celebrated James E. Patton strictly pure liquid paints

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

It is rumored that a very rich strike in oil has been made near Pendleton, and the housewives of The Dalles have struck just the thing in oil stoves at Mays & Crowe's.

A. J. Howie, of the Dufur country, brought to town this morning eleven head of fat hogs, which he sold to Christian Bros. at five cents a pound. The eleven head weighed 2760 pounds.

A dispatch to the Oregonian from Sandy announces that travelers have commenced to take the Barlow road in crossing the mountains, and that the Mount Hood and Barlow road have been put in excellent condition.

The La Grande Chronicle has received the announcement of the marriage of Fred Fiod, who for a time worked in the Times-Mountaineer office in this city, and who is now editor of the Boise Capital News.

Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, will deliver the oration in Milton on the Fourth of July. Judge Bennett is the most eloquent and able speaker and Milton is to be congratulated on securing him as speaker on that day, says the Milton Eagle.

An express shipment of summer neckwear has just been received at A. M. Williams & Co.'s. This popular ready-made bow, soft and fluffy, in a wide range of new silks and patterns, is conspicuously represented in the lot. On display in interior case.

The Linnton abattoir will begin grinding on a bunch of 25,000 head of cayuse horses in a few days. This number is said to have been bought by the proprietor of the cannery and the abattoir will be run continuously until the whole lot of 25,000 is worked up.

The English sparrow, so much dreaded and maligned in certain quarters, is here, and, judging from its ability to take care of itself, is here to stay. But nobody need be scared for the thrifty little bird, like many other afflictions, has its compensations and is not half as bad as it is reported to be.

As will be seen in another column,

County Treasurer Hampshire has issued a call for all warrants issued prior to July 1898. This brings the oldest of the outstanding warrants down to a period of about two years and eleven months. This is a gain of about five months within the past year.

Walla Walla county has been re-bonded for $80,000 for twenty years with a ten-year option at four per cent. N. W. Harris & Co., of Chicago, put up the money. The old bonds, which are to be called in at once by the county treasurer, carried five per cent interest. The new sale will effect a saving of about $1000 per annum.

The agents of the Northern Pacific road are authorized to purchase cattle and sheep in Montana and deliver them to farmers on a share basis. The plan will be especially appreciated by the Russian, Swedish and Norwegian homeseekers, who have come in recent years and taken up claims.

Mrs. G. H. Johnson, nee Farmer, got a dispatch from Portland Monday morning announcing the death at that place, of consumption, of her widowed sister, Mrs. Maggie Upper. Mrs. Johnson left on the next train to accompany the remains to Tacoma for interment beside the deceased's husband.

Next Saturday, June 22nd, at 2 p. m., the balance of the estate of the late Walter Fish will be sold at public auction at the front door of the court house. The unsold portion consists of one lot, 50x100 feet, adjoining the store of Walthers & Sexton on Second street, and about five acres, including a brick residence, in Laughlin's bluff addition to Dalles City. jun19 3t

The East Oregonian says that "Bummer," the famous dog owned by T. T. Nelson, which was shot through the body with a 22-cartridge a few weeks ago, will recover. Mr. Nelson had the best of surgical care for the dog and is pleased to announce that the mascot of the Second Oregon, U. S. V., will in all probability live many years, notwithstanding the cowardly attempt upon his life.

Drop into Mays & Crowe's store and see the Perfection oil stove work. It is simply perfect. One valve does the whole work. No complicated parts to get out of order. Cheaper than wood. No hot kitchen. There are no others just as good. Investigate before buying, for these stoves are not sold by any other firm in The Dalles. 19-1f

F. C. Brown, field superintendent of Oregon salmon hatcheries, went out to Sherar's Bridge the other day to view the Deschutes river with the design of locating a hatchery at that place should the conditions, in his judgment, be found favorable. Fish Warden Van Dusen, who sent Mr. Brown thither, approves of the place for a hatchery, so that the project is likely to be carried out.

Miss Alyse O'Leary, granddaughter of the Mrs. O'Leary whose cow kicked over the lamp that burned Chicago, has just paid a visit to that city. She is very proud of being a descendant of the proprietor of the animal that dealt that famous kick. "Look at Chicago as it is," she says, "and then think of what it would have been if Grandmother O'Leary's cow had been of the breed that does not kick." Yet they say that Miss O'Leary is not bought at all, but bears her honors quite modestly, often speaking to common people.—Rochester Union.

At the regular meeting of the Order of Washington, Continental Union, No. 76, the following officers were elected for the next six months: President, J. S. Fine; past president, Rufus S. Akins; vice-president, Lady F. Hopkins; secretary, P. G. Kruger; treasurer, George Krause; chaplain, Lady Martha Hill; guard, Jesse Stillwell; sentinel, John F. Fine; escort, Edgar Lemison; assistant escort, Lady J. Akins. Trustees, James Duncan, W. R. Hopkins, Lady M. French. Dr. Geisendorfer, medical examiner. Lady Zou Burham, musician.

Emile Schanno, member of the State Board of Horticulture, has just returned home from a visit to the Hood River valley, where he was pleased to find the outlook for the apple crop very much better than he had expected. In many orchards there will be a full crop; in some not quite a full crop, but in every instance he found that the Ben Davis was maintaining its reputation for being a prolific bearer. "Hood River," said Mr. Schanno to THE CHRONICLE, "is the liveliest town of its size in Oregon. On the three boats that landed there yesterday not less than two hundred persons got on and off, and they weren't berry-pickers either."

Mayor-Elect Farley authorizes THE CHRONICLE to say that candidates for marshal and recorder, if there are any, which is quite possibly the case, may spare themselves the trouble of getting up petitions asking him to nominate them for these offices. He says he has fully made up his mind that in no solitary instance will he even look at such petitions. He knows they are, as a rule, signed under duress of one kind or other, and he has no faith in them as in any certain way expressing the sentiments of the people. Mr. Farley will take counsel of his friends and make such nominations as in their and his judgment will be for the best interests of the city.

Yesterday's baseball game between the Boston Bloomer and The Dalles nine resulted in a victory for The Dalles boys by a score of 22 to 13. The Bloomer girls put up what we suppose the Bostonese would call a good game, but they seemed to have got tired after a start that threatened to sweep everything. Financially speaking the Bloomers made a "home run," and notwithstanding an attendance of about 500 persons they left The Dalles boys in a hole. The hole, however, is so very small that nobody has any kick coming.

The Bloomers are a wonderful institution in more ways than one. It may be remarked, parenthetically, that they are "onto their job" in the science of swiping the shekels.

G. W. Stone, the Mitchell saloon man, had quite an interesting time this week collecting some money that he had lent to a sheep-shearer from the Dufur country named Craft. After a deal of telephoning, costing $8.75, Stone succeeded in having the fellow arrested at Antelope and securing a settlement with him. The amount borrowed was $17.50, and by mutual agreement Craft was set at liberty upon paying the legal costs at Antelope and leaving $10 for Stone, who paid all costs at the Mitchell end of the line. By this arrangement Stone quit with about $40 worth of satisfaction and a net loss of $3.50, in addition to the original seventeen fifty.—Fossil Journal.

A great many Dalles people will remember Fred Fisher, who, in his boyhood, lived and went to school in The Dalles. His father was connected with the O. R. & N. Company in the days when the shops were here, and Fred had many friends among the young people of the town. It will also be remembered that even while a boy he showed unusual talent in an artistic line. Since that time he has studied and broadened the sphere of his work till he has become an artist of recognized merit and well known throughout the Pacific coast. We are glad to announce that the people of The Dalles are to have an opportunity of viewing some of Mr. Fisher's work, as some of his pictures are to be on exhibition in the building formerly occupied by W. E. Garretson's jewelry store. Those who have seen these pictures pronounce them exceptional works of art and the collection superior to any exhibit ever brought to the Northwest. Exhibition and sale beginning tonight will continue for three days, afternoon and evening.
